

August Newsletter

Our pictures this month are from our trip. The Redwoods in Armstrong Forest near Santa Rosa are just astounding. The biggest is 480 ft. tall and 1400 years old. There are the quiet walking paths as show in the second picture of the forest. The quiet was so deep that it was almost loud.

The last picture was taken at Luther Burbank's home in Santa Rosa. It is a beautiful tribute to an amazing creator.

First I would like to thank everyone in California for making my trip so wonderful. I am happy to have met so many new people. My gratitude and blessings go out to all of you.

I am hoping to be in L. A. in April, as the L. A. part of the trip did not come together this time nor did Elk Grove (Sacramento area).

Santa Rosa was wonderful in many ways. The area around the town is amazing and the people that I connected with are great. My thanks to Barbara and Jim Bennett for being such great hosts.

I only spent one day with Lazarus, but it was a life altering time. St. Germain said that this trip was for my healing and Dorian's and it surely felt that way.

I was in San Mateo when the shooting took place in Aurora. I was made more aware than ever on this trip that our thoughts do create our reality. Our emotions and where we focus our attention empowers the thought. I noticed that when I got home more than 10 % of the emails that I had were people wanting to buy and/or sell weapons. One police officer was advertising to teach people how to shoot guns. He said that good people need to be armed. Unfortunately, that never seems to be the case. The ones who are doing the shooting are firing at unarmed people. My most sincere desire is that we can begin to focus on everyone healing the wounds that drive them to kill or maim. The three days with Lazarus were about healing the pain that denies us our full connection to our true self and feeling the love that is there for us if we can be courageous to own it. As we heal the pain on all levels we can begin to reclaim who we really are and live the love that lifts us out of the darkness of the EGO (the dark knight rising). To allow the Light that we are to embrace the darkness and change us from the inside out is how we truly change the world.

I hope to be in California again soon.

My next journey is to Georgia in Oct.-Nov. for group, privates and intensive at Helen Dumbas'. The intensive "Celebration or Limitation: A Master's Choice" will be November 3-4. Call Helen for information and appointments, 770 784-1060.

Rainbow Center News

Our August group will be held on the 12st at the Rainbow Center, 177 N. 4th, Lander. The session will begin at 2 p.m. and is titled “What and Where is Center?”

There is so much talk about going to center and has been for years. You cannot reach center in your head or with your mind. Center is an energetic zone that exists in the area of the solar plexus, but is not directly physical, even though it feels connected to the physical body. As each person begins to find center and allow the interaction with spirit the changes that occur are definitely felt between the physical senses and the Soul essence.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2012groups.html

The Inner Merlin series for August is “The Old Ones Speak on the Wind”.

The winds are getting stronger as the planet is experiencing changes at every level. The Old Ones, the elemental aspects that work with the earth, her patterns and her people, are seeking to get the attention of those who refuse to change or hear within.

The Old Ones can appear to be destructive because they are a part of the energy that is taking the old out-moded patterns away from the earth. Fire and water are the most obvious elements that are working to clear things, but wind and the shifting of the earth herself are also helping everything to move forward NOW.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON

On August 1-2 we will experience a Full Moon in Aquarius. The Sun in Leo focuses on our creativity. Leo, the sign that rules the heart, represents courage and this is a virtue that helps to bring us home to ourselves. Aquarius represents our altruistic concepts and lifts us out of the old limiting ways of seeing life.

The most outstanding aspect that we are dealing with at this time is the Pluto-Uranus square. For the next two months the volatile energy of these two power planets will disrupt and recreate our lives at each New and Full Moon. Recently intensified solar activity is altering the magnetic fields of the Earth and of her inhabitants. The extra-intense solar flames are dissolving the old matrixes and building new grids. We are in the midst of a dimensional shift and as St. Germain says, “There is no BACK to go to”. We must keep moving forward. The Aquarian Age has been moving into place since the 1930's and it is almost completed with its process of birthing.

Most everyone on the planet has the idea that everyone else knows what is going on but them. Many have felt a deep and painful sense of separation that is becoming more and more obvious so that it can now be forgiven. This is one of the primary tools that EGO has used to keep our attention focused outwardly. You really did not get off on the wrong planet, but when the EGO takes over the Soul script it distorts the spiritual value and causes important points of growth to look like a curse. We have been told that anything and everything of value exists outside of us. Exposing this great lie of the illusion is a major part of the revelation. Every creation that is made comes from within self. The idea, image and passion to bring thought into manifestation exists within and flows outward. The MIND has developed ideas, over time, that everything is outside of us in the World and we must capture the evasive objects and energies that we desire and bring them to us. The belief, that only by hard work will we ever have what we want, has kept us imprisoned in the trap of never enough.

Mercury turns direct on August 7. Because of the retrograde, Mercury spends ten weeks in Leo this time, rather than the usual three or four. This provides extra time to come from the heart rather than the head and to respect and empower our intuition.

Pluto is showing us where the dead wood of our lives is obstructing our progress and Uranus is bringing the upheaval of old ways so that we are required to build on new ground and in new ways, starting within ourselves. As polarization becomes unity, competition becomes cooperation and the cast systems of society are forgiven for equality the Shift Happens.

The squares of Pluto and Uranus will continue over the next few years so that there is no doubt that the old ways are done. The schism that has been created over who is right or wrong has brought up fear that each side perceives as an evil that can destroy the world as we have known it. The Aquarian Age is about Love and in Love the concepts of right and wrong are revealed for the divisive energies that they are. Right and wrong are the foundations of separation, basis for a legal system that becomes more corrupt each day and gives the different opinions an area to tout their division.

We all have agreed to be here at this time, whether we accept that or not. You do not need to know exactly what is happening or why.

There is no map that tells us which way to go. All of the necessary factors for your own personal evolution lie within you. Go within and be amazed at the vast, beautiful world that is waiting for you there--in Love.

NEW MOON

Leo is the sign that calls us to connect with our heart. This New Moon makes an out of sign opposition to Neptune and Chiron in Pisces. St. Germain has laughingly said, that basically Einstein's theory of relativity is, "if you go far enough, fast enough you will hit the back of yourself". We have gone as far into separation as we can go and now we are returning Home. Home is inside of us, not on some planet in another galaxy.

We are called to redefine being. We have been taught to do and we have been taught all about ownership, but we have not been taught how to BE. This New Moon puts the focus on the center stage of our lives (inside us) and asks us to redefine or own personal role in that life. WHO ARE YOU? Not "who do they think you are" or even "who do you think you are"? The spiritual task of Leo is to live from your heart, from the heart/soul center. We are challenged to find our core, to connect with the Light of our being in that core. Leo, the Lion-hearted, is about the bravery that it takes to live the life of spirit, to be true to self and God and to be steadfast on the path of your own personal evolution. When you choose to make this journey there is no turning back, but what is waiting as you to decide, is beyond your wildest dreams. The world will challenge your dreams, your courage and your fortitude. If you look to others for approval you will never discover the wonder and glory of you. The game of separation has told us how to act, how to dress, who to be—now we must reveal the Divine Creative Masters that we are, in Love.

Both Pluto and Uranus are sesquiquadrte to this New Moon amping up the drive for change. Uranus tells us that it is time for a change. Pluto says, "You can run, but you can no longer hide." Life is knocking at the door. The sooner you respond the sooner you will discover what life is asking of you. We have two choices: change or be changed.

Venus makes a semi-square to the New Moon. The call of the cosmos is for women to step into their power and men to open their hearts. Venus squares Uranus and opposes Pluto making a dynamic T-square that highlights the requirement for transforming the patriarchal paradigm to one of equality and unity. Power is simply energy. How are you using it?

Mercury trines Uranus and quincunxes Pluto at the New Moon, calling for a change of mind as well as a change of heart.

On August 15 Mars cojoins Saturn and makes a sextile to the New Moon setting the mood for peaceful and practical assessment of how we respond to the relationships in our lives. What is required to bring them to a more fulfilling level?

Prepare for major breakthroughs and revelations over the next few weeks. St. Germain has said that May thru August will be some of the most challenging times the planet has known. Lazarus says that October will also be difficult. It is time to put as much of your attention as possible on the Light within, The Mighty "I AM" presence that has always been within us. Call on the Light to fill, transform, clear, up lift and realign us to the frequency of the Great Central Sun of our spirit. Calling the Light to cleanse, purify and awaken us to the very best that we are, is not just a pleasant thought, but an absolute necessity in these times of crisis on the planet. Call on the Masters to assist you in everything that you undertake and make sure that your motives are pure and directed in Love. Cruelty, dominance, judgment and separation under the guise of Love will be revealed quicker and quicker as we move toward the end of 2012. Add to the Love factor, rather than the pain factor to your life, now.

CRYSTAL CORNER

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

Energy Integration

Hello everyone! Here we are in the throes of a really hot summer and while I know the earth experiences cycles, I feel the earth changes are in full swing. How will you and I deal with the challenges coming our way? Will we allow overheated emotions, worry, conflict and stress to overwhelm us? What tools are available to assist us on our journey? Will we use those tools and take the time to heal within or will we simply go on as we always have? We truly have some choices to make in creating our world. The conflict we see out there is what is within all of us. Would you like it to be different? Create it so. I have explored many different healing modalities and they all have merit but it is the stones and crystals that most call to me. Choose one or many of the tools available and begin to heal yourself.

There are many stones available and each will aid you in different ways. As we are ready to allow, more and more stones are being 'discovered' and the older favorites are ascending in their energy.

One of the nicer 'stones' is Talc. This is a beautiful light aqua color and is soft and silky. As the powder would be silky and soothing to the physical form, the essence and energy of the stone itself would be soothing, smoothing, softening and cooling to overheated emotions, worry and conflict and so it would be an exceptionally good stone for those who have allowed themselves to slip into the deep stresses. It would work with mild mental disturbance. If the mind has gone too far, this is not powerful enough but the gentle soothing, nothing like a tranquilizer, simply stills and aligns so that there is a greater clarity and the heat of what the ego might bring is chilled out, so to speak.

Dealing with the higher energies is a challenge in itself. And yet, those crystals with high energy can help us to integrate that energy. Recently, I've become aware of a pearly white version of Scolecite. When we speak of the closing of the circle, the ego-ic mind sees the closing of a circle at which point you begin to go around and around in circles. Energetically in the higher frequencies, when you close the circle, it creates an activation for a spiral effect. This is almost like what graphite does for a lock, what talc does to smooth things but this is so much higher in frequency. It is as though this stone would help to ease the friction of moving very rapidly into a higher frequency. It is oil on the water, a peacemaker on every level.

Another of the stones that will help with the integration of the energies is Chrysocolla. It is earthy and yet it is a wonderful stone, as one would allow it, to assist in the integration of higher frequencies into the physical, emotional and mental realms. By its very nature, it's a healing stone and so it can, if allowed, assist in healing the need for war that comes so easily.

A favorite stone of mine is the Tempest Stone or Pietersite. To assist the earth and her people in healing, take a map and place this stone on the areas of conflict. This would assist greatly in peacemaking. For personal use, a small piece could be placed on each of the chakras all the time because it helps to bring a communication between those sources that do not communicate. If there are chakras that are shut down, withdrawn or do not act in accordance with the others, this will assist them to align, as the Bible says, "When the eye is single I see God". It also assists people who absolutely cannot conceive that anyone has anything, any thought, any concept that could possibly be as good as theirs. For those entities in political office that simply believe that their ideas are the only way things can be done, placing a piece of Tempest Stone on their picture would be very helpful. How's that for an aid in an election year???

Please feel free to contact me for more information or to purchase any of these amazing tools. You may also order online but not all of the stones are listed.

Enjoy your journey in Love, Light and Laughter.

TAROT TALK AND RUNIC KEYS

The Tarot card for August is Strength and surely we require more strength than ever before to be steady with ourselves in these times of "Divine Chaos". Strength represents self-dominion. Strength requires total living. No longer can we fool ourselves into believing that the 4% of our world (sight, hearing, taste, touch and smell) that we have called all is all. There is a vast Universe of potential that has been hidden by fear and pain. It is waiting for us as we assert the inner strength to claim it. Strength's number eleven symbolizes your own inner Magician, "The Magik Presence”. Your new found confidence and self-assured expression in the World, but not of it, allows you to use your Magikian’s abilities in the realms where the Magik is natural Law.

Dagaz, the Rune of Breakthrough helps us to penetrate the veil of illusion and bring about our most wonderful accomplishments. As Strength is the Master number eleven, Breakthrough is the Master Number twenty-two, the Master Builder. How are you building your world now?

Breakthrough is the final Rune in the cycle of Initiation. Dagaz marks a major shift in the process of self-change, a complete transformation in attitude—a 180 degree turn. It means that we can no longer live the ordinary life in the ordinary way.

Because the timing is right, the outcome is assured, but the mind always wants to know what is going to happen next and that cannot be known. We must rely on radical trust, even though the moment may call us to leap empty-handed into the void.

This Rune introduces a major period of achievement and prosperity. The darkness has been embraced by the Light and greater vistas are revealed. The caution is to remain in now, as we have been taught to live in the future which never comes. Now is where the good manifests for you. Be strong, be sure, be open to more and accept it now.

The evolution from dense physical matter to the Atomic Light Body is becoming more real all of the time. It cannot be obtained by work, doing, grasping, trying or domination over others to take their good away. The Atomic Light Body is the Divine garment, the Seamless Robe that Jesus spoke about. It is yours through the strength to let go of the illusions that have held you away from your Divine Inheritance. These are miraculous times as you live “In the World, but not of it”.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Beloved Masters, one of the most importance assets that the planet requires at this time is acceptance. ACCEPTANCE is not resignation, but the willingness to embrace, first of all, the totality of who you are, in every part. The game of separation has built a wall behind which everyone hides in the fear that they will not be accepted. The pain that the separation has created has caused us to step away from our creativity, our Mastery and our highest and best desires and intentions. The Love, which lives in each and every person, is unconditional. Acceptance brings you to that connection with Source that opens an unseen door into realms that exist right where you are. These realms, directed by the laws of Spirit, cannot be accessed by want or need. They hold a life that cannot be comprehended by a mind that is locked into its own beliefs in limitation. There in the very center of your most wonderful self is the Mighty “I AM” Presence, the White Fire of God, available to all who are willing to come in Love and Love alone. There was a time when all on this planet knew these realms as the natural and appropriate way of living. Separation has gradually caused the veil to descend and the limited world of sense orientation to be considered the reality.

The world is at war with everything that is considered unacceptable. Judgment is a painful, disease that erodes confidence, takes away the opening for good to flow in the life. It brings depression, disease and impoverishment. The EGO-ic mind becomes completely blank when confronted with any suggestion that change is possible. It begins to spew forth an assault of words to drive away any and all assistance that might be offered. The mind falls into confusion and there is a feeling that nothing that is being offered can be understood. There is suspicion and fear brought into place by the EGO just as tanks and ballistic missiles are brought up to the front lines in a war. “BUT is a word that always precedes a limiting statement.

The EGO is dead serious about preventing things from shifting into higher dimensions. You can see the EGO-ic forces in anyone who gets violent or militaristic about doing things differently. You can see EGO in the victim consciousness that has been so prevalent for so long on the planet. You can see EGO anywhere that the division from Love by hatred is obvious. Those who still want to control the affairs of the planet and of other people by fear, domination or doubt, by the withholding of money and/or the extremes of pricing that have become so prevalent in the market place are causing the downfall of the economy. The healing of the economy will not happen by raising prices higher and higher. The money does not come in a greater flow by taking advantage of one another. All of those concepts are a part of the old order that is passing and the ideas that have guided the money markets of the planet are becoming more antiquated by the moment. The Universal Commercial Code that has guided business on this ball since Biblical times is antiquated and is no longer a strong spiritual guide for good planetary interchange.

Tell someone who is holding on to the old ways that there is plenty of currency if the consciousness is raised to connect internally where the connection to all good exists and their eyes glaze over. They almost become zombies or they get angry, sarcastic or threatening. The idea that things could be done differently is intimidating to the establishment. They will recite the litany of lack that the EGO has taught for eons of time--change takes a long time, because people do not change easily. People have to adjust to new things. The acceleration of the Time/Space Continuum's collapse means nothing operates as it once did.

Beloved Masters, everything is changing and spirit did not ask those in control or positions of power by the old form if it is all right for these changes to be made. The changes have been set in motion for over a century now. I am not speaking about the conspiracy theories of the old order—I am speaking about the revelation and evolution that has been going on at the deepest levels of human kind—changes that will not allow anyone to “give up and turn back” again.

I will tell you a story—this is a true story about this planet and your previous lives here. Many thousands of years ago you lived lives of wonder and amazing richness. You had immaculate bodies and wealth was a natural part of life. The wealth was for the energy and beauty that it provided. The more beauty the greater the planet prospered. Disease was virtually unheard of and when someone did have a misalignment there were healers that would assist the individual to rebalance and get comfortable with the changes that inspired a shift that created a temporary imbalance. Life was vibrant and the energy of the air, water and environment fairly crackled with zest of living.

If I were to share a cup of water from those times, you would believe it to be some magic elixir that inspires an unreal experience. RIGHT NOW IN THIS MOMENT YOU ARE LIVING IN THAT ENERGY!!!! It is all around you. You cannot see or feel it because you ceased to believe it lifetimes ago. The EGO springs to the alert and says, “How do I get this?” “Where is this magical essence?” and all of the time the EGO is thinking about how to own this energy and what price to put upon it. The energy that I speak about belongs to each and every person on Earth. No one can give it or sell it or possess it in order to control the lives of other people. This essence belongs to the individual. “How do you get it?” ACCEPTANCE!!!

Accept that you deserve the very best of everything right now! It is nothing to think about. Acceptance does not occur intellectually. Acceptance is an aspect of the feeling nature that is connected to Source. That connection to Source is in the energetic field that lies in the auric essence all around the body, but the strongest portal between the Spirit and physical is the solar plexus. In this area there is a recognizable electric force that the mind can identify as physical even though it does not actually exist in the physical realms. The coded messages from Source can be defined and recognized as something that you can hear/feel and see/feel.

The thing that holds people back is the desire for proof. “Prove to me that this world actually did and still does exist and maybe I’ll accept it.” Show me where it is. Again the EGO is plotting and planning a takeover of this magic to be possessed for self and given to others for a price. This “commodity” is Love and it has no price. It is priceless and so are you.

Gold is the most refined metal of all. It is directly related to spiritual essence. In those times passed gold was placed in the earth for the support of the frequency of the Earth and it was everywhere. When the energy of the people began to turn to fear, limit and possession we sealed the gold away. As Ascended Masters we have access to all the wealth that the Universe has to offer, therefore the gold and precious substances of the Earth are not in our possession, but under our protection. When gold is in the Earth it provides a high frequency—beauty, a sense of harmony and Love unlimited. Like an orchid, when snipped from its roots, begins to lose its life force, when gold is removed from the earth in brutal ways it loses much of its power to uphold what it was placed here to do. Gold was not intended to be a monetary exchange or for adornment in a casual way. When large amounts of gold are in the earth the place feels sacred. Slowly, over time, the mind came to worship the gold rather than the spiritual essence that it holds. The energy of acceptance is golden and it belongs to you.

The story that I tell is a story that you are preparing to reclaim. It will be owned by each person in his or her time. No human can go ahead of you and prepare the way for your evolution. No one can decide if you have the right to that life. No religion or court or person of worldly power has the ability to give or take away this connection to spirit. It is as protected, in the deepest, most sacred places within you as the gold of the Earth is secured in our trust. You have the key to open that life for yourself. When you make the choice we will be allowed to assist you in going forward. The decision is made when you truly accept that you are worthy. There is an energetic encoding in your acceptance that activates your ascension. It cannot be forced and the Divine cannot be fooled by tricks of the mind.

There are in these times, many people who would have others believe that they either have ascended or that they alone are in the process of ascension. EVERYONE IS IN THE PROCESS. No one has an edge on ascension from a mental plan or devious attempt to gain “entry to Heaven”. It is up to you. Will you accept that you deserve to make the shift? We are waiting to help you just as soon as you are deeply convicted that you can and will make the shift. All of the games that the EGO has used to manipulate other EGOs are useless for spiritual evolution. Ego is an aspect that was created for the playing of a game that relied on the belief in separation from the Source of Love and goodness as its basis. The EGO is wily and cunning. The mental realms are inspired by the EGO. That is why there is so much power given to who is the smartest, the quickest, the most educated and the one with the most money. When Spirit leads the way everyone is equal in the knowledge and wisdom of Love. Divine, Beloved, creative Masters it is time to rise up within yourselves and own your divine inheritance. Your true worth and value are held within you in vaults of Light waiting for you to remember who you are so that you may access all that is yours. What awaits you in these sacred realms is beyond material things. You will have the remembrance of how to manifest out of Universal substance, anything that is required in the moment. Anything that you require or desire for the Highest good of All, is awaiting your command. Accept your Dominion (not dominance or control) over the energy of all creation. You will never be hungry, thirsty or go without shelter again. When you say, “I said that I accepted and nothing happened” it indicates that the EGO is still running the show. Ask and put no time limit on what you ask for. Just ask that what you desire will come to you NOW. NOW has no limit. NOW does not push things out into the future. NOW does not engage in worry. NOW is open and receptive in the moment. EGO-ic questions prevent immediate outcomes. Is your focus on joyful acceptance or on whether what you asked for will come to pass?

ACCEPTANCE means internalizing the Truth of all that you are. Forgive holding council with the EGO. “It’s too hard”, “I don’t know how”, “Everyone else knows but me” and all of the other limiting statements of separation, that, when repeated over and over make the veil thicker and the blindness more profound. These thoughts of separation must be released. The mind says, “How do I do that?”

Simple!!! If you have something in your hand and you want to let it go, open your hand. If you have something on your mind and you want to let it go, move your focus to what you desire—again and again and again—because you are worth the change. The EGO uses depression and fear to keep people from making the changes. ACCEPTANCE lifts you out of the “pits of Hell” and sets you on the mountain top so that you can see all of life from a new perspective. Trust is imperative. The life that you desire, from the deepest places of Soul, exists right where you are NOW.

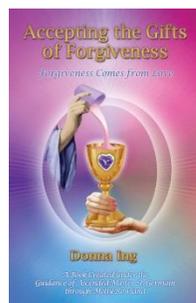

What you see going on around you is your own perspective of the World based on assumptions, lineage issues and all of the limits that you have come to believe in. ACCEPTANCE allows you to begin to recreate what is real, gently and powerfully, with help from the ALL-ness. The physical world is only 4% of who you are. The True you, the True world, the True self exist in the 96% that seems to be invisible because of resistance.

LOVE, TRUTH and ACCEPTANCE are keys to the evolution of your own life. How you view these aspects and what you choose to create are up to you. Fear creates a neutralizing energy in the world. It stops wherever good you might have called. When the focus is on lack and limit, the positive good that you seek sits in the ethers waiting (on hold) until you let it move to you through ACCEPTANCE.

Beloved Masters, time and space no longer exist as they once did. You have ALL THE TIME THERE ISN’T!!! We are longing to see each and every Soul on Earth come home to the holy place within. Our most cherished intensions are that all will hear the call from the Divine and answer by letting go of the illusion. In the greatest of Love we serve you. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
