

December Newsletter

Happy Holidays from Dorian and I. We are very excited and uplifted in this time. So many blessings are happening and things are really moving along.

We invite you to join us by phone or in person for our Solstice celebration on December 21st, at 2 p.m. at our home. St. Germain will talk about "The Second Half of the Rainbow Bridge". Call-ins or CDs/mp3s are $15.

Our New Year's event will begin on New Year's Eve at 8 p.m. with St. Germain perspectives on the New Year. 2015 is the Year of Clarity (New Vision) and St. Germain will discuss the vision and where he sees things moving in the New Year. Attending the group or call-ins are $25. CDs or mp3s of the event are $15 per set. The New Year's event includes the opening channeling, a potluck for mid-night and then the New Year's meditation.

The CDs of our Intensive "Change Your Perspective-Find Your Mastery" are available and would make great Christmas presents for those you know who are looking to discover the blending of physical and spiritual life for their ascension. There are nine CDs including two meditations which bring over nine hours of wonderful information to assist in the evolution of life on the planet now. The nine CDs are $100 ($10 for each CD and $10 for shipping and handling). A delightful way to say MERRY CHRISTMAS to those you love.

This is what our house looked like two days before Thanksgiving. We had been waiting for new vinyl for our washroom and kitchen floor for seven months. The company started the work on the Friday before Thanksgiving and finished on Tuesday before. We got our stove hooked back up late on Tuesday afternoon, just in time to cook the chicken for Thanksgiving. Much to be grateful for including peace and quiet in the house after five days of the carpet-layers radio playing LOUD music all of the time. We spent a lot of time in town. LOL

The refrigerator was in the dining room, Washer and dryer in the living room and stove in the den. Our pantry and a small fridge were in our bedroom.

Here is the new vinyl and the house put back in order. Yea!!

St. Germain will continue to offer the “Personal Growth” package in 2015. Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valueable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an up lifting experience.

Rainbow Center News

Don't forget that the CDs and mp3s of our intensive “Change Your Perspective to Find Your Mastery” are ready for Christmas presents. CDs are $100 for the set of nine plus $10 shipping. Mp3s are $90 for the set of nine.

Our group for December will be at 2 p.m. on December 21 at our home. The subject that St. Germain will address is “The Second Half of the Rainbow Bridge”.

For some time St. Germain has spoken about the Rainbow Bridge which is our crossing into higher dimensions. Now at the solstice as we move into the next year and higher frequencies he begins to reveal what we will find on the other side of the middle of the Rainbow Bridge. As New Humans we can live life in the joy and at-one-ment that we have dreamed of. It is right where we are, it is right at the tips of our fingers, it comes from the inside out.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2014groups.html

Our Teaching with the Master for December is: “Sexuality, Creativity and the Divine”. Sexuality is a major power issue on the planet. As the energy of the kundalini is raised for the root chakra to the crown the drive to procreate is translated into the pure creative essence of bringing beauty to life. Shifting the focus from the games of human sexuality to the recognition of true Love changes how we come to the process of sharing energy in the most intimate way possible. We are required to remember intimacy is a blending of who we are with another and it requires that we Love ourself so well that we forgive old judgments that have caused us to hide away from the most beautiful gift God has given us.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain has been offered in 2014 they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs or mp3s are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month if you only choose the call-ins. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON-December

Twelve times a year we come to a cross roads called Full Moon. Each time we make a choice to continue on the same path or change directions. This Full Moon in Gemini indicates a major redirection is coming as it occurs just days before another exact square between Uranus and Pluto (December 14 at 12 degrees 35 minutes Aries-Capricorn). This is the sixth of seven exact squares occurring between 2012-2015. Uranus represents individuality, innovation, rebellion and reform; Pluto represents our evolutionary process (the leading edge of our up spiral in consciousness) where we face our deepest, darkest fears, own our shadow self and ascend into a more unified level of awareness. Uranus and Pluto formed three exact conjunctions between October 1965 and June of 1966 and they were within 20 degrees of each other from 1960 to 1973, coinciding with the life altering movements of civil rights, feminism, counterculture and environmental changes. During these times we saw quantum leaps in technology and space exploration. The waxing aspects of these planets drew us to align with greater visions of equality, peace and collaboration seeded during the direct conjunctions.

Aspects of this Full Moon highlight the necessity for spiritual revolution—a dimensional shift in consciousness from duality to unity, from illusions of separation to the recognition of our inherent divinity and interdependence. Mercury, the Sun, Ceres and Venus are all in Sagittarius, the sign most connected with our quest for truth, our reason for being and understanding our role in the bigger picture that is now being revealed to us. Mercury is close to the Sun and even closer in square with Chiron in Pisces, emphasizing that we are required not only to change our mind, think more from a Soul-connected perspective. Until these changes are made we continue to cycle back into the same problems that we have created all along. The Soul understanding comes from a place of Love and helps us to make choices to advance from the addiction to competition to a desire for cooperation, from isolation to community spirit and a movement away from fear so that we can fully embrace Love.

On December 6 the Sun makes its annual conjunction with the Great Attractor, located at 14 degrees Sagittarius. Our solar system, together with the billions of stars in our Milky Way galaxy, is gravitating toward a huge mass in space called the Great Attractor. Last September, astronomers discovered that our galaxy is part of an even bigger stellar agglomeration, Laniakea—an immense supercluster composed of 100,000 other galaxies, all of which are being pulled toward the Great Attractor and radiating vast amounts of radio waves and other forms of electromagnetic energy. Gravity bends light, and light encodes information, so any cosmic body aligning with these super-powerful transmitting sources opens a worm-hole (a short-cut through time and space). Enabling us to grasp things ordinarily hidden or beyond our field of awareness. Jupiter, traditional ruler of Sagittarius, will trine the Sun at this Full Moon, as does Uranus in Aries. This brings us to an awareness of new possibilities and expanded perceptions of reality. On December 8, Jupiter stations to make its yearly retrograde at 23 degrees Leo. On April 8 it will turn direct at 13 degrees Leo. During this retrograde period Jupiter support us in letting go of limited beliefs and experiencing truth in a more profound way.

We are being brought to a point where we are required to recognize truth as a reality, releasing the way we have wanted truth to be. We cannot accept the truth until we are ready to allow that the Illusions that we have been told were true for so long are breaking apart right before our eyes. Each Moon phase brings us higher, brighter, clearer vision of how things really are and it is wonderful.

NEW MOON-December

The New Moon always marks a time of planting new seeds, new ideas are waiting to be nurtured and new projects can be started, at least on paper or in the planning stages. This Capricorn New Moon falls just after the winter solstice. The word “solstice” derives from the Latin words for “sun” and “stand still”, as the sun appears to rise and set in the same place on the horizon for three days. During this time, due to shifts in the Earth’s electromagnetic field, we are receiving an increase of cosmic energy. These subtle but powerful downloads are changing us at the cellular level, offering new templates and making changes in our DNA that are making us more adaptable to the major shifts that are occurring on all levels of existence.

This New Moon is joined by the Sun, Mercury, Vesta, Pluto and Venus in Capricorn. Capricorn calls us to set realistic goals in this fertile energy of growth. We must define our boundaries, live in integrity and be response-able of our choices. We are seeing the shadow side of Capricorn revealed by Pluto’s ongoing transit. Capricorn’s shadow side brings the tyrant-victim polarity to light, which seeks to dominate at all costs or gives away power and authority to others. Where do you still look outside of yourself for approval or permission? Find your own boundaries and honor your own goals rather than depending on others to make your life work for you. When Pluto conjuncts Venus on December 20 and Mercury on December 24, you may see some important perspectives on these points.

Uranus turns direct just minutes before the solstice and you may find that sitting still becomes difficult. The urge to get going on projects, relationships or any important aspect of your life feels like it cannot wait. As planets turn direct it is like a cosmic “green light”, a signal to accelerate your momentum. Since Uranus just made its sixth exact conjunction to Pluto its nonconformist, spontaneous, high-voltage energy is especially catalytic at this New Moon. Capricorn can help us to stay grounded in this free flying energy. We can expect breakthroughs and/or breakdowns in this powerful flow of new beginnings. Change inevitable, but in order to grow we must be willing to live differently. Response to the challenge requires attention to where we truly desire to go. Reaction simply reveals the chaotic side of Uranus.

Saturn, the traditional ruler of Capricorn, enters Sagittarius on December 23, where it will remain until December 19, 2017. There will be a brief retrograde back into Scorpio from June 14 to September 17, 2015. Saturn represents the boundaries of time and space, as well as the development of personal discipline and mastery. Saturn always calls us to strive for the spiritual wisdom of each sign it transits. Saturn in Scorpio has forced us to face our fears and unconscious patterns, healing old wounds, and letting go of whatever disempowers us. Saturn in Sagittarius directs us to cultivate our faith and understanding of something greater than ourselves, and to live in accordance with our truth. Saturn compels us to clarify and redefine our ethics, beliefs and hopes, both individually and collectively.

Many cultures have commemorated the return of the Sun at the winter solstice as the rebirth of Spirit in humankind. This is the time when we go into our inner spaces to celebrate the quietness of self and rest to gather self together. This can be a time of enlightenment in every aspect of our life. It is better to light a small candle in the darkness rather than to stumble in the dark.

EVERYONE IS A CHANNEL

As we are moving into greater awareness of the process of evolution we are required to become progressively more in tune with how we are using our energy. For a long time we have simply reacted to the situations of our lives—we have felt that we were victims, in control, but not in charge of our lives. When we have taken control it was another reaction to a reaction.

Channeled information comes to us primarily for our own understanding, to lead us into the paths of clarity and wisdom. Channeled information, in its highest form, can lift us out of our ruts, bring us wonderful new perspectives about where our lives are going and change how we feel about ourselves from the inner most places. It is always to remember that when we get messages they are first and foremost for us and then for others. Honesty with self is not based on critical judgment, but on a willingness to redefine ourselves by new standards of integrity and reverence. “Worry is the highest form of negative creation” so when we devote our energy to worry we are calling things into our lives that, more than likely, we would not wish to live. Be very clear about your affirmative statements. When you affirm “I don’t want” or “I don’t like” you are still affirming and quite often the emotions behind negative affirmations are very powerful.

Pay very close attention to the emotions of fear, doubt, giving up, loneliness, neediness and all the other negative signals that the EGO can send. We are required to stand strong with ourselves and to keep moving through the “Dark Wood” of old limiting thoughts. “The Night Journey” into self is a spiritual initiation and takes you into the deepest, darkest places where things that you have feared are revealed to you. Often when you must confront the fear you find that what you feared was also something that you longed to have, to achieve or to conquer.

The channel is your direct line to Spiritual advice and assistance. Learning to trust it is imperative. Being discerning is also very important. One of the points that EGO counts on and uses is that in reaction there is little or no discernment. Reactive, explosive, volatile responses can close the path to clear channel and allow the EGO to pretend to be spirit. Rebellion against “being told what to do” is another way that EGO uses to close communication with spirit. Spirit does not order us around, but if we are listening through the filters of EGO we can become reactive to “buzz words” or a tone of voice that can trigger us to turn away from good direction. Remember that Spirit has our best interest. We can hear what anyone has to say and we are not required to follow their instruction or do what they say. In the final end we must make our own decisions. We are the Master in our own life.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, we are now preparing to enter the next year of advancement and elevation into higher realms. The keyword is Relaxation. You cannot see clearly when you are tense. You do not hear what is said, but what you “thought you heard”. Your body gets tired much more quickly in the new frequencies when you are fighting to hold on to how you have known things to be. Wanting to ascend and struggling to find out how to do it keeps turning your focus to the old ways of “doing”. We suggest that you sit with the word doing and allow yourself to feel the way its energy effects your body, mind and emotions. It feels like slogging through deep mud. You have to push, exert more effort than you may believe that you have and then the outcome may be disappointing because in the physical/ mental struggle you miss important details that spirit would show you if you could just allow the process.

As you are becoming a New Human—Oh, yes! You are becoming new right now—it feels different, perhaps strange and yet it can be ever so comforting if you can Relax into it. We have called 2015 the Year of Clarity—New Vision (seeing with new eyes) and it can bring a new vision that you may have felt just at the edge of your sight, your mind, your beingness.

As a New Human much of what you have been looking for “out there” is emerging from the depths of your being where it has been waiting during the time of Illusions. What you see, hear, taste, touch and smell are real enough, but much of what you have defined as real because you could control it will begin to change as spirit embraces all that you are into the Reality of higher consciousness. Rather than just wearing perfume in order to smell pleasant you will begin to notice that you emit a sweet fragrance that seems to come from your totality. As you stop fighting to get what you want, to stay alive, to control others, the smell of fear disappears and your true fragrance rises up. As you forgive looking for flaws you begin to see with a new clarity and everything begins to reveal itself as breath-takingly beautiful. When you are not straining to hear what might be gossip or bad news and you look to hear sweet sounds and pleasant conversation your inner ear adjusts to new frequencies of sound that are amazingly soothing. As anger and fear diminish your touch is softer and gentleness is the measure of how you approach others as well as yourself. You discover that your tastes are changing so that foods that have attracted you in the past may simply no longer be enticing. Rich, heavy foods begin to feel cumbersome in your body and limiting to your mental and emotional bodies. Spirit is making changes—not against your free will, but because you are on the planet and therefore have agreed at a Soul level to accept these changes as part of your evolution and ascension. The changes are being made and how you choose to embrace them is entirely up to you. The changes are happening and you can allow yourself to move with them or continue to fight, but the changes are altering the total frequency of the earth and everyone is being shifted as they are willing—some less, some more. Everyone is in the process of becoming a New Human. Individuality creates the way that those changes look for each and every person. Some have a knowing within that they are being changed and they take it in and begin to live it. Some feel the differences and worry that some evil is creeping in to possess them. Between the extremes there are many variations. Each human designs their own up spiral and ascension.

NONE OF THESE CHANGES ARE INSPIRED BY THE MENTAL REALMS!! There are no “how to’s” in ascension. The changes are happening, but they cannot be controlled, nor can your evolution be stolen from you by someone who does not want to make the effort for themselves. You can be given a whole set of rules and steps to achieve ascension, however if you cannot feel the essence of what each step is offering “just knowing” can feel limiting, questionable. Understanding is something that reaches deep inside of you to connect you with the remembering of the Hu-man that you were in the beginning. That is now being translated into the new encoding that is downloading from the galaxy. All of you had a part in the creation of the codes that you are receiving. Because you are multidimensional beings, even though you have not been consciously aware, you have been setting up wonderful possibilities for yourself as the current changes are happening. These changes are not based on the beliefs of limitation that religion, politics, or individual opinions on life in general from the Illusion have indicated, but on the awakening and expansion that are happening right now within you.

When we speak of religion or politics as limiting it is not a criticism, but a commentary on how the mental realms have functioned in limitation during the Game of Illusions. Religion has been a guideline to hold humanity as close to the divine as the Illusion would allow. Now you can feel into your own Sacred Space within and make the total connection with God, Higher Consciousness, whatever name you would give that is a recognition of complete At-One-ment. You never lost that unity with All That Is, you just closed the door to your inner self. Now you have help from all of the Masters who have gone before you to help prepare the way in these times. We are very clear that your free will is a divine gift and how you choose to “return to yourself” is your choice. We are not here to hurry you along. We are here to support you in your Ascension.

The changes that are required to be made are not mental decisions because your finite mind does not have the scope of wisdom to make those choices without the inspiration and clarity of the Soul. Ascension requires your total commitment to bringing all that you are home to Oneness. That is called Surrender. Remember that you are giving up nothing nor are you losing anything because God gave you everything to begin with. You are in fact reclaiming parts and pieces of your totality that you have hidden from yourself for so long that you forgot that they exist. That is the ultimate revelation and allows you to live as a New Human.

As your Ascension is accelerating it feels as though things are slowing down, nothing is moving as fast as you would like, you tend to get “down on yourself” for not making more progress. By what measure would you access your progress when it is movement into unknown realms? As you move into the higher frequencies things will begin to seem familiar, but at first everything may seem like a dream. You may feel yourself shifting back and forth between dimensions and it can be disconcerting until you adjust. 2015 will bring greater clarity and understanding to the whole process of dimensional shift and the recognition of being well in the changes. It isn't scary unless you want it to be. Another change into higher consciousness is forgiving the addiction to being scared all of the time. The addiction to adrenaline rush and the misalignment of the “fight or flight” syndrome are some of the last vestiges of the Old Order. Adjusting to living in the love of beauty and quiet places rather than constant chaos are some of the next steps to becoming the Masters that you are. Quietness is the opening to your inner self. Many people are still using noise and conflict as defenses against the alignment of Oneness. Creating distraction is a way to avoid what many swear they are seeking—Spiritual Growth.

Again I say that there are no “steps” to Ascension in the old ways of mental process. The more that you connect to your Sacred Space within the more spirit leads you in a timely way to make the next movement in your process of Spiritual Growth. You are led by feeling and the map of your progress is felt more than seen in some physical sense. You receive instruction in gentle, loving ways that can and will lift you. However, the EGO is not willing to give up easily and it keeps throwing the same old questions of doubt before you to distract you from the amazing progress that you are making. You are evolving even if it feels uncomfortable or at times painful. The pain is simply an indicator of your resistance to change. It does not imply that you are doing something wrong, but that you are persevering in your journey of expansion and evolvment.

We, the Masters, are your team, your cheering section in the movement away from the old, tired games of Separation. We are delighted to see how you are gaining strength and wisdom as you reconnect with your own personal Mastery. You are loved, unique and vastly important to the progress of the whole. In the greatest of Love we are with you. I bid you Adieu! I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
