

December Newsletter

Merry Christmas!! May this holiday time be a blessing to all. Love, Molly

St. Germain has named 2017 “The Year of Gathering”. Join us by phone or in person for our New Year’s Eve celebration. It begins at 8 pm on December 31 and finishes around 2 pm on New Year’s morning. All are welcome.

Here is the altar set up for our Super Moon ritual.

The CDs of the November Intensive “Embracing the Magik and Love of the New Earth”, bring interesting, uplifting and optimistic information for all. The set is $100 plus $10.00 S&H for CDs and $100 for mp3s.

St. Germain speaks of the changes that are happening now and how important they are to the future of the planet and her people. St. Germain compared the shock value of Donald Trump becoming president to the dropping of an atomic bomb, but he says that people have become complacent and it is necessary for everyone to pay attention in the moment to what they are thinking and feeling and forgive fighting about outcomes. St. Germain comments that the good news is that if Donald Trump can become president any one on the planet can fulfill their positive intentions and bring their dreams to fruition.

The November Teaching “The Words You Speak Carry Great Power” also contains comments and information about the election and where things will go next.

Beginning in January 2017 St. Germain will be will bring a new level of understanding in the theme for the year “Practical Magik 101”. Each Teaching will move us into a deeper recognition of who we truly are and how to apply spiritual values to our “every day” lives. LIVE THE MAGIK!!

St. Germain is continuing the “Personal Growth” package in 2017. This has proven to be one of the most popular offerings that St. Germain has given. People are excited about the changes in their lives and express joyful anticipation for the future. Changes on all levels are bringing a whole new lease on life as we evolve into New Humans. I am excited for all who are taking part or will become involved with our Personal Growth series. The feedback that I get, almost everyday from people who are discovering who they really are and feeling the connection to their own inner self is exciting for me and fulfilling for them.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our December group is "Your Emotions and How They Create". The planet is in turmoil over all of the changes that are happening. These changes must, of necessity, come as quickly as they can so that the EGO doesn't have the recovery time to start the logical, practical mind thinking too much. The emotions have an awesome effect on the weather patterns and global chaos, consequently the unchecked emotional outpouring of humanity has an ongoing effect on everything and everyone on the ball. The group will be on December 18, at 2 PM at our home.

CD's can be purchased on the website at

Our Teaching with the Master for December is "Sacred Alchemy: "Drawing Faith from Within". The world tends to look outside of self for everything including conformation of well-being. When you begin to trust your own inner knowing to show you the internal support, that nothing outside can replace, you find a strength that has been waiting to be acknowledged for life times—the deep Faith of the Ancients has always been with you and within you.

The Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT. You may call-in if you wish.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A.

It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON in Gemini-December 13

Saturn continues its square to Neptune, though it is well past its most active phase. However, as Neptune moves into the wings, Chiron is waiting to step into center stage and make the first of three squares to Saturn on December 28. With another square between Saturn in Sagittarius and a planet in Pisces we could have a feeling of déjà vu, as we move into 2017. We will be faced with the same potential dualities that we worked with throughout 2016. Us vs. them, separation vs. unity, judgment vs. acceptance, fear vs. hope, dominance vs. submission and control vs. surrender. Perhaps under the guidance of the wounded Healer, Chiron, we can mend the rifts by focusing less on our differences and more on the common goals for our future. It is certainly time for the world to take the path of Buddha, "the middle way"—and rise above the perception of duality. This shift in awareness can be the key to transcending physical limitations and reaching into higher consciousness which will give new vision to where we are going.

Slowly and with great finesse and sometimes not so subtle measures, Neptune and Chiron in Pisces have been washing away attitudes that do not comply with higher spiritual law. Neptune and Chiron are dedicated to instilling within us a sense of a transcendent reality and a trust in the larger plan that is beyond our conscious control. We are learning to let go of our limited perception of what is ideal and allow the universe to create an even greater and more beautiful potential than we have dared to entertain in the Illusion.

Thankfully, as Saturn makes a trine to Uranus on December 24, some of the harshness that Saturn can bring may melt into the softening elements of Uranus chaos and 2016 can end in a gentler way than it came in. Uranus brings out a higher aspect of Saturn and a quality of understanding that has been overlooked in the upheaval of the past year or so. The blending of these two energies can give us a truer sense of stability as we are required to follow an extremely winding path to stay on course.

Donald Trump was born on June 14, 1946 in Jamaica, Queens, N.Y.

This Full Moon in Gemini this month falls exactly on Donald Trump's Sun in Gemini which puts the Sun in Sagittarius conjoining Saturn exactly on his natal Moon. This aspect can see the president elect backing even further away from many of his campaign promises and being called walk a much tighter line on what he claims he will do when he gets into office. He will be experiencing quite a few interesting opportunities in his affairs when it comes to money as Jupiter is making a return in his second house of personal worth and value. Approximately every twelve years, Jupiter returns to the place where it was in the natal chart. This Full Moon marks an exact return in Mr. Trump's chart. Since Saturn is square Jupiter in Mr. Trump's natal chart there is always the feeling that no matter how much he makes, accomplishes or wins, it is never enough. Since transiting Saturn falls close to the Sun in Sagittarius which cojoins Mr. Trump's natal Moon there can be a dampening of emotional enthusiasm at this time. The Pluto-Capricorn/Uranus-Aries that has been effect since 2012 opened to a two degree orb. This aspect has been moving in over the last two years so that Uranus opposes Jupiter and squares Saturn, while Pluto opposes Saturn and Squares Jupiter in Mr. Trump's chart. Now it sits in a separating aspect that will be in effect throughout Mr. Trump's full term in office. The changes that can and will occur for the president elect, as well as the effect that this time in office will have on the whole world will definitely fulfill the desire for change that many people have called for, but may not have the desired outcome that they may have expected.

(As we are writing this column, the potential of a shift of power that could potentially put, Hilary Clinton in office instead of Mr. Trump is becoming more possible. Revelation is shining its light into every corner and driving the shadows of old, outmoded politics into the open.

I have a number of clients from all over the world and what I am hearing is a consistent expression of great concern about a dictatorship arising from a political scene where there is entirely too much power in the hands of one party.

What are the people of earth required to look at within ourselves in the midst of all of these changes?)

NEW MOON-December 29

The New Moon is a time of internal contemplation and setting goals for the next cycle of growth and development in our lives. Mercury, the Moon, the Sun and Pluto are conjoined in Capricorn which can bring a necessity to enter into clear, concise and serious conversations over the next four weeks. Mars, moving through compassionate Pisces, sextiles Mercury and tends to soften what could become militant discussions. The South Node, Mars and Neptune conjunct in Pisces turn the mind to blending with the intuition and opening doors to communication that is much more in tune with what is necessary in these changing times. This puts a finger on the pulse of the planet and brings attention deeper considerations than what is showing on the surface at this time. As Neptune moves into the wings, Chiron is waiting to step into center stage and make the first of three squares to Saturn on December 28.

Uranus, the Awakener, stations direct on December 29 at 1:28 am PT (20 degrees 33 minutes Aries). Since July 29, when Uranus went retrograde, our personal directive has been to keep an open mind and be aware of new insights that come our way to potentially revolutionize our lives. If we have cooperated with this assignment, we will have gained an enhanced self-awareness within ourselves that can bring illumination to show what our next steps can be. Uranus will begin to gather speed as it moves forward in the weeks to come and we can spot the place where we require to make changes that will keep us on our own personal path to enlightenment. This New Moon in Capricorn is conjunct Pluto and square Uranus and brings a time of transformation and redefinition as we move into the New Year. The Moon is void of course in Capricorn most of the day on December 30 which is wonderful for more spiritual and intuitive affairs. When a planet is void of course it is, in a way, disconnected from involvement in mundane activities. Other planets remain very interactive in the flow of daily events. Just past midday retrograde Mercury trines the North Node (4 degrees 38 minutes Capricorn-Virgo), prompting consideration of what practical direction we might take as 2017 rolls in. A Sun-Neptune sextile at 3:24 pm. (9 degrees 42 minutes Capricorn-Pisces) opens the way to receive guidance from higher realms. As the Moon enters Aquarius at 5:29 p.m., we may feel a shift occur that will take our thoughts and ideas along more innovative and unique paths as we look at New Year's resolutions.

The last day of 2016 brings a feeling of restlessness. During the night the dwarf star Ceres, bringer of protection aligned with the warrior star Eris in Aries. The union of these heroine archetypes stirs the romantic side of our nature to new heights, as the divine feminine infuses us with new power to rise above the issues of oppression and domination that are ravaging the planet now.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

Problems and liabilities can become opportunities and assets. Such is the nature, such is the grace, of magic. --Lazaris

As you seek to find the soul center within you, remember that the center of your world lies between the heart chakra and the splenic chakra. It is connected in Love to the whole of the Universe. Nothing that you are is less than that wholeness that exists within you. –St. Germain

As you consider the birth of the Christ child, the births of all great beings that has occurred on this planet, consider that you also were born here. There is none that is less, only those who have chosen to disbelieve that they could not possibly be a Master. It is time to feel deep within yourself and not only believe, but remember. –St. Germain

The year of 2017 is the Year of Gathering. It is the first year of a new cycle of nine. Gather your power, strength, integrity, your Love and your great intentions and prepare for something really new. –St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, considering the events of the past few weeks, actually of the past year or so the world is almost as exhausted emotionally as the candidates for the election. Many people are running on adrenalin and haven't given themselves the time and quiet space to take stock of what is going on within themselves. The intense outer focus mixed with anger and fear creates a continuance of "mob mind" mentality.

Are you allowing your negative imagination to run away with fears, doubts and dreads for the unformed future? Do you realize that that is how the future is designed? Are you imaging for a positive outcome or just giving your power away to a belief in helplessness? Every time you make a choice to fight you increase the energy of separation when the old ways are passing if you will just let them go. There will be positive and negative outcomes in the new administration, just as there have been with each and every president before. No matter who was elected there would have been conflict. It is time for each and every person ON EARTH to change their focus from conflict to community, from fear of what might be to the clarity to create a new earth. Forgive putting everything outside of you as though you have no part in the creation and get clear about the kind of a future you desire rather than what someone else is going to DO FOR YOU OR TO YOU. The challenge of the past has been the expectation that the leaders of the country are responsible for making things work for everyone. NOTHING WORKS IN YOUR LIFE UNLESS YOU TAKE PART IN IT. That does not mean riot and destroy the property of other citizens just to prove you are angry. People will, perhaps read this or hear the words that I say and think, “Wow, I know a lot of people who need to hear or read these words”. Stop! Did you really hear or read these words and take them into your heart and soul and apply them in your life or did you simply think about how other people need to be told what they are doing wrong so that they can change? First Physician heal the wounds of life times within you and you will find a whole new perspective of creation that abides in the soul center in you. As the filters of old ideas break down and pass away you begin to see/feel differently and that allows you to recognize the good in others that has been latent because they did not believe in themselves any more than you have believed in you or them.

Other people won't make you better unless you are willing to accept that you can be better, that your life can be better, that your health, wealth and happiness are designed and manifested in your own space. They don't make you who you are! Your own personal perspective of you makes the standard that you live by.

So many people who voted for the Master Trump said that they wanted change. When you think of change do you have something specific in mind that you want changed, but nothing else or is the concept of change some vague, nebulous “it's got to get better” idea with no particular form? Either way is limited and either way can bring an outcome that is not what was expected. “I want a better job, more money”. Are you willing to have the courage to be more than you have been? Are you willing to get the education, take the time to learn a new way of living and/or being in your life? Or do you just want the positive outcome with no effort on your part? Could you live up to the life that you desire or is it just easier to make others at fault in the idea that you have no part in what happens in your own life? Dearly Beloved Masters, this isn't being harsh. These are questions that a Master gets to ask themselves on a daily, sometimes hourly basis as life is changing rapidly on the earth at this time. Are you willing to discover that when you change the focus from “How do I make them change?” to “What is my requirement for a whole, amazing, successful life?” you begin to take charge of your own life and affairs and everything begins to change. Sometimes when you ask for change the first thing that happens appears to be that your life is falling apart. This is when the EGO steps in and tells you that you have failed, made a serious mistake or just plain are not worthy of having a better life. NOW consider! If you want a bigger space, you must make room or find a place that allows you more room. This time the space is inside of you and you must make adjustments in order to live a larger life. However, the changes that you asked for begin to happen and it is up to you to keep your balance in the midst of the changes. It is up to you to stay with yourself, energetically, and be available to make decisions moment by moment to adapt to the constant shifts in mood, thought and even recognition of yourself as different than you were before. Understand clearly that change does not happen outside of you first. You are the Master Magician that designs your life and your future. Like an artist, you change the colors, the tone, the lighting and the amount of beauty that you will allow into your current life and daily affairs. How you respond to them is up to you. You are not a puppet nor a victim to your own moods. They don't make you mad. You may already be mad and they push you, but your reaction to life is your own choice every single time, no matter what.

Donald Trump can be a test or a discipline. He can help or harm, but do be aware YOU HAD A LIFE BEFORE HE WAS ELECTED AND YOU WILL HAVE A LIFE WHEN HE IS GONE. The life that you live will be up to you. Five years from now you will be looking at new challenges and/or opportunities and it will still be your choice how you define the life that you are living. Above all things, forgive giving your precious power to Donald Trump!!! I WILL SAY AGAIN, NO ONE MAN OR GROUP OF MEN CAN CONTROL THE WORLD. Many have believed that they could and the world has gone on turning. The Master Book speaks, “What does a man gain, if he has the whole world but has not love? His voice becomes a sounding brass and a tinkling symbol”. It is up to each one of you, in these times to find the Love within you for you—feel it, feel it, FEEL IT!!! When you truly remember how it is to Love yourself the understanding and compassion for Loving others comes as naturally as your breath.

Donald Trump sees himself as a star, a “reality star”, but that isn't real. Do not allow the brilliance of his own opinions blind you to the amazing shine of your own light. You, each one of you, is a God given gift to the world. It isn't nearly so much what you do out there in the world as the life, often quiet and simple, that you live in faith, trust and caring that changes the world forever. Make sure that you own the life you live as worthy, because that allows you to feel how important you are. People have been taught not to praise others because of the fear that if there is that kind of support others will "get a big head". Therefore, the art of self-awareness and personal value has been buried in the mythology of time. Because of admonition of the churches parents have attempted to teach their children, not to expect praise or compliments and if the compliments come to express false humility and turn the approval aside. The human heart and mind desire to be found worthy, beautiful and fulfilled. It takes great courage, in these times, to reach into your own depths and discover the gifts that God gave you when you were created, that have been dismissed with a wave of the hand as unimportant. It is up to you, Dear Magikians, to find your own magik and live it in your daily life and affairs. To be "In the world, but not of it" is to live beyond the din of the EGO driven mind. The deeper you connect to your Soul Self the more of the treasure of you own Divine Inheritance you discover within. The mind says "But you cannot spend it". As you remember who you are, really, the dawning of what you are capable of creating can be astounding. The more the focus of your life is the healing of old wounds and going forward into greater accomplishment the more Love, well-being and abundance you will be able to see.

We the Masters are asking that all of you take the gracious advice of the Master Michelle Obama, "When others take the low road, you take the high road". That will give you a vision and perspective that, perhaps, you have not had before. We cannot step in and force humanity to make positive changes, but we can and do hold the intensions that each and every one of you will make the personal effort to see your life filled with new beauty, hope and joy no matter where you find yourself at this moment. You are surrounded and indwelled with the greatest of Love. Until we meet again, in that Love, I bid you Adieu!
