HAPPY NEW YEAR—THE YEAR OF PERSPECTIVE

Our first picture came from Waimea Canyon (the Grand Canyon of Hawaii. Dorian and our friends Donna and Eddie Ing walked up to the canyon and across the canyon on the other side mist began to move in. The Sun was setting behind them and it made a round rainbow on the mist. Each person along the canyon rim could see their own reflected shadow in the rainbow.

We had a wonderful time in Hawaii. Our flight from Portland landed 45 min. early in Kauai. The Grand Hyatt is a five star hotel, something that Dorian and I had never experienced before. We had three days before the Lazaris event to get settled and three days after to explore. On Sunday we went up to Princeville and I did a radio show with Taj Jure.

We returned to Poi Pu to the hotel and enjoyed the banquet that was offered by Concept Synergy for the group as an intro to the event that started the next day. The event was a gathering of Sirian engineers and Lemuria sages and dreamers to become new beings. (St. Germain calls it plugging the Ancient energy of Lemuria into our present Now to activate the Quantum jump into greater revelation and higher frequency.) Each day had meditations for our new experiences connected to the Lemurian lifetimes. Then there would be a Magic Time where people could possibly get the microphone and have a one on one with Lazaris. The very first Magic Time Dorian went down and sat in the front and after over thirty years of attending Lazaris events she finally got the mike. She said it was like no one else was in the room, but her and Lazaris.

I was impressed by a crystal and for the first time I bought one of the amazing crystals that Concept Synergy sells. The story of the crystal is touching and beautiful and I felt that I had been one of the keepers of the crystal. This is an Atlantean crystal, a Grandfather: Keeper of the Mysteries, Reservoir of Enchantment and Weaver of Dreams. It is for working Magik in service, remembering/reuniting, gifts of worldly success, power and empowered destiny. It is small and easy to work with and I look forward to receiving it.

On Saturday after the event we went back up to Princeville and I did a group channeling at Taj and Mark's home.

Our Personal Growth package has been a great success. There are still a few places in the second half of each month to get your own personal hour with St. Germain each month.

St. Germain is offering a "Personal Growth" package. Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valuable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an up lifting experience.

Rainbow Center News

Our group for January is "What is your Perspective of Life?" We have entered into the Year of Perspective and it is time to consider what we believe life is about from a conscious, logical point of view in order to discover what isn't working and what no longer serves us. Truth is not an opinion, but a clear connection to the Soul's understanding of who we really are, within. We have lived many lives in the Illusion and now we are being moved to change how we come to life without the influence of that Illusion. The group will be January 19, 2 p.m., at the Rainbow Center for the Humanities, 177 N. 4th in Lander.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2013groups.html

Our January Teaching with the Master is "Karma". Karma is the Divine Law of balance. It is not about punishment or retribution, but the maintenance of harmony in the universe. As long as we have life in physical form there will be Karma in those lives. Karma is the unconditional Law of Kindness and Truth in Justice. It is not designed by the logical mind but was set in motion before we were created so that the universe would continue to function by Divine design. Join us on our conference call on January 8 at 7 p.m. MST.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON-JANUARY 1, 2014

A New Moon on the first day of the New Year magnifies the potency of our intentions for 2014. Capricorn focuses our attention on our maturity and our ability to stay with ourselves to obtain what we desire. It is time to fulfill our destiny. St. Germain has called this the Year of Perspective. It is time to examine what we believe, how we perceive our lives on a daily basis and how we can shift our perspectives to gain new vision, rather than simply holding on to things that no longer serves us. We create by every thought, word and deed that we bring forth. Our lives are totally the result of our choices. It is time for us to evolve, from children of God to embrace the fact that we are Masters having this experience. It is for us to forgive the judgments that we are victims or villains and accept that we are co-creators of our on-going.

This new Moon is a complex alignment of five oppositions and ten squares, which intensifies the grand cross that is already in place between Mars in Libra, Jupiter in Cancer, Uranus in Aries and Pluto in Capricorn. Capricorn is concerned with physical matter. All matter is shaped by geometric patterns and mathematical constants that appear across infinite levels of creation, from the microscopic helix of DNA to the vast spirals of galaxies. We see these patterns in the Golden Mean, the Platonic solids and fractal geometry. This kind of harmonic order occurs in astrology as well. Aspects, the angular relationships between planets, generate subtle structures that encode ever-changing energy templates and pathways. Complex aspect configurations like the ongoing grand cross exponentially increase quantum leaps for radical change.

As we let go of what no longer serves us we create space of the new to move into place in our lives. Pluto tightly cojoins the Sun and Moon, impelling us to eliminate or transform any outgrown structures in our lives. These could take the form of unsatisfying jobs, limiting relationships, poor health or inaccurate perspectives of ourselves. Pluto symbolizes the edge of change where we must face our fears and own our shadow in order to come to the next step of our evolution. We are being brought face to face with our divine mission (This is what I came for!) Pluto symbolizes the desires of our higher self, which often differ dramatically from those of our EGO. One way to tell the difference is that EGO always feels like we are standing on a trapdoor in our solar plexus, about to fall into a pit, while higher self gives us a solid place to stand with ourselves in the center of our being. The higher self NEVER coerces us with guilt, shame or blame.

Capricorn is the third earth sign and as such, represents the collective level of the physical plane. Here we get to evaluate our own stewardship of the planet and how we can develop it for the greatest good for all, rather just a few or strictly for personal gain. Pluto has been in Capricorn since 2008, coincidental with worldwide financial, social and governmental crises. During Chiron's passage through Capricorn (2001-05), major corporate fraud began to surface as Enron and other cooperate conglomerates began to fall. Neptune's passage through Capricorn (1984-98) coincident with increasing corporate mergers and exorbitant salaries for CEO's (rising from 24 to 383 times more than the average worker from 1965 to 2000). As Pluto transits Capricorn through 2024 the misuse of power by individuals and institutions becomes more transparent and less tolerable. Our life and our world change for the better when we make those changes through Love rather than fear.

Pluto closely joins Mercury supporting life-changing disclosures and revelations. Mercury urges us to communicate and connect the dots. Pluto requires that we get to the bottom of things and deal with the real issues. This dynamic duo exacerbates the consequences of deceiving ourselves and others. Lies create shadows and separation, which fool the mind but not the soul.

There is a saying, “The Truth hurts” but in actuality it is the lack of Truth that brings the pain.

This extra potent New Moon at the beginning of this New Year cautions us to make wise choices and allow them to be a standard for the year. Things only change when we do. NOTHING EVER CHANGES FROM THE OUTSIDE FIRST.

FULL MOON-JANUARY 15-16

Whenever the Cancer-Capricorn axis comes into play the focus on our masculine-feminine nature is highlighted. There is an imperative to bring a greater balance to our male-female polarity. For approximately 5,000 years the world has been under patriarchal rule. The exploitation of nature, abuse of women and children and disallowing of the feeling nature all stem from the denial of the feminine nature. For the survival of our species, we must move into equal, co-operative partnerships between male and female, nature and humankind, physicality and spirituality. In Evolutionary Astrology, the polarity (opposite point) of Pluto represents one’s evolutionary path, which at this point in time in history is in the sign of Cancer for everyone. Capricorn highlights the necessity for us to transform our relationship to our feminine nature.

Cancer is our yin, receptive principle—the protection of life, support of our growth and birthing into new potential in these times. The word “matter” comes from the Sanskrit word mat, meaning “mother”. All aspects of our physical world are sacred and it is the nurturing essence of the mother that cares for the earth. Cancer is associated with emotions and feelings as indicators of what is healthy and what is harmful.

From the Cancerian essence of Mother to the pragmatic essence of Capricorn father we blend the two and become responsible adults, able to care for ourselves and others. As the earth is changing and the last vestiges of the illusion are blowing away the opportunity for us to create functional families and allow Love to be a guiding force in our lives becomes much more the potential. Capricorn is the sign that brings us into our power and maturity to the point that we are no longer dependent on others to validate our selfhood. In order for this to occur, Cancer, the fourth sign must put down firm roots so that the tenth sign can share in the fruits of its labor. When we disregard our own thoughts and feelings it is much more likely that we will violate the rights of others. When we refuse to be responsible for our own lives we weaken the fabric of those lives with whom we interact. This Full Moon reveals where we require to become softer and more vulnerable to the gentle side of our nature, as well as to strengthen our boundaries. The downloads from the GC in the Milky Way are encouraging us to be more aware of our feelings, find positive ways of dealing with emotions and trust our own intuition, as well as caring for our bodies and the Earth.

The ongoing grand cross between Uranus in Aries, Jupiter in Cancer, Mars in Libra and Pluto in Capricorn is amplified by this Full Moon and three feminine archetypes. The asteroid Vesta, keeper of the alter flame is at 23 degrees Libra conjunct Ceres, a dwarf planet named for the great mother goddess. Both Vesta and Ceres are squaring the Full Moon, as well as Venus in Capricorn and Jupiter in Cancer. Mars, mythic God of War is square Venus, symbol of peace and harmony. Squares always indicate the potential for dimensional shift—in this case, the shift from competition to cooperation, from class consciousness to equality, from domination to collaboration. Saturn in Scorpio continues to trine Jupiter in Cancer, bringing about the release of old outmoded belief systems and fears. This Full Moon can inspire important insights and turning points as it squares the degree of the October 18, 2013 lunar eclipse at 25 degrees 45 minutes Aries-Libra.

This Full Moon marks a point of major reeducation on the planet. How we have lived and what we have stood for is shifting and changing as the new paradigms move in. Learning to conduct relationships in new and healthy ways is vital.

NEW MOON-JANUARY 30

This Aquarius New Moon illuminates the power of the individual and the potency of unified higher consciousness. We are experiencing a spiritual revolution, only this time it is from the inside out. Nothing happens in the world first. It always begins within the collective consciousness and flows out to create lasting social, political and financial reforms. When the changes are made from Love rather than militant orders we transform our lives and our world.

There is so much more to us than we have been allowed to consider. The thoughts that we entertain create the future that we live. When we attempt to bring change about through force it seldom lasts. Personal power can be the most noble of all energies, supporting life and energizing our ability to accomplish great things. When that power turns to domination it makes us weak. Dr. David Hawkins, in his book Power vs. Force illustrates the profound influence of our thoughts. Hatred, guilt and shame can literally bring us to our knees. It only takes one person vibrating at the frequency of Love (300 and above) to counterbalance 90,000 people operating in lower vibrations (under 200). One enlightened person can counterbalance 70,000,000 people vibrating at levels of lowest emotional range—hopelessness (50), fear (100) and anger (150). True power is derived from unity, while force derives from duality.

Venus turns direct on January 31, signaling the need to act on what we have learned since December 21 when the planet went retrograde. Venus hovers within 10 degrees of Pluto for three weeks before and three weeks after its station direct. This will bring unconscious patterns and disempowering beliefs to the surface. Venus close conjunction with Pluto and opposition to Jupiter indicate that it is time to set new goals and consider new forms of agreement, both in relationships and all forms of business. Uranus, the modern ruler of Aquarius, squares Venus, Pluto and Jupiter, continuing the cosmic messages to think and live outside of the box. As the old year has passed and we are contemplating the new, it is to recognize that Love not money is what makes the world go around. This New Moon calls us to face our fears, reclaim the authorship of our lives and, not only take our power, but accept that it is ours.

We are the creators of our world. If we do not like what is happening the place to look is inside. What do you want? The “how to get it” is waiting for you to pay attention to your own life rather, than worrying about how others are designing theirs.

I thought this was too funny especially in light all that is going on in the world as we enter 2014. May we realize our separation and make a vast healing in this year and the times to come.

A group of aliens landed in the mountains of Northern Italy and approached some local people. Not surprisingly, they said "Take us to your leader!" The people huddled and discussed the issue for a while. Not wanting the aliens to get the wrong idea about humanity in general by introducing them to the leaders of the always-chaotic Italian government, they decided instead to take the aliens to the Pope. Surely they would be impressed by the grandeur and peace of St. Peter's Basilica.

The aliens met Pope Francis and were indeed impressed by the enormity of the basilica and the peace the environment seemed to radiate. But eventually the Pope had to ask ...

"You know, I am a leader, but perhaps not in the manner you might expect. I am the head of the world's largest denomination, Catholicism, and 1.2 billion of its adherents. So I have to know ... Have you and your people ever heard of Jesus?"

"You mean Jesus Christ?" asked the alien leader.

"Yes! Yes! Do you mean to tell me you have heard of Him?"

"Oh, yeah! He's an awesome guy! He comes to our planet every year, raises the dead, heals the sick, makes the lame walk, you know the drill. It's great! He gives us wonderful guidance on how to live our lives, goes on television and advises us on how to keep the peace ..."

"Every year! Are you kidding me? We're still waiting for His second coming. We've been waiting for two thousand years!"

The alien leader seemed surprised, and said "Well, maybe he doesn't like your chocolates."

"Er, what? Chocolates? What do chocolates have to do with any of this?"

"Well, when Jesus visits us, we put Him up in the best hotels, provide the best food and entertainment, just make it a really nice vacation for Him. And then we send him off with a huge box of chocolates. He just loves the stuff ... Why, what did you guys do when he was here?"

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

Remembering Mother Earth

Happy New Year to all of you. Another year has come and gone and it seems like only yesterday that everyone was scrambling about thinking of Y2K. I wish you many more years to share your very special gifts with one another and experience all that you desire.

Years ago, as I was stretching into a new way of being, oftentimes I felt isolated and alone with no support system. Looking at all the suffering in the world, how was I supposed to heal them all? How was I to help heal the earth when I had so little time to devote to that? I put a lot of pressure on myself until I realized that I didn't have to do it by myself. Working with the Masters and the suggestions they made, I was able to accomplish my part of the plan and understand a little more of what can occur when we get out of our own way. How easy is it when we can ask God to bless them all and He will heal those who will give their permission? And, there are stones that we might use to help the earth to heal.

Lepidochrosite is one such crystal. This is made up of Lepidolite, Rhodochrosite and Quartz. Similar to Rutilated Quartz, it has a pink tinge to it. It deals with the major distresses in this time. It benefits those who are dying of the pain of their misunderstanding, their unbearable chaos, feeling that they want to get away from themselves, their skin itching and burning. This assists in forgiving that major stress. You can make an elixir of this crystal with pure water. Let it sit overnight, then put the solution into a spray bottle. You can spray this over your body to relieve stress. Also, if you would take a map of the world and spray it with this solution, a lot of the stress and chaos of the world would be lessened. As we heal ourselves, we begin to heal those situations outside of ourselves.

Rosasite is another crystal that I strongly recommend. It works as triage of the universal wound. It is ideal for those who are greatly wounded. When using this crystal, again take a map of the world and place Rosasite in the heart of the United States and in the Polar Regions, for the United States is the heart of things in this time. You will be led to place other stones in other places for the healing of the earth.

Aragonite is a crystal that promotes meridian balancing and connection with star clusters. It will work as well on a map of the world as on the physical body and brings together similarities of meridian lines between the earth and the body. For those with addictions, this would tend to clear what you might call the circles they go in; of their minds and emotions that cause the cycle of addiction whether it is food, tobacco, drugs, alcohol, relationships, etc. That should cover some of those New Year resolutions!

As we use the stones, don't forget to include those that promote and give us a sense of joy!

Atacamite dispenses joy in a magnified way. Joy vibrates in the cellular structure of the physical body and so, as this would be meditated upon or worn upon the body, it would bring into the physical affairs, into the daily life, a greater sense of joy, delight with being and a greater sense of well-being. It would assist in sweetening the emotional nature and uplifting the heart and the mind and making the sense of joy real in this illusion.

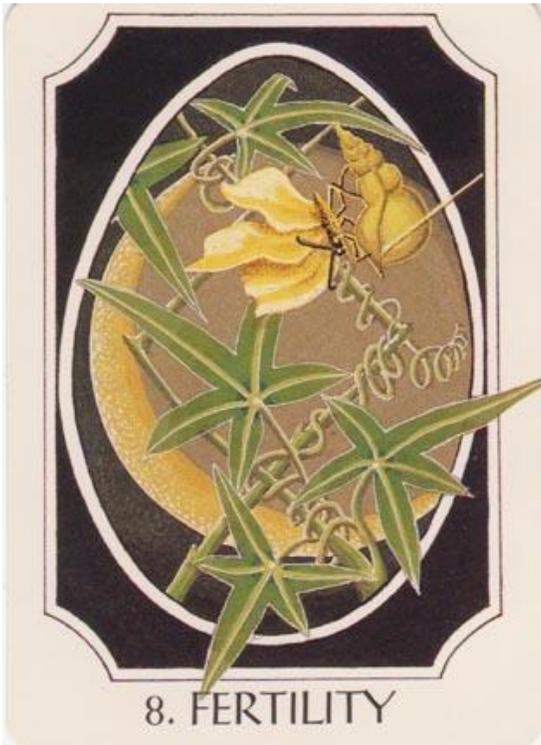

When I think about the life I'm living now, I realize I have a wonderful support system and a 'family' I am truly grateful for. I received a Christmas plaque that reads as follows--"When someone told me that I live in a fantasyland, I nearly fell off my unicorn." That about sums it up!

Until next time, be in joy and experience majik!

TAROT TALK

A Rune for the New Year.

I drew a Rune to describe the energy of this new year and I drew INGUZ, the Rune of Fertility.

A butterfly emerges

Still moist from the cocoon.

This is how new life comes,

Softly, secretly,

Among the green shoots.

This Rune is akin to the Moon, the intuitive part of our nature., with its urge toward harmonizing and adjusting in the sphere of personal relationships. Fertility embodies the need to share, the yearning to be desired, a search after similarities.

The completion of beginnings is what Inguz requires. It may mark a time of joyous deliverance, of new life, a new path. A Rune of great power, drawing it means that you now have the strength to achieve completion, resolution, from which comes a new beginning. Above all, completion is crucial here. It may be timely that you complete some project now; if so, make that your first priority. Perhaps a difficult state of mind can be resolved, clarified, turned around. Drawing this Rune indicates that you must first fertilize the ground for your own deliverance.

All things change and we cannot live permanently amid obstructions. The Rune of Fertility signals your emergence from a closed chrysalis state. As you resolve and clear away the old, you will experience a release from tension and uncertainty.

You may be required to free yourself from a rut, habit or relationship: from some deep cultural or behavioral pattern, some activity that was quite proper to the self you are leaving behind. The period at or just before birth is often a dangerous one. Movement involves danger, yet movement that is timely leads out of danger. Now it is time to enter the delivery room.

Another of the Cycle Runes, Fertility counsels preparation. Being centered and grounded, freeing yourself from all unwanted influences, and seeing the humor, you are indeed prepared to open yourself to the Will of Heaven and can await your deliverance with calm certainty.

Here I am being an Island girl in Kauai.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Beloved Masters, it is not only a new year, but a new time, a new space and a new dimension. The Year of Perspective brings a time of considering where you are in your evolution and how to proceed. If you are still attempting to make movement by planning your next spiritual step then it is time to feel into your inner space and begin to let Love show you the way. The first most important thing is to accept that you deserve to be Loved completely. You were created in Love and Love has never left you. You have completed a long journey of being human and now the next step is allowing yourself to become a NEW human. It isn't about dying and leaving everything behind. It is about the recognition that death was an integral part of the Illusion and none of those aspects have nearly as much effect as they once did.

The mind still wants to fight for freedom. The more that you fight anything the more you become tangled up in its properties. Fighting is a focus that pulls all of the aspects of the fight into the war. Freedom is not exactly opposite war, but in a different alignment. In order to be free you are required to make a space within yourself for freedom to abide. Freedom is not a rebel stand, but a willing allowance to let go of the necessity to fight everything. As you begin to observe how fighting and war feel within you, you begin to discover that fighting is a mainstay of life in the Illusion. "How else can I get what I want?" the EGO says. A greater question yet is, "Do I ever fully get what I believe that I am fighting for?" or "Do I just get a momentary feeling of victory that, very quickly, begins to disintegrate and soon the EGO is seeking another fight for more?"

Consider words: People are always telling each other what they should, oughta, gotta, musta do! People will even say, "I told them very nicely what I thought" and they got upset. It isn't just what words are said or even the smile on one's face or an attempt to appear caring in the situation, but the energy that is conveyed in the words. How does your voice betray your anger? Sticky sweetness sounds false. Dripping sarcasm burns with the acid in the tone of voice. You can hear the bossy mother or big sister telling you that you have to do what she says when that is what the person is really feeling within themselves. You can hear the stern voice of the father even when the words are coming from a woman. How many have sworn that someone was yelling at them, even though the person talking had not raised their voice? Have you ever walked away from a conversation and even though you could not say exactly what didn't feel good something was amiss? It just didn't feel good. Perhaps the conversation, on the surface, seemed all right, but it left a vague feeling of uneasiness. Maybe you even realized that you had a bad taste in your mouth from the energy of the words. That were said—yours, theirs.

Begin to let go of battle in your life!! When someone does something that you don't like give yourself time to get clear what is going on. Rather than immediately moving into "Let me tell you what you are doing wrong?" take time (several hours, even a day) to get quiet within yourself and ask "What is my problem with this situation?" rather than "Look what THEY are doing?" Once you begin to see what made you angry from inside of yourself you may find that they were simply being themselves and all of the indictments that your EGO wished to hurl against them come from the EGO being offended by the mirror standing before you. In this practice you can gain greater compassion for yourself and others, without making a war and later feeling uncomfortable because maybe, just maybe you over-reacted.

Mob mentality is brought to you through the media. The news is often directed at getting reactions from people. "Look what is happening, look what THEY are doing? Are you going to just sit by and let that happen? You've got to fight it." You are taught from the cradle to the grave to fight. "Fight disease". "Fight hunger". "Fight poverty". "Fight what you do not want in your life". The fight keeps the focus on conflict and all of the things that you want to get rid of. Yet you are afraid of stopping the fight because IT or THEY might win out over you. We have pointed out before that there are huge wars, deadly wars being fought by people who want change and have no idea what that might be, accept that it must be anything else, but what is happening. The new outcome could even be worse—it's just got to be different. War leaves no room for clarity. War established no firm foundations of security. It keeps humanity alienated from itself. Blind hatred lashes out at everyone and everything. It can just as easily destroy the treasure it is fighting for as the "enemy", which by the way is you. "Lo, we have seen the enemy and it is us". EVERYONE IN THE HUMAN CONDITION IS A PART OF THE COLLECTIVE OF HUMANITY. Hate them and you hate yourself. It is impossible, by Divine Law, not to hate you if you hate the whole. Love yourself and you Love them all. Forgive withholding Love from yourself because you might have to Love someone who doesn't deserve it. Separation has created an Illusion that things are disconnected. The Mind has decided that Nature can be destroyed for profit because it is less than humanity. Nature is part of God's creation. The intellectual convenience of dismissing it as something for man to use up for his own devices is insanity. Use up or use inappropriately and you erode your own life force in the process. All religions, all political movements, all charity, all wars are a part of all people. Goodness granted to the few and denied the many is a denial to the few also and everyone will suffer energetically. As long as the Illusion remained in place the laws of separation seemed to work, but as the GAME HAS ENDED you are beginning to find that "how it always worked" is working less and less well. The planet is accelerating, you are moving into higher frequencies and the old ways are passing as any antiquated technology must as things progress. There are even those who are attempting to prevent things from moving forward, but that has never stopped progress entirely and now, more than ever, the attempt is becoming ineffective.

The fighting all over the ball is depleting energy, both physical, as with gas and oil, but energetically. Emotional depletion leads to depression and exhaustion. Working harder to get more because of the constant feeling of lack takes more energy than allowing yourself to be shown how to achieve the greater good efficiently. Take away the fear and remove the competition and observe for yourself how much more you can accomplish in a shorter period of time with less energy expended.

Competition has been considered a standard of business as usual—"us against them, get there (where ever there is) first, battle strategy, plan of attack". See if you can accomplish what you desire without war terminology. Pay very close attention to the words you are saying, how they feel in your solar plexus (if they don't feel good to you they won't feel good to others). Does the conversation leave you feeling down, depleted, anxious? Where is your focus? What were you trying to make happen? Were you attempting to manipulate someone else? Were they attempting to manipulate you? Do you feel defensive without even knowing why? It's much more about energy than what you are hearing or seeing!

Do you dread going to see your parents, your in-laws, people whom you believe are better than you? Are you afraid of your boss, your teachers, professional people, your doctor, minister, any official person? They are all aspects of you!! As you begin to discover them in yourself and integrate them into you, you begin to feel much more positive and aligned. What is your inner boss (parent) like? Are you afraid of you? Do you fear the judgment of others because you know how cruel the bitter judgments that you carry feel? This is not an indictment, but a glorious chance for healing. You have accused yourself long enough and feared the lash of your accusations. You have looked to accuse others to shift the burden of blame from your own shoulders, only to find that it seems heavier, rather than lighter.

These times require total attention to thoughts, emotions, anger, reactivation, tendencies to conflict, not to “get rid of them”, but to forgive them as they happen. The mind wants to say, “I forgave everything” so I have nothing else to forgive. One: you simply cannot let go of that much at once without putting yourself into overwhelm. Two: As long as you are living on the planet you will create things to be forgiven—partly because you are human and partly because you are learning a whole new way to function and you don’t know it all. You will discover, as you accelerate, that you will never know it all because things keep developing that are new, different and exciting. Each attractive event presents a potential new direction to pursue. Even learning to forgive yourself for losing focus and running in several different directions at once like a child chasing butterflies. Having compassion for yourself in growth also gives compassion for others. Rather than looking to see how they are “screwing up”, you begin to consider what wonderful potentials they are unearthing, just as you are. Be willing to share. THERE IS NOTHING TO LOSE!! In fact, as you forgive your fear of loss, you will find that more good can reach you. The fear was like a dam that blocked the good you were looking for. When you begin to focus on plenty all of the time, you will be amazed at how your fortunes change.

Beloved Masters, keeping your perspective is important. Paying attention to what perspective you are keeping is even more important. Perspective brings balance, clarity and quality to your creations. As you begin to feel into it you will even begin to recognize aspects of what the word perspective means that you never noticed or experienced before. 2014 is a Seven Year. Seven is a number of Faith and introspection. Seven calls for entering into your Sacred Space within and finding your connection to the Divine waiting to be reinstated. Plug your most Ancient and Divine self into the brand new technology of these times that is emerging within your own body. The Ancient activates the Quantum essence of yourself to lift you into higher dimensional frequencies. You are in the process of becoming a New Human. YOU CANNOT DO IT!!! This must be allowed from the most inner connections of self to Self.

The New Human is one who has experienced the pain of Separation in order to realize some very important aspects of self. The Golden discoveries of life as a Human can now be brought into the higher levels of understanding. The brilliant technology can be used gently and compassionately rather than coldly and without caring. A New Human can be safe within themselves in the absolute recognition of the Truth of who they are—in Love and Completion of the old lessons new Perspectives are waiting to be revealed as you are ready to see, hear, feel them.

We will say this again. It is so important to make a space within yourself to experience the changes. If you rush to make change, but do not understand what the outcome can be the EGO will use the changes against you until you get comfortable with being so different. No more “What will they say if they discover that I am a Master?” Love is an exceptional guide, that will lead you gently and show you ways to accomplish what you desire that do not involve, in any way, harm to others. As you forgive believing that the only way you can get what you want is to take it by force from “those who have it and refuse to share”, you begin to see/feel and hear/feel within just how to achieve all that you desire in a warm, safe, fulfilling environment.

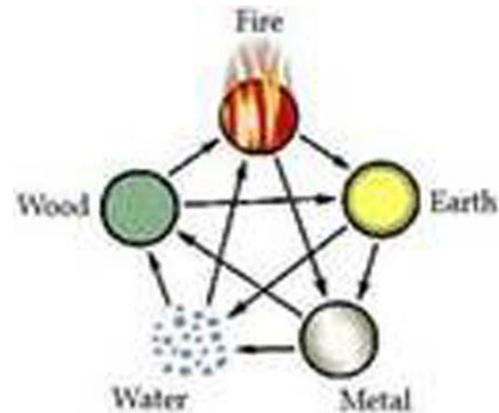

The mind says, “This cannot happen. It isn’t logical or practical. That is True. Logic and Practicality have little to do with the changes that are now coming into play on Earth. “People cannot change!” Of course they can and do, but so often there has been no consideration of the outcome of their actions before they take them. A New Human is no longer the aggressive warrior, but a Divine Scientist in the purest sense of the Word, an Alchemist of the finest essence and more and more aware of the Divine ability to create without someone getting hurt—you or them—compassionate objectivity.

Email: highvoltage@nature@gmail.com

Who are you today? How does that compare to a year ago, ten years ago, twenty years ago? Did you really notice the changes as they took place? Now you can.

Recognize and realize that we are always with you. Feel it, feel it, FEEL IT!!! You will not find us in your head, with your finite mind. You will not ascend by thinking and planning a strategy. You must “Get outside of the Box (the mind)” and learn a whole new way of Being. BE THE HUMAN BEING THAT YOU HAVE ALWAYS BEEN. How refreshing it is.

In the Greatest of Love, We are with you. Until We meet again in whatever manner that might be I bid you Adieu! I AM the Lord St. Germain.
