Fall Intensive Our fall intensive will be November 10, 11-12. The title is “The Elements and Elementals of Magik”. The elements effect everything in life. Each person has a primary element that is the element most easily accessed in many situations. It also shows in the personality and the nature. All elements are accessible, but the primary element is a personal dynamic. The elementals—gnomes (earth), sylphs (air), undines (water) and salamanders (fire), as well as, Aether (spirit) are a natural part of life and even though most of the time humans have little or no awareness of them they still play a very important part of life in general and how the natural aspects of life function. St. Germain will talk about our elements, how to work with elementals, how to interact with aspects of nature and how to become much more attuned to how they feel, look and respond positively. We have been so long deliberately out of sync with nature, but as revelation brings us into harmony with the truly important factors of Life once more, the magik, which is the true living of Life, is reinstated, no matter what the beliefs of more recent times have mandated. Magik is only to be feared if there is the breaking of the Divine Laws that set it in motion in the beginning. The intensive will be from 10-2 on the 10th, 10 am to 6 pm on the 11th and 10 am to 4 pm on the 12th. The cost for this three day intensive is $350. We invite you to join us here is Lander for enlightenment, excitement and expansion, with the Master St. Germain.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our July Group is called “The Rite of Passage to Self”. Throughout the Illusion humanity has been slowly, but progressively separated from the recognition of true self. The measuring against others has created a sense of lack, unworthiness and low self-esteem. The mixed messages of the EGO have caused confusion about what is good and right to do and what is wrong and bad. The idea that you must succeed to have value is always held before you and then the questions about how much is enough, when do I get my reward and why do others always seem to be successful while I am struggling? The internal rite of passage to self-acceptance is the path that brings you to the answers that have always existed deep within your own core. Forgive measuring against others. Some will always seem to have more and others will seem to have less, based on their own choices and perspectives of their own lives. How they are living and what they believe is not something to use as a guideline for your own value. The joy of accomplishment and feeling of achievement within you is the clearest and most powerful realization that you can make.

Our Teaching for July is “The Element: FIRE”. The elements are an important aspect of magik because of the integral involvement with nature that magik brings. Fire is the easiest of all of the elements to work with and manipulate. St. Germain will talk about how fire is influencing things on the planet.

July's teaching is on Wednesday July 12th.

The Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-ins for the Teachings allow you to join in to hear the teaching and ask questions at the Q&A.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

CAPRICORN FULL MOON-July 8-9

The Full Moon brings our emotions into the light and helps us to express what we find. This can be most enlightening or it can simply bring up old, unresolved issues to be dealt with. The Sun in Cancer puts emphasis on affairs of family-- whether it is the close circle of blood relatives, friends, community, country or cosmic family. The lesson of the closing of the Piscean Age is oneness and we are being called to really know and live that truth. The Master St. Germain says, “There is no hiding place on earth.” There is no place where we can just “lay low” and wait out the storm until humanity becomes enlightened and the Aquarian Age is fully in place. Why? Because we are humanity! We are the ones who are required to become enlightened.

Mars conjuncts the Sun and opposes the Moon and Pluto in Capricorn. With Mars in the sign of its fall and the Moon in detriment there is a strong possibility for emotional reaction. Our insecurities and fears can pull in the direction of power struggles and attempts to control others. Adding fuel to the fire, the Sun, Moon, Pluto and Mars square Jupiter in Libra and Eris in Aries. Jupiter square the Moon can blow our emotions out of proportion, while Eris can trigger those parts of us where abandonment and rejection have been held and cause us to throw our anger at others without consideration.

Being responsible for our own emotions can assist us to navigate this mine field of turmoil. We are required to respond to personal and collective events with an open heart and a sense of maturity. Taking some time to be out in nature, seeking to focus tranquility and even some time in meditation can assist us to redefine what is going on within and without and allow us to meet what is occurring with Mastery instead of martyrdom. The more grounded we are in the wisdom of our inner truth and the eternal truth of the ages the more we can recognize our inner strength and personal connection to All That Is.

The Moon square Jupiter reminds us that being responsible for ourselves does not mean that we have to do everything by ourselves. The remembrance that we were created to be interdependent reminds us that as we share and support each other we grow and evolve in greater strength. Jupiter's square to Pluto, exact for the last time on August 4, brings awareness to cooperation, peace, and justice as life-and-death matters. Our survival depends on our ability to relate to each other and all of life.

The loosely formed grand cross in Cardinal signs brings us to a crossroads and choice point. The Full Moon illuminates what is not working and where things must be released in order to take the next giant step forward to new ways of being. The tight square between Ceres at 29 degrees Gemini and Chiron at 29 degrees Pisces reinforces the Pluto-Full Moon theme of intense planetary chaos. Planets at 29 degrees Gemini can precipitate the breakdown of systems, bringing turning points in history.

Saturn, ruler of Capricorn, is retrograde in Sagittarius (Apr. 5-Aug. 25) urging us inward to reconnect with our truth, wisdom and integrity. And reflect on how we are living our spirit in everyday reality. Saturn forma a fire grand trine with Eris in Aries and the North Node and Vesta in Leo. When we are willing to move through the Full Moon's emotional charge, we open a channel of connection to the creativity, courage and delight that exist within us. Vesta conjoining the North Node suggests that random acts of kindness can bring joy to everyone.

We are facing the dark side of our emotional selves, the dark Goddesses, Kali, Hecate, the Crone who destroys what's stagnant, corrupt and diseased so that new life can be born. We can be conscious participants in the unfolding transformation that allows us to recognize our own personal power and connection to Truth which is beyond personal definition. Light and dark are both necessary and important to the balance of the Universe and the human condition. While the light illuminates and informs the darkness brings us to the quiet place within to find what we have ignored or rejected. In that darkness, we are reborn.

LEO NEW MOON-July 23

This fiery New Moon in Leo calls us to feel the essence of our heart centered self, nurture ourselves and those that we love and become more aware of our own inner light that shines through our eyes and our aura. As Mars was conjunct the Sun in Cancer at the Full Moon, it is conjoining the New Moon in Leo offering a potent opportunity to recreate ourselves anew and connect even deeper with our own essence. Leo is the sign connected with the heart and the focus at this New Moon is the solar plexus, the soul center that puts us in touch with our personhood and spiritual identity.

The exact conjunction of Mars with the Sun occurs on July 26th at 4 degrees Leo. This marks the beginning of a new two-year cycle of redefining the masculine energy on the planet. We will be required to consider our vitality, motivation and discipline of our aggressive nature. Mars gives us courage and it is that willingness to move forward that shows us new ways of approaching life. Courage comes from the French word coeur "heart". We are asked to remain open-minded and open-hearted in the face of so much fear and hatred in the world. It takes will, focus and self-discipline to stay centered in our soul center and find the inner light that illuminates the darkness of these challenging times.

As Mars continues to travel close to the Sun for the next five weeks we may find that our vitality is low or we may experience confusion about our desires and have to bring them about. When Mars is this close to the rays of the sun it does not project the strength that it does otherwise. The primary purpose of this aspect is that old, outmoded expressions of the masculine are being burned away. Mars in Leo, at its most negative form is the tyrant, the bully, the egomaniac. We are witnessing many aspects of this shadowy expression living large in the world right now. The “mirror” suggests that we might look within ourselves and find our own willfulness, childishness, self-absorption and controlling nature.

Mars will gradually move beyond the fiery influence of the sun and by the early part of September as Mars becomes visible again, we will be ready to move forward with renewed energy and clarity. We can use this New Moon time to reflect on where our passions are directed and discover more of how and where our own creativity flows.

While the North Node is in Leo (May 10, 2017 to November 6, 2018) we can accelerate our soul growth by considering this goal for our evolutionary development; finding the most natural way to fulfillment and success brings us lasting support and contentment in life. When Love leads the way we can trust it to take into ways of heartfelt delight.

The New Moon forms an out of sign square to Uranus in Aries (28 degrees). This puts us on notice to pay attention to places where we have disconnected from our true self due to fear of rejection. Uranus is a liberator and it brings opportunities to express our own unique genius, but Uranus chaotic nature means that not everyone is going to be pleased when you step up and live the pure truth of all that you are. This is where the expression “Know Thyself” becomes a motto worth living.

The Sun, Moon and Mars in Leo offer a time of heart healing that can make us strong so that we do not lose ourselves to the struggles of the world without. With an open heart we can contribute to the healing of the collective, becoming the creative Masters that we are rather than falling into the morass of tyranny and global chaos. “LET THERE BE PEACE ON EARTH AND LET IT BEGIN WITH ME!!!”

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

As you come home to yourself you find that what you have been looking for the world over, for lifetimes has been quietly waiting for you to return to your home within.--St. Germain

The Magik enters the earth, everyday. Love is filling the world, everyday! Wake up, wake up, Beloved Masters. Remember, remember who you are. — St. Germain

Power is gentle and kind. Real power has no necessity to dominate or control, because that which it is, so much more than any force the world has contrived. Live the courageous Love that you are and be enthralled with what you find everywhere. –St. Germain

Peacemakers do not tell others how to be peaceful. Peacemakers create the space for peace to thrive and then live in the wonder of a world that responds to the softness and tenderness that it has been told it could not allow. –St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

You hear it all of the time! “Be yourself. Find yourself. Come home to yourself.” And, again and again you say, “What does that mean?” “WHO ARE AM I?”

The answer is neither the things that you do, who you know, what your monetary worth is, where you live or work or your opinions, ideas or judgments. YOU ARE A DREAMER, A TRAIL BLAZER, A MAP MAKER, A MAGIKIAN, A PRIME CREATOR, AN EXPLORER, AN ARTIST AND A THOUSAND OTHER WONDERFUL ASPECTS THAT YOU HAVE NOT ALLOWED YOURSELF TO RECOGNIZE IN LIFE TIMES. You have been taught to “fit into the box”, “not to make waves”, “to do what you are told and not to ask questions”. When you are holding yourself so tight in order not to upset anyone, you soon begin to feel as though you are going to explode or disappear. Perfection is held as the ideal and then you are told that no one is perfect, so why try. The control, mixed messages and confusion is then increased by people who seem to have “all of the answers”, but their answers don’t resonate within you or their ideas don’t feel good to you. Youth asks, “What do I do? Where do I begin? Why don’t things seem to work for me?” We offer the question, “What feels good to you? Are you an artist, a healer, a coordinator, a visionary? The Illusion has made laws about the arts, such as artist doesn’t make money. “You need to get yourself a real job.” There are subtle suggestions that if you enjoy what you are doing then that is all the reward that you get. If you want to make money you have to work really hard and having fun is not allowed. The newer generations in the market place are ridiculed by the older generations for being lazy, selfish and other judgments, simply because they will not yield to the old standards in the workplace. They make more money, have more time and still accomplish more generally, but there is still that missing piece, so often.

That piece that says, “I am worthy. I am a wonderful person. I matter and I care.”

As the Illusion is passing the pain of not fitting is excruciating. The important question is, “What does fitting in really mean?” The loneliness of separation has created missing aspects of self that cannot be found out in the world. No one else can provide the pieces of you that you have hidden away due to shame, guilt, doubt, fear or false judgment. The EGO asks, “Why would you want to find those parts of you that lead to embarrassment, being discovered or worse?” Because when you begin to recover what was pushed away in confusion, you find that a lot of what has been rejected is really valuable and what you denied are some of your finest attributes. At the time you pushed them away your view was distorted by emotional reaction.

When someone criticizes you, you can actually feel walls rising up or shutters being closed in the area of your heart. You refuse to let the pain in. If you refuse to feel the pain, you may stop feeling anything or you doubt that anyone is going to give you something to feel good about. It takes great courage to allow vulnerability. As you dare to let down the walls or open the shutters what you begin to discover is that hidden behind the walls of doubt and loneliness is the pathway into your own heart and soul, the inner space, the secret of your wholeness (holiness) within. You are the only one who can open the way to let people, Love, joy, belonging into your life, your world.

Moving beyond the conceptual views of life and beginning to actually live the essence of who you are on a daily basis, requires releasing lifetimes of judgment and limitation, entrenched belief systems and fear of being found lacking in some way. Being a good actor no longer serves humanity as it has in the past. Reality is becoming much more important than the facades of non-reality.

Self-discovery is a feeling deep within that empowers you with the eternal recognition of the totality of all that you are. It feels so good and the EGO then asks, “How long can this last?” What if the feel-good feeling goes away?” “Why bother to make changes that won’t last?” Here is where the courage and faith of your intrinsic self sustains you as you keep moving forward into greater Love and happiness than you have experienced in life times. Feel it. Feel it! FEEL IT!! This is not something to think about, which just keeps the feelings at a distance, but something to ponder, embrace and employ in every facet of your Beingness.

The natural world is a wonderful place to begin the process of remembrance of at-one-ment with yourself. In nature, your true self is available and vulnerable to accepting all that you were created to be. The Illusion has a million ideas of what you should be, do, think, say, how you must act or not, even if these rules do not feel good to you. All of the different ways of being acceptable create confusion and then the EGO tells you that there is something wrong with you because “you SHOULD know what is right”. The mind that is giving orders about what to do is also asking questions, constantly, about whether these orders are actually the way to proceed. Logic isn’t logical and practicality, often isn’t very practical. When you forgive listening to the mind chatter, take a deep breath and allow yourself to open up to what spirit brings in the form of internal comfort and peace, it changes the path that has been followed by rote and brings you to a fully involved awareness of self.

To sit with your back to a tree, not just to prop you up, but in order to commune with the tree; to feel the flow of energy that is the sap moving from root to branches, to recognize that trees are sentient beings and if you will listen with your whole self they can tell amazing stories of life through the ages. To merge with the elements and allow water to wash away pain and fear, to let the breezes blow the sense of being stuck out of your head and clear the way for new understanding in the center of your being. Fire is a purifier and its energy can lift your spirits and ease the ways of accomplishment from the very depths of your soul. Being with nature isn’t just being outside, but paying attention to what is going on around you and how those connections refill and replenish your Beingness. Nature Loves without any condition, so when you interact with nature it brings Love freely given without a price. You can enjoy the relationship without wondering if you are acceptable. You do not even have to go outside, if you will allow yourself to feel the sweetness of the natural world within you. You were created to be at one and at peace with all of creation. Forgiving the wrongs of the world and letting yourself blend with everything changes your world. YOU CANNOT CHANGE OTHERS, however, your willingness to change self influences the collective consciousness gently. You were not created to fix the world, other people or anything outside of you. You were not even intended to fix yourself. You were made to create Love and beauty as gifts to yourself and allow them to also serve others. You are a Divine Creative Master, not a dominating drill Sargent to shout order others, telling them to do what you say. The more you Love and honor yourself for the life that you were created to live the more that you can truly Love and honor others for their creations. Patience with self and others is a great virtue and in these changing times a true gift to everyone.

Accepting change without analyzing what it is about or if it good or necessary, but giving change time to show the positive outcomes rather than making snap judgments about what it looks like this moment. People want change and there are millions shouting ideas of what change should be. Change happens and immediately the shouting is louder, “No, no, that isn’t what we wanted.” How things appear to be is no longer an accurate assessment of what is going on. “Ain’t nothin’ what it seems to be.” Spirit isn’t literal and you are being consistently moved into the blending with spirit that changes everything.

When you open your mind you touch the worlds beyond Illusion. When you forgive thinking, planning and doing and begin to let those others levels of spirit show you new ways of creating the Loving ways of the Ancients being to flow into your consciousness. Old beliefs and limited trust can block the positive outcomes of the changes that are being opened up for all of humanity to experience. You cannot access the power of Love by trying, by thinking about ways to make it happen or by demanding that spirit comply to your wishes. Learning to live in a relaxed, open-minded, allowing state trains you to be attuned to the Reality that is emerging from the very core of your being. When the chaos of the world slips in, it helps to take a few deep breaths and return to the state of alignment that brings awareness of the new life that is entering into the collective consciousness. When you live receptively rather defensively life brings a whole new perspective in every way. Surrounding yourself with the Violet Flame creates a bubble of protection that is very strong. When the affairs of life or the demands of the world are too much the Violet Flame can give you a place of tranquility right where you are. If people are being aggressive you can wrap them in the Violet Flame. The Violet Flame is about Love without any condition so it does not interfere with the free will of anyone. The Love simply provides an atmosphere of serenity and peace. If others do not like being peaceful they may attempt to fight the Love, but their conflict will be within themselves. There have been many questions about when it is appropriate to use the Violet Flame and I tell you that any time is the Divinely appropriate time for unconditional Love. There have been rules made about asking permission to send Love and healing. I assure you that the EGO made those rules to create fear of trespass, yet in so many instances people have no qualms about interfering with the free will of others.

The more that you devote yourself to self-discovery and awareness the easier you will find life to be. The clearer the creative flow and the less misunderstanding there is with others. Make sure that you slow down your thoughts and ideas and feel what is going on within and without. The EGO will complain and swear that this process takes too much time, but if you will be disciplined and consistent you will discover that everything in your life comes together easier. If you find confusion and conflict moving in, check to see if you have slipped back into attempting to control what is going on and RELAX.

The direct connection to self and, therefore, to the GOD self are more available all of the time. Life can be so much more simple if you allow rather than push. Revelation is seeking to inform and enlighten the whole of the world to where the earth is moving. We intensely desire the highest and best good for all and seek to bring the understanding that that good is not tangled up in physical goods and money, but that the physical goods come so much easier when you are creating peace in your own personal space. Your peace is not about what others are doing, it is about what you focus on and are receptive to in your own world. The world outside will respond to your shifts, positive or negative.

We are always available, but remember that we are not servants to do your bidding or fulfill your prayers. We can only be of service when you are open to allow it. In Love We are with you. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
