Here is a picture of my beautiful new crystal that I bought when we were in Hawaii. It is a companion to the tall crystal next to it. It has green tourmaline in it for protection and it also has a cocoon on the side facing away from the camera. There are memory plates in it that carry information that will be disseminated as we work with it. Lazaris has done a reading on the crystal and we are excited to see what it will share with us. We are delighted to welcome this new crystal to our crystal family.

Our friend Kathleen Edwards transitioned to the other side on April 23. She had been ill for most of the last year and it was a blessing, as she was in a lot of pain. She refused assistance, both medical and Wholistic. It was an opportunity to allow the choice of another Master no matter what.

Spring energy brings lots of changes very quickly and we are all experiencing the aches and quirks of the resistance to that much change that quickly. It rains, snows and then gets warm enough for promise only to get cold again in a day or two. Dorian has been experiencing back pain so we do not have many pictures this month.

We are remodeling the upstairs part of the Rainbow Center and it is going to be beautiful. We already have some renters who are excited to move in as soon as the building is ready. We will post pictures as the remodel gets finished.

We invite you to join us for our spring intensive “Living Beyond the Illusion”. It will be May 17-18 at the Rainbow Center for the Humanities. The cost is $350 for the week end.

The Master St. Germain is amping the energy with every teaching, group and intensive that he does. He will bring new understanding to how we can live beyond the limits, pain and suffering of an illusion that is passing away. Come and feel the amazing love that the Master shares and be lifted up into a higher consciousness that connects from the most Ancient memories of our beginnings on Earth to the current flow of Quantum acceleration.

We just found out that the parks—Yellowstone and Grand Teton—will open the weekend of our intensive for any of you who would like to come to the intensive and then on to visit Yellowstone Park.

Call 307 335-8113 for information, accommodations and recreational ideas while in the area.

We are excited about St. Germain’s “Personal Growth” package. What he did not say when he presented this package is that each and every person involved would begin to experience their own very special events to assist in the movement and awareness of their personal growth. We are getting delightful, uplifting and yes, some trying experiences reported. Even in the challenges there are encouraging and informative points of enlightenment. I can assure you that Dorian and I are experiencing our own Personal Growth in this process. St. Germain asks for a six month commitment to your self to your own Personal Growth, but you do not have to stop at the end of six months. There are openings for those of you who have just discovered this wonderful opportunity or those who have been considering it and now feel ready.

Each month you can get the Teachings, Q & A and a one hour private session with St. Germain to develop your personal evolution in spirit. The cost will be $120 per month with a six month commitment which is a great deal as a one hour private session is $200 normally. Just imagine spending an hour of valuable time each month discussing anything about your growth that you wish with the Master. We have the good fortune of spending time with him regularly and it is such an up lifting experience.

In memory of Kathleen Edwards who passed into the higher realms on April 23. May life be ever joyful.

Rainbow Center News

We will not have a group in May due to our intensive.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2014groups.html

Our Teaching with the Master for May is "Death and Living". In a world where death seems to be happening everywhere with intensity St. Germain has chosen to address how this phenomena of life is changing. In many tragedy's there are very few that pass, yet in other instances it seems that far too many move beyond the veil. The Master speaks of our dying and our living in these amazing times.

The Teachings are on the second Wednesday evening at 7 PM MT. You may call in or receive CDs or mp3s

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON-May 14

This Taurus Sun opposed by a Scorpio Moon brings attention to security, connections to the earth and nature and our relationship to our personal value as well as how we share in our relationships of money and personal goods, our connection to the afterlife, views of death and the shadow side of our nature.

The Moon in Scorpio cojoins Saturn to hold us in check in order to look at the breakdown of old emotional patterns and beliefs that no longer serve us. The fixed signs (Taurus, Leo, Scorpio and Aquarius) tend to strengthen the tendency to hold on and these old ways must of necessity be released. Fear is a message that we have arrived at a new level of awareness. Fear, like everything else is energy. If we keep our focus on what we desire rather than what we don't want, that energy can propel us into the next phase of our growth. This Saturn/Moon conjunction doubles the strength of the message that if we face our fears we can overcome them. Faith and trust show us that if we "build it they will come!" If we are realistic and consistent we will reach our loftiest goals.

Because the dark side of Taurus is materialism and complacency and the shadow of Scorpio is deception and dominance we will be shown, in the light of this Full Moon, where these aspects might be lurking in our lives. Taurus shows us what we most require to fulfill our lives and Scorpio illuminates our desires and the things that we dread.

The faster we attempt to go the more things must slow down. The time/space continuum is altering how time appears to move so that nothing seems to function the way that it has. We may feel that we have too much time on our hands in one moment and within an hour or two we are overwhelmed by how busy we have gotten. This is bringing us to pay attention to what we are thinking about and asking for, because we totally create our reality by how we mentally, emotionally and spiritually move the energy.

NEW MOON-May 28

This New Moon falls in the sign of Gemini and focuses attention on our mind and thoughts.

The average human brain has approximately 100 billion neurons, and generates enough energy to power a 25 watt bulb. New connections are created with every thought and the more that we think a particular thought the deeper the pathway becomes. Stress is the number one issue that weakens our ability to learn and remember. As the world becomes more high-tech it also becomes more high stress. We are seeing more children with learning disabilities and older people who have memory issues. Often we simply do not wish to remember certain things and in attempting to forget we also decrease the ability to remember in general. Most people want to remember where they live, grocery lists, phone numbers and their family's names. Many do not wish to recall abuse, painful events or things that they have done that bring up shame or guilt, yet remembering encompasses all memory. Selective memory begins to narrow down the total ability to recall. We have the divine ability to change our brain and stimulate the creation of new neurons. If you can change your brain, you can change your life. The flow of the electrical energy of thought opens new pathways in the brain that can lift our consciousness into higher dimensional frequencies. As we focus on the present and what we are involved with in the moment we strengthen the neuron pathways and improve our brain function. Meditation, quiet times and deep feelings of compassion and Love improve brain function also. We can rewire our brain for greater physical well-being and peace of mind. It really is all about what you think. Where the energy of thought goes, the power of creation flows. YOU TRULY DO CREATE YOUR OWN REALITY.

As this New Moon comes to its culmination Mercury, the traditional ruler of Gemini is at 29 degrees 34 minutes of Gemini. Venus, the esoteric ruler of Gemini is at 29 degrees 39 minutes of Aries. The 29th degree of any sign is considered a critical degree, that requires the completion and fulfillment of the spiritual goal of that sign before moving on to the next lesson. The spiritual directive of Gemini is development of perception, thought and communication. The spiritual goals of Aries are courage, right action and stepping up to meet the events of life willingly. Venus is a planet associated with love, beauty and the heart which reminds us that we cannot separate feelings and thoughts. We are being required to think/feel more and more as the essence of the new paradigms influence where we are going in all levels of our life. Our heart has an electromagnetic field that is 5,000 times stronger than that of the brain, and can be recorded several feet outside of the body. Neurocardiology research shows that there are over 40,000 sensory neurons relaying information to the brain from the heart, and that these neurons allow the heart to learn, remember and make decisions independent of the brain's cerebral cortex. Both physical and emotional pain is identified by the same part of the brain. Physical ailments stem from emotional reactions that trigger stress in the brain and start chemical processes in the body to address the potential distress. We are empathetic and therefore we can reflect the pain and distress felt by others in our own body, mind and emotions.

From mid-May to mid-June Chiron forms a water grand trine with Jupiter in Cancer and Saturn in Scorpio. Trines offer a sense of ease and grand trines just magnify that feeling. This grand trine in water calls for a greater blending of mental and feeling nature. We are offered an opportunity to deepen our capacity for healing, intimacy and intuition which softens the challenges of the recent grand square of Uranus, Jupiter, Mars and Pluto.

We are being compelled to change. It is no longer an option, but a necessity. Change makes us greater, stronger and more connected to all that we truly are. Stimulate the brain's neuro-pathways— make positive CHANGES.

THE CRYSTAL CORNER

Feng Shui Elements, Gemstones & You

Hello, everyone! I am so happy to have recovered from the carpal tunnel procedure and can now enjoy using the computer and writing legibly once again! It looks like spring has sprung with only a few bumps and I have pussy willows!

For this month, I'm delving into the Feng Shui elements and some of the gemstones associated with them. According to the ancient Chinese, all things in the universe can be divided into five elements: water, fire, wood, metal and earth. These elements symbolize the process of change. Interactions between the elements produce a continual cycle of growth and decay. The Chinese Feng Shui elements also have attributes such as directions and seasons so let's explore that a little as it relates to areas of your home.

The five elements, their directions, the ideal gemstone and an alternate are as follows.

Fire	South Obsidian	Peridot
Metal	West Azurite	Malachite
Wood	East Amber	Jet
Earth	Southwest Tourmaline Northeast	Andalusite
Water	North	Opal	Pearl

Most of us desire prosperity and success in our lives. If you would place Peridot in the south sector of your home or a particular room, it will aid in attracting success. The size of the stone is not as important as the intent you use when placing the stone in a particular place. Clarity of intention is essential to manifest desires into the physical world.

The weather and seasons affect the energy of a room or house and the potency of an element. On cloudy, rainy days we feel down because of the strength of the darkness, dampness and chill-yin energy. On such a day, bring up the yang energy in your space by emphasizing fire energy. Place Peridot in areas that need a lift. Since the strength of fire is diminished in the cold, in the winter months you may want to keep extra peridot and other fire-invoking gemstones such as the Obsidian to place around your home. As fire is strongest in the summer, you would put the extra stones away. The fire element is amplified during the full moon which makes it an ideal time to cleanse your stones.

Remember the elemental cycles of increase and decrease. The use of Jet in the southern direction will help to increase fire, as Jet represents wood which builds fire.

Opal-which represents water-placed in the South would subdue the effects of fire, as water extinguishes fire. If you would like to tone down the fire element, use a bit of Andalusite, which represents earth, in the South. Earth controls fire but does not destroy it.

As we make the transition from winter to summer, hopefully this information will be helpful. Next month we'll go into some of the other elements.

I will be teaching Crystal Healing II on June 7th and 8th for those who have had the first class. Call me for a flyer or more information. I no longer have an 800 number so be sure to use (307) 754-4396. My email will be changing shortly but I will get email through June at the old address. Anyway, that's what I'm told! LOL

Have a great month and Happy Birthday to all the Taurus people out there!

BODY LANGUAGE

More and more in these times we are being reminded that when we talk to people it is important, not only to listen to the words that they are saying, but to observe the way that they move their body, the look on their face, in their eyes because the whole person is talking, not just the mouth.

For a long time the art of facing reading was dismissed as just another “woo-woo” game. Now there are scientific minds that are beginning to realize that the expressions on the face and the look in the eyes are clues to whether the person is being truthful.

Often we see people on television who have become so withdrawn from their connection to the world, to other people that they look almost as though they are wearing a mask—look closer—it isn't make-up or cosmetic, it is an expression of illusion. Often when there is an attempt to conceal what they are thinking people will put on a dead-pan expression in an attempt to confuse the opponent. This “poker-face” is a giveaway that something is going on. This is when your intuition is imperative. Don't accept something implicitly that doesn't feel good. Forgive trying to talk yourself into swallowing something that doesn't set well in your energy center in the area of your stomach. If you cannot swallow it, it probably will not digest well. So many people have been attempting to convince themselves that ideas and information that come from “authorities” are all true and the incidence of indigestion, on the planet, is sky-rocketing.

Communication is a total process. Focus, listen—mentally, emotionally, intuitively—and be amazed at what you learn. Not only that, you will find that there are fewer incidents of “but I thought you said!”

When someone crosses their arms across their chest it is an indication that they have stopped being receptive. When you are having a conversation, pay attention to your own body language as well as the one you are speaking with. How do you feel? Are you guarded, cautious or overly-eager. Do you want to believe so badly that you set yourself up for problems by not being discerning? Communication is all about energy so feeling is just as important, perhaps more so, than what you hear alone.

One of the biggest challenges on the planet now is texting. There is no direct connection. It is fast and distant. If the matter really isn't important then texting is ok. However, if there is a necessity for clarity it would be best to at least hear their voice and seeing them would be even better.

So body language is an interesting part of all communication. Have fun with it, but also, learn from the experience.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, science is acknowledging the wonders of the physical brain and we agree that it is a scientific miracle. As computer technology goes the brain is way ahead of electronics. The brain gathers information, sorts and stores it and holds more information than any computer yet created. The brain is always moving forward in its technology so that even when the mind is attempting to catch up in physical world technology, the brain continues to exceed what man can invent. This occurs simply because humanity will never be able to keep stride with God. There is something in the energy of human pride and prejudice that slows down the process and there are those people who are so sure that they can surpass all that God has created that they forget small things like gratitude and humility which are actually key factors in forward motion on a spiritual level. There has been an intense focus on physical technology. Bigger, better, faster has been and still is the driving force of technological invention. However, control and force simply have no place in the evolution of the planet into higher realms. There is a crescendo of conflict as the old order is passing away. Since this has been a planet of warriors, fighting has been the accepted method of getting what is wanted quickly. Threat and intimidation have been tools of the EGO for thousands of years. Guilt, shame, humiliation and judgment are far greater weapons than guns. The outcome of the belief that if someone is different there is something wrong with them and they deserve to be punished for their uniqueness is blowing up in violence all over the planet. Many who have been ridiculed for being “less” are attempting to show the world their “power” by retaliation. Hate, that has been encouraged by groups of people who are fearful or who feel the necessity to take control (there is that word again) of the world, is boiling over but confusion does not accomplish anything clearly. People are shouting, throwing things, shooting, but no one is listening. If you do not know what you want it is impossible to get a satisfactory outcome. If you only believe that your way is the right way, it is becoming more and more difficult to get a peaceful conclusion.

THE SEPARATION FROM LOVE HAS CAUSED MANY LEADERS TO FEEL THAT IT DOESN'T MATTER WHO DIES AS LONG AS THEY PROVE THAT THEY CAN HAVE POWER OVER.

Fear drives humanity to unfortunate choices that are based on the illusion of safety and protection. We are sure that you notice that war is not safe for anyone. Soldiers on both sides die or are so wounded that their lives are forever altered. The citizenry of every country is affected by war anywhere on earth. Everything and everyone is connected so that no one sits smugly by and can say “if it isn't happening to me and mine it means nothing to me”. There are many who would believe that if there is not a battle raging outside of their door they are not experiencing war. Yet if they would stop to feel inside of themselves there is fear and doubt raging within because of a lack of faith in being protected. They doubt that Love is the greatest protector right where they are. Wanting peace, yet holding on to the idea that other people make peace, not self, spawns greater separation all of the time.

YOU ARE POWERFUL CREATORS AND MANIFESTERS!! YOU ARE CAPABLE OF BRINGING ABOUT THE GREATEST GOOD OR THE MOST TERRIBLE ATROSITIES.

The physical brain can figure things out, come up with solutions to problems, calculate how to get what it wants, produce amazingly complicated deals in business, decide how to take advantage of others and even plot to take a life. Because it is like a computer it doesn't feel anything, so the emotional aspect has been an important balance that has been dismissed as unacceptable in business and battle because the need to be hard is considered important in those areas. Feelings are the higher octave of emotions and therefore operate much more in alignment with spirit, where emotions are more aligned with EGO (mental/physical world).

The changes that are occurring, very rapidly in these times, are actually making measureable changes in how brain waves and brain activity is operating. Science is seeing the shifts as they study how the brain is functioning. There are the effects of Alzheimer's that cause the brain to shrink and cease to function. There are also astounding new discoveries in the brains of infants born in this new energy. Their brains are slightly larger, much more active and the hard-wiring that has occurred at the onset of puberty is not limiting brain development as it once did. Even in the brains of many more mature people the brain activity is expanding the brain and increasing the neuro pathways.

Humanity is getting more connected to higher frequency information, to cosmic understanding and to each other through the power of the collective consciousness. This opens you up to higher levels of awareness. Because of these tremendous shifts that are increasing with the input of each Full Moon and New Moon and the down loads from the Galactic Center humanity is reaching new potential that is beyond what any scientist might have dared to consider. The biggest choice is what you personally do with all that you can create. The EGO just wants to be in control so the ideas of how to “take over the world, your world, any world” are surely becoming more intricate and often more insane. It takes major internal shifts to stay centered so that the “old ways and old ideas” do not sweep you away in a flood of fear-based ideas. There are many people who are afraid that the old values will disappear and the world will be left without direction or discipline. The new information that is pouring into the pineal and pituitary of each human is filled with the encoding of a greater Love than any can remember and it feels so true if you allow yourself to connect with it. Otherwise, it can simply feel so different that it raises the fear of new and different control being imposed from aliens or unknown forces.

LET I SAY THIS AGAIN!!! FORCE AND CONTROL HAVE LESS AND LESS INFLUENCE IN THE HIGHEER FREQUENCIES. Love knows no limit and what you are now being connected with is that unlimited Love, totally unconditional that God holds for all, FOR ALL.

If you feel that you are being punished in these times do consider old beliefs that punishment is necessary. In the desperation of the old order passing the EGO is using every ploy that it possibly can. Fear is an illusion that becomes only a faint sound or fading cloud as you raise your frequencies. Be with yourself; connect to the inner self, the Sacred self within. Feel the Love, bask in it. The more that you live in the higher frequencies the more fun life becomes. The magikal essence of your true self begins to shine forth and everything seems to have a sparkle, a golden sheen with brighter colors and a feeling of belonging to this level of awareness. This brings you to own who your truly are. As you feel loved and included, all of the old prejudices and judgments melt into nothing, the pain of ostracism lifts and blows away like clouds in sunlight--YOU ARE HOME.

Belonging, feeling Loved is the deepest longing that humanity has felt. The cruelest acts are perpetrated in the name of gaining a place in the world, of being noticed and acknowledged. Yet as the Master Book says, “What does it gain you to own the whole world and lose your own Soul?” When there is control or power over others there is nothing but hollow victory that disintegrates quickly. Love is inclusive and requires no distance from others at all, therefore, you belong, you are accepted, but that belonging cannot happen outside of you first. It is for you to wholly accept yourself and then realize to your amazement that others embrace you because you will allow it. Neither demons can deny nor angels deliver your Soul to you. Your Soul belongs to God and is a gift of Love. If you do not accept that you are real and all that is yours belongs to you nothing outside of you will make you believe it.

If suddenly, you found that everything that you could imagine is available to you in this moment, not to be taken away, you would not have to rush to grab what is yours before it could disappear or move out of reach. You would feel deep within you a firm assurance that when you require something it will be there for you. You can live in absolute peace because nothing that is for your highest good would be denied you. Anything less than the highest good would cause you to consider because it would feel uncomfortable to you. Love can no more imagine doing ill than EGO can fathom life without conflict. As you shift your consciousness to the realms of Love and make your choices to dwell there everything mystical and magikal begins to emerge in your life—small subtle things and wonderful delights are revealed (Revelation) as the old illusions fall away.

These times of transformation were never intended to be Hell. You are not required to pay a greater price than you have already paid in the illusion. LET IT BE DONE. Live Heaven on Earth. What better place to live than NOW?

Winnie the Pooh said to Piglet, “What day is it?” Piglet said, “It is today”. Pooh said, “Ah, my favorite day.” Let every day be your favorite day and every NOW the most blessed NOW that you have lived to this time. And then LIVE IT BETTER!!!

In the greatest of Love We are with you every moment and every step along the way. We are here to judge and measure. We are with you to remind you that you are Loved without condition. You are valuable and important to the whole. Your life is priceless and you are wonderful. Until We meet again in whatever manner that may be I bid you Adieu.
