Our teaching for May is “The More”. People want more, think about having more and then doubt that they can obtain more or if they do get more there has to be a price. St. Germain will speak about the greater levels of “MORE” that exist beyond the limits of Illusion. There is always More and plenty More where that came from. May’s teaching is on Wednesday May 10th.

The Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-ins for the Teachings allows you to join in to hear the teaching and ask questions at the Q&A.

If you haven’t had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

SCORPIO FULL MOON-May 10

The Full Moon occurs at 20 degrees 24 minutes Scorpio (2:42 p.m.) on the 10th. There has been a deep-seated sense of requirement for change that has been building and as the Moon reaches Full the things that are personally required to be seen, recognized and acted upon become clearer. We may find that we are required to face the results of a refusal to follow the authoritarian patterns of an aggressive society.

Mercury stationed direct at 24 degrees 15 minutes Aries (9:32 a.m.) on May 3rd. It is separated from Uranus by more than one degree and thus the inspiration of progressive thoughts and creative potential continues through the coming weeks as Mercury retraces its retrograde path to reconnect with the point where the retrograde began at 4 degrees 47 minutes Taurus on April 9th. While Mercury returns to the point where the retrograde began we are given the opportunity to consider what we might have learned during the rest time that is granted by any retrograde. In the Full Moon chart the empowering energy of the Sun trine Pluto brings a grounding effect that helps us to deal with the upheaval of the challenging Saturn-Chiron square and the polarizing action of Jupiter opposing Pallas Athene. There is also the influence of a cardinal T-square where Pluto and Juno in Capricorn squares Jupiter in Libra and Pallas Athene in Aries. All of these aspects are building energy to support the changes that are being required for the Earth to move out of the old limitations and into a clear new level of understanding. The cleansing power of Saturn and Chiron will aid in the revealing of what has been hidden right in plain sight, but no one has wanted to look. The T-square feeds energy into the sign of Cancer, home and family, in the Full Moon chart and draws attention to what this country is all about as a Cancer nation. The value of sharing is not about giving up what belongs to us, but choosing to include others in our lives. The fear of not enough is being brought up in every area of life and the planets are potentially sweeping away the Illusions of separation as quickly as possible.

Alchemical Pluto, ruler of Scorpio and lord of the lunation, is a significant influence on the future potentials being set in motion with this Full Moon. Pluto’s conjoining with Juno continues to bring unrest with alliances that once seemed stable, due to increasing dissatisfaction with as underlying inequality and injustice. (St. Germain always reminds us that nothing in these times is as it seems. Reaction to outward appearances just pulls us into unnecessary conflicts.) It is vital that each person remember that our freedom begins within. We are not bound by the dictates of society when it demands that we give up our individuality to causes that do not support the good of all.

We must note that Mars is transiting Gemini and bringing pressure to bear on Donald Trump’s Sun sign, opposing his Moon in Sagittarius. Mars squaring Neptune in Pisces tends to increase the tendency to nebulous communication and misunderstandings. With the feisty Uranus/Mercury conjunction verbal fireworks can continue to amplify and clouds of illusion intensify.

We are called to constantly be sure that we have all of the facts and know what we are talking about, because the trend to speaking without the knowledge to back it up is epidemic.

GEMINI NEW MOON-May 26

The New Moon occurs at 12:44 p.m. at 4 degrees 46 minutes of Gemini, stimulating new ideas that may not be met with the full approval of others. The planets will bring emotional unpredictability; the explosive tendency of repressed reactions and basic, often irrational emotions. This is reinforced by two challenging configurations found in the New Moon chart: a Yod (Jupiter in Libra quincunx Mercury in Taurus and Neptune in Pisces) and a t-square (Pluto-Juno in Capricorn at the apex, squaring Jupiter in Libra and Venus-Pallas Athene in Aries) Jupiter's involvement in both the yod and the t-square affirms that we will be working to expand our vision of what is possible throughout the next four weeks.

These two planetary patterns provide motivation for us to move beyond the confines of the Illusion and enable us to seek a worldview that is more in alignment with our soul's perspective. Venus has now moved to join Pallas Athene in the t-square that was prominent in the Full Moon chart. The addition of another feminine planet move women's rights and advocacy to the foreground of this lunation.

The planets continue to put us on notice about the cosmic changes that are occurring and all of the transitions and translations that are affecting the whole Earth. These changes are showing us that no matter how hard we try, control is slipping through our fingers. Those who believe that they are in control are missing some very important points that are becoming obvious in the heavens. Intellectual decisions activate that old saying, "Man plans and God laughs". There is still a lot of strutting and preening on the stage of the world, but unless there is a willingness to give up what is truly important these changes will continue. Our free will is not how to stop things, but how to flow with where they take us.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

When you are caught in paradox or snared in confusion, know that you are in the midst of transition from what was to what will be. To turn transition into transformation, gain balance by flowing with the elements of nature ... gain strength by building character. To turn transition into transcendence, gain perspective by flowing with the challenge and complexity of your dreams ... gain power by touching and being touched by the light of your vision. Thus you will find a beautiful reverence and a majestic radiance. Embrace new truth but not too tightly. ~ Lazaris Underlying Truth, 1995, The Year of Vision

Truth exists in all things. Light exists in all things. There is true Darkness and there is false darkness. The true Darkness is filled with wonder and beauty. The false darkness is an Illusion filled with all of the things that humanity has been taught to fear. Feel within yourself and find the Light and its harmonious balance of true Darkness and embrace that Love. The false darkness cannot abide the Truth. —St. Germain

When Magik is owned, there are wonders that await that the spirit has wanted to share. The Magik offers the fulfillment of Life that cannot be known in the Illusion. The courage to remember the Magik as a reality of creation brings enlightenment and freedom that the mind has refused to acknowledge. – St. Germain

To Love what cannot be understood. To embrace that which is unknown. To find peace in the deep places within self when the world seems chaotic. Such is the way of Mastery and the Magik of the Ancients. –St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, do you feel depressed by what you think that you see going on in the world? What are you looking for? What would you like to see happen, in a positive way, in your life? As you pay attention to where your thoughts are going and you begin to notice what you think about in the minutes, hours or days after the events in your life occur you can begin to make correlations between the thought forms that you are holding and the physical manifestations that you attract with that focus. When you begin to make the connections between what you think and the outcomes, you can begin to change where you are directing your energy and the attraction of what you desire will start to draw things that please you rather than things that bring sorrow, anger, fear or depression.

There is a tendency to fight for space, for physical possessions and for intrinsic value like respect, Love, consideration, being heard or noticed and feeling a sense of worth. The fight builds energetic walls that prevent the very things that are most wanted from totally reaching into the life to bring positive changes. As there is more fear expressed outwardly the news and world affairs become more stressful and disturbing.

The thoughts of the mind point to what is happening outside of you and say, “How can I be peaceful when everything is in such chaos?” The truth is when the images that are held intellectually are negative there is a filter set in place that denies positive awareness from being noticed. It takes discipline to forgive focusing on what is happening out there in the Illusion, which is nothing but a mirror of what people are thinking consistently. When 51% of the people begin to put their mind on positives consistently, the collective mind begins to shift into a much more powerful place of peaceful ideas, feelings and therefore, much more positive outcomes. The desire to fight, to argue, to prove a point and the momentary energy fix that comes from the “victory of battle” spurs the mind to seek the next fight and the next. Fighting is a disease that has infected humanity for a long time. These control games are consistent all over the planet, in every society, every country and collective of people. Changing the focus from winning no matter what to peaceful achievement can start a revolution of healing the infection of war by acceptance, appreciation and interdependence that moves the current affairs on the planet from battle and destruction to coming up over the narrow perspective that the finite mind holds.

When each day brings news that is depressing there is the necessity to break the addiction to drama and find, in the depths of the inner self, joyful anticipation which is fulfilling and enlightening. We keep telling you just how powerful you are and how your realm of influence can bring changes to many lives in either positive or negative ways simply by where you are focusing your attention intellectually. Divine Law gave free will in the beginning and the energy of choice makes a big difference in the flow of the Universe. Logic has a tendency to lean toward the negative and the finite mind figures the odds, more often than not, in a measure of what will be lost rather than what will be gained in any given situation. The Master Book says, “What does it profit a man if he has the whole world and loses his own soul?” Soulful choices are based on the highest good of ALL CONCERNED and a consciousness that considers “DO NO HARM”.

Logic more often than not, narrows its vision to the minimum view of “what is in it for ME?” Power games have been a driving force of separation. Power over is a very weak and shaky platform to stand on, because the power of the Universal creation is directed to support all of creation rather than only a small portion. Whenever a choice is made, whether positive or negative, there is a moment of concern within because of the magnitude of power that is brought into play with each choice. Every thought has powerful energy. When intense emotion is added the outcome of the choice is magnified. When there is a constant attention to darker, lesser, unhappy thoughts the energy of the mind becomes entangled in that darkness and the choices become more immediately directed into the limitations of separation. IT TAKES TREMENDOUS COURAGE TO MOVE THE FOCUS TO THE CONSISTANT ENERGY PULL OF POSITIVE POWER, BECAUSE THE DARKNESS HAS SUCH GUILF. THE LIES OF ILLUSION HAVE BEEN SEEKING TO ATTRACT THE HUMAN MIND BY OFFERING SOMETHING THAT THE PERSON WANTS, MORE THAT ANYTHING, IN EXCHANGE FOR LIVING IN THE PAIN AND DARKNESS OF ENTROPHY OR SLOW DEATH. Revelation is bringing new opportunities to choose life rather than the Hellish half-life of Illusion.

Spirit doesn't have to bargain to lure humanity into Love and clarity of choice. The darkness has had to ensnare from the very beginning. Lying to self and/or others made seem like a cheap and easy way out of problems, but the eternal cost is unimaginable. When the leader of the United States says, "A government is harder to rule than a business. Government takes heart. In business, it is better not to have one." It is as though the president is making a discovery for the first time that the people of this country might want caring, compassion and consideration rather than more war. Each day more of the necessities for life are being struck down, while this presidency has the largest war budget ever. The fact that human life requires heart is overlooked in the desperate need for victory at all costs. Each person in the United States is connected to all others in the U.S. and around the world. Will you consider life as important or disposable? It is a choice of free will. What outcome do you desire?

When God created soul and then designed a vehicle called body, among the gifts that were given to the Masters that emerged was responsibility. Mind, Love, compassion, wisdom, freedom, courage, personal worth and power and a sense of oneness with the whole were also given. When choices were made to enter into separation these gifts were hidden, deep within self, by each Master along with the Magik of creation. It was not that humans no longer created, but that they were less aware of the potential and possible outcomes that they possessed before the veils of Illusion descended.

NOW out of the chaos, of the facades being removed and the masks of Illusion falling, there is the fear of discovery that is deep seated from eons of being out of touch with self fully. The anger of finding that the games that have "worked" for so long, no longer get the same effects. The misrepresentations of EGO mind are much easier to see and feel so that the deceptions of those who have counted on being able to convince others that their creations are not deceptions, but truth, are much more obvious. More and more people are discovering what the deceivers are clearly doing right in front of everyone. People are less and less likely to look the other way than before. Even those who swear that what they see in the dimness of the old ways passing is "good", are finding that they no longer can convince themselves that there is nothing wrong in actions that are designed to do harm (mentally, physically or emotionally) and mislead. The determination to be "right" at all costs, is drawing great numbers of humanity to stubbornly insist that things that they have known to be out of balance are true. The inner knowing is awakening and no one can fully deceive themselves any longer, no matter how hard they try.

In the beginning, all was created in Love with out any condition. It did not take long for there to emerge, out of the darkness which is necessary for balance, an aspect of false darkness that wanted to be equal, if not more powerful than Divine Creation. This story is told in every religion and the warnings about the serpent with the apple, about Lucifer, the bright and morning star that fell and many others versions have always been there. In the Illusion people become so comfortable with giving in to the lies that the internal alarms became more and more distant. Fear still came, but there was confusion over what to fear. Now, in Revelation, people fear each other, rather than turning within to the quiet voice of calm that has no guile, just Love. The Ancient remembering is stirring and Truth is still standing as brightly as it did in the beginning. The pillar of Light exists within each and every one, if they are willing to trust the inner knowing that only speaks of joy and Love. The voice that advises cruelty, destruction and death is the voice of separation. Comfort no longer rests only in finding those who agree with what you think, but recognizing the feelings deep within that bring a renewed sense of peace and clarity in the midst of conflict. That inner calm, that peace that passes understanding and yet rings clear as crystal in your soul is the sound of Revelation within.

When you are confronted with choices there are several ways to deal with the choice. You can pretend that the decision is not really important and avoid the outcome. We assure you that there are always equal and opposite reactions to avoiding responsibility. You can face the situation and attempt to look as though you intend to do your best, but not really mean it. If you find yourself in an intensely demanding place of choice there is the third choice which is a deep level of surrender to spirit that brings assistance, support and a clear recognition that you have given your best no matter what the outcome. Surrender means giving over to Love. There can be no martyr hood or victimization or underlying hope that someone will take the responsibility away from you. The surrender must be true. When it is, you will feel the power of your choice within as a flow of energy that feels bigger than you and yet one with all that you are.

Things are changing on all levels. It requires devotion to the Allness and clarity of what you are creating in any given moment. We are with you through every choice and outcome. You are Loved no matter what you choose, but if the choices are against the wholeness there will be outcomes for you that may not be what you thought would happen. This is not a threat, but a reminder of divine balance in all things. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
