October Newsletter

The September group “Unlocking Ancient Wisdom Within”, has information on working with the elements and elementals for those of you who are interested in ritual magik.

St. Germain will be offering a workshop on ritual magik May 24, 25, 26, 27, 2017. This workshop Witches, Magikians and Wand Carriers will be held here in the beautiful mountains of central, western Wyoming, not too far from Table Mountain, which is one of St. Germain’s special places in the world. This area is filled with sacred vortexes and is a wonderful place to feel the magik, both ancient and now. We invite you to join us in this amazing opportunity to remember the magik and rediscover yourself.

Here is are pictures of our alter for the Sirius setting ritual. It was amazing, as usual. We had five women and the power of several is awesome. Much cnage is coming out of these rituals.

My daughter called me at the beginning of Oct. and said, “When did you do the ritual about selling Donnie’s house?” Donnie is her fiancee. The house had been on the market for seven years. We did that ritual at the Sirius Rising ritual on the 23rd of July. Sarah said that the house sold on August 31st. I love Magik.

Fall Intensive

Don't forget our intensive “Embracing the Love and Magik of the New Earth”. It will be November 12-13 here at our home. We keep calling humanity to move through the chaos and calamity of Revelation and find the Sacred Space within. The Earth is changing and so are you. Will you find the Love and magik within and bring those elements to the New Earth? Respond to the call, in Love.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our October group is “Changing the Vision Within Changes the World Without”. What are you seeing when you look into yourself. Do you experience depression, doubt, anger? Where would you like things to go in these changing times? As you make an honest effort to change your vision from the inside you begin to recreate the world that you see outside. It is easier to change your perspective than to try to change everyone else's.

The group will be on October 9 at 2 PM at our home.

CD's can be purchased on the website at

Our Teaching with the Master for October is “Sacred Alchemy: Magik, Physics and Recognizing your Mastery”. Magik is the first understanding of what in the modern world is called physics. The technology of these times is amazing, but the magik of the ancients is still far more advanced than anything that this world of today can imagine, partly because you have been warned away from your own personal magik for so long. Anything that science and technology can create outwardly, you can create within.

The Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-in for the Teachings is the second Wednesday evening at 7 pm MST.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON-October 15-16

The Earth spins in space exposing us to a kaleidoscope of light, encoded with constantly changing templates of information. Each Full Moon illuminates a different polarity of the zodiac. This month we receive messages and information from Aries-Libra. This is a SuperMoon further enhanced by Uranus, Ceres and Eris in Aries, with Jupiter, Mercury and Haumea in Libra, plus a Mars/Pluto conjunction in Capricorn. We must look at how we perceive freedom and fairness, how we communicate and our ability to cooperate with others, as well as our own sense of passion and power.

Aries, as the first sign of the zodiac brings us the blessings of new beginnings and the challenges of independence. We are called to live courageously and take steps into the unknown bravely. The Moon, Uranus and the dwarf star Eris are closely conjunct in Aries activating a strong desire for recognition of our true self, innovative ideas and the necessity to reform what no longer works in all areas of our lives. Eris was discovered in 2005 catalyzed new classification of planets, was named after the Greek Goddess of Discord. As a sister of Ares the Greek God of War, Eris symbolizes the primal, warrior force of the feminine and the necessity of honoring all life forms.

Libra deals with how we deal with opposites and opposition—our capacity to respect the views and rights of others, while remaining true to ourselves. As an air sign Libra seeks to reconcile differences through negotiation rather than force. Jupiter transits Libra only once every twelve years; Haumea, a dwarf planet first sighted in 2003, only once every 283 years. Haumea was named for the Hawaiian goddess of childbirth and fertility, and its discovery symbolizes the birth of a new consciousness that recognizes both physical and metaphysical realities.

Because of their lengthy orbits, Uranus, Eris and Haumea remain within aspect of each other for several years. Uranus make five oppositions to Haumea from mid-2016 through early 2018; they last conjoined in 1962. Haumea's oppositions to Eris span late 2014 through 2018; they last conjoined in 1831, another turbulent time in history. All three planets represent awakening to new levels of understanding; Uranus forces us to think outside of the box, while Eris and Haumea remind us of the power of the feminine and the sacred interconnectedness of all creation.

Mars, the ruler of Aries and symbol of the masculine, conjoins Pluto (exact on October 19 at 15 degrees Capricorn), requiring us to evolve from conflict to cooperation. Because of Pluto's long orbit (248 years), this is the fifth of eight Mars/Pluto conjunctions in Capricorn (2008-22), each revealing how we are proceeding toward the responsible use of power and resources. Mercury at 15 degrees Libra closely squares Pluto at 15 degrees Capricorn exposing where we require to be more honest with ourselves and others. Pay attention for important insights and revelations when Mercury opposes Uranus on October 20, and Mars squares Uranus on October 28.

You are blessed with all that you require to have and all that you might need to know. This is not a guarantee of limitation, but an assurance of unlimited potential. Seek, explore, live fully and enjoy all that you are given. Let the changes lift you to new heights and delight in the view.

NEW MOON-October 30

Some may believe that we are alone, the only ones in the vastness of space, we live surrounded by star-systems, galaxies and powerful cosmic influences. Ever changing celestial configurations form the energetic architecture of the cosmos and shape the evolution of consciousness. The New Moon in Scorpio touches into the very depths of our soul and into the shadows of those things that we have attempted to hide away due to fear and/or judgment. There is always more to any situation than meets the eye and this power New Moon illuminates the inner self and brings opportunities for new beginnings in directions not imagined before. Samhain is a sacred time when the veil between human and afterlife is the most powerful. This veil is becoming thinner all of the time and those who have crossed over would gladly assist us in “seeing without (physical) eyes”.

Scorpio is the second water sign in the zodiac, so it deals with not only the depths of our own psyche, but also the ecstasy and madness of relationships. Relationships act as mirrors of the things that we might not want to look at in ourselves. We look at others and claim that they are doing things that we would never do. When this occurs it is time for personal honesty and the willingness to acknowledge not we are not and never will be perfect. Scorpio is the sign that is most associated with the darkness and what has been relegated to the shadow—the taboo, the veiled, the unresolved. We may not have any planets in Scorpio in the chart, but everyone has an eighth house and Pluto placement which details our personal prison within and the things that haunt us, as well as, our spiritual gifts and soul destiny.

The evolutionary intent of Scorpio is somewhat like alchemy, whose seven stages outline the process of transmuting one’s darkness. The word “alchemy” stems from the Arabic Al-Kemi, meaning “the Black Lands”, the name for ancient Egypt, which was famed for its fertile soil and occult knowledge. Black represents the primo materia, or base associated with lead on the physical level and with the unconscious and root chakra on the metaphysical level. Gold represents the crown chakra and the achievement of enlightenment—a purified, unisied consciousness that recognizes itself as both physical and spiritual, individual yet inseparable, whole and holy.

Mercury conjoins this New Moon, implying that how we think and communicate is ready to advance to a more conscious and heartfelt level. The mystic Messenger of the Gods represents our capacity for perceiving and sharing information, as well as the ability to recognize connections and patterns. In alchemy, Mercurius is known as the Great Transformer and is androgynous, symbolizing the union of male and female and, by analogy, the transcendence of all opposites. Mercury’s close trine to Neptune in Pisces further widens the doors of perception—heightening our intuition, broadening our compassion, and expanding our capacity for forgiveness, acceptance and trust.

We have been taught to fear what we do not understand. Fear manifests when the personal point of view is limited by bias, lack of experience or lack of education. At one time people did not know that deciduous trees naturally dropped their leaves in the fall. People who came from other lands and had not had the experience of leaves falling quickly assumed that the earth was dying and felt great fear. The totality of the Earth is experiencing the fall of the old order politically, socially and economically. It is crucial for us to understand this so that we do not get caught up in the fear that this is the end of the world”. It is vital for us to discern what we would wish to preserve and share with the future and what must be released so that planetary evolution can move forward. Life makes much more sense when we return to the consideration of natural cycles of development. We are so much more than just our mind or body. It is so much easier to let go of what was when we are aware that there is always something new waiting to move into place. In that the fear of death begins to fade away and we can accept that all change leads to new good.

We are much more receptive intuitively and spiritually in the dark. It is as though the physical and material world is set aside. We called to trust what we cannot see. In faith we are shown that we will be given new foundations to stand on or we will be helped to remember how to fly.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

New tools of creation are forged in the fires of your conviction and in the winds of your imagination. They are tempered in that waters of your love and in the earth of your commitment. Add a dash of mystery and wonder and let the magic happen. Oh, what a wonderful world you can create. –Lazaris

We are much more receptive intuitively and spiritually in the dark. It is as though the physical and material world is set aside. We called to trust what we cannot see. In faith we are shown that we will be given new foundations to stand on or we will be helped to remember how to fly. –St. Germain

Alchemy is the transmutation of lead into gold. Spiritual alchemy is changing old, leaden emotions into positive, golden feelings. You are all alchemists and magicians of high order. The more you trust, the more you believe, the more you will recognize how important alchemy is in the new becoming. –St. Germain

In the darkness are all of the pregnant possibilities of what you can create. As the veil of the shadow melts into the past, the light of the order of oneness moves into place. It has been a long time since you felt the embrace of belonging to the whole. Welcome home!—St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, we are observing the potentials for the election in the United States with great interest. It is much like watching the swells of hurricane Matthew as it gains strength in the ocean.

The Master Trump is portraying all of the traits of the patriarchal order. The two headed dragon, EGO, is speaking out of both heads and as the EGO is want to do, it is creating confusion. There is the pride in “pulling the wool” over the eyes of an “uninformed” public. Master Trump brags of his prowess in avoiding what many people see as a civic duty in paying taxes. The masses greedily look at the illusion of money that he holds before everyone and some even believe that if Master Trump wins the election he will load up planes of money and drop it for everyone to share. The Master Clinton has been buffeted by the storms of fear and prejudice that have been hurled against her for daring, as a woman, to attempt to break into the places that men have reserved for themselves.

What is emerging is the fact that there truly are no paragons of virtue anywhere. This is a planet of humans and as such the reality of both the magnificent power and flaws of humanity are being revealed everywhere. NO ONE IS PERFECT. Putting rulers and leaders on pedestals is a part of the order that is dying. No one can “save the world” unless people are willing to be a part of the salvation. Free will cannot be dismissed just because the mind decides that it isn’t important. We keep saying that no one group or person can change the world for everyone else. God created each being unique and different, not only for the delight of it, but because the uniqueness makes for wonderful creativity in each and everyone. YOU ARE NOT SHEEP TO BE HERDED BY POLITICIANS OR RULERS. You are Divine Creative Masters in your own right. Nothing is going to change outside of you until each person is willing to make changes within self, NOW.

These changes cannot be made mentally. If that were so things would be very different now. You tell yourself, “I will do things differently. I will think differently,” but nothing happens because you are talking with the EGO mind and as it listens it is causing a sense of blindness that keeps you from realizing that you are still the same. When you remember the ability within you to feel the truth of what you declare then you will actually begin to live what you say. Feeling within, focus on your desire with intension and the faith that allows you to trust yourself for the first time in life times. Not trusting anyone else does not mean that you trust yourself. It is just the confusion of the EGO mind dividing you within. When you have the courage to feel energy in your power center in the area between your heart chakra and your splenic chakra, rather than just emotional reaction, you find so much that has been waiting to be revealed inside of you that no one else could possibly give you.

So many people are reacting in fear to what the political candidates are saying or not saying. The emotions are running high and mob mind is the furthest from sanity anyone can get. There is a lot of energy, though it is chaotic, and it feeds those who believe that they must take power away from others to be powerful.

Truth is felt heart fully and soulfully. Once you can focus within yourself you begin to recognize the difference in the feeling between the anger, fear and frustration of the EGO mind that wants to argue or fight about most everything and the sense of peaceful foundation in the area of the solar plexus that comes from being connected to Spirit.

Spirit has no reason to fight about anything. Wars are aspects of the Illusion fought to prove that someone is right no matter what, to take something that belongs to another or just to exercise power over to feel better for a moment. Victories don't last long in war because the next war must be fought to keep the distraction going.

Have you considered what is going on while everyone is distracted by the election? Are you paying nearly as much attention to your own health and well-being, the positive things that are happening in your life or how much good there is in the world or are you looking at life through a dark window of gloom and doom?

When people decide that they know what is going on and what the outcome is going to be and it probably will be bad, they create those outcomes. Then the EGO says, "See I was right! Everything is falling apart" and for them that is the outcome that they will hold to.

The election is an out-picturing of what humanity is creating. Whatever you say about your life and say it and say it and say it; you're right. No matter which candidate might win things will not necessarily get a great deal better right away because no matter who is in charge they must cooperate with other politicians. And who is to say truly that the country is really in such a bad place. Many things have improved vastly over the last eight years. Master Trump may believe that he can buy the country and make it to his wishes, but there are still extenuating circumstances that even he cannot foresee. Hatred and fear mongering, threats to the people of the United States and those around the world will not bring things to a positive outcome.

These times on the Earth are some of the most powerful changes that have ever occurred and humanity is being required to look at the truth rather than accepting the shadows of the Illusion as real. Learning to feel the connection to God that exists within each being is far more important than winning another war that only benefits a few and harms many more. It is time to consider the compassion that lives within each person, within you, and live that in your own life. When you touch the power of kindness and love within yourself, it is as though a veil is pulled aside and you see so much that you did not even know existed before. As the masks of Illusion are falling things are not as they have appeared to be. You are shining ones that have forgotten your divine inheritance and abilities. It is not about who is the most cruel and intimidating winning the election or any war, but who has the greater vision of new potential for unity and harmony on the planet.

I say again, "This is the most important election the Earth has known to these times". Make your choices not from the violent places of power over others (because the others could be you), but from a soulful intension that everyone can benefit from new perspectives and heart felt at-one-ment.

We send our blessing and hold prayerful intensions that every heart and soul on Earth will be touched in Love and feel the embrace of the unconditional Love of God supporting all as divinely created and empowered beings. There is so much help for you if you will only allow it, rather than fearing what you have forgotten in the depths of the Illusion. The Masters, the Ancients, the Magik of long, long ago and the emerging renewal of spiritual (not religious), but spiritual awareness returning to all. We honor you and appreciate your uniqueness. We hold you in Love. I remain in all times your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
