We got our wands and Oh! how amazing they are. Mine came on August 2 and Dorian's on the 4th. They actually feel just as we might imagine Harry Potter's wand felt. When my wand arrived at the post office I could feel the electricity from it through the box. After I opened the box all I had to do was think of the wand and I would get chills. The longer I have it the more Love I feel from it. It truly is a companion and it does feel as though the wand has my best interest at heart. I laughed and said that I wondered if any sensitive people felt the wand, as it moved on its way to me across the country, and wondered just what was in the box.

Dorian's is a much stronger energy than mine. Mine feels very gentle, yet powerful. Dorian's feels as though it is making a statement with each contact. Dorian's looks purple in most light and mahogany in some light. Her wand is Merlin Purple Heart which is the name that the wand maker gave it.

My daughter and her fiancee came to spend a couple of weeks and be here for my birthday. I decided several years ago that it is appropriate for me to celebrate as many days as I am years old each year. This year I will get to celebrate 74 days. Yea!!

Beginning in January 2016 St. Germain will be teaching about the understanding and application of Spiritual Alchemy. Each Teaching will move us further into a deeper recognition of who we truly are and how to apply spiritual values to our "every day" lives. LIVE THE MAGIK!!

Fall Intensive

Don't forget our intensive "Embracing the Love and Magik of the New Earth". It will be November 12-13 here at our home. We keep calling humanity to move through the chaos and calamity of Revelation and find the Sacred Space within. The Earth is changing and so are you. Will you find the Love and magik within and bring those elements to the New Earth? Respond to the call, in Love.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

Our September group is “Unlocking Ancient Wisdom Within”. The more the magik awakens on the planet the more we discover about who we are and what on earth we are here for. Magik is like an internal spring of joy and giggles. Wisdom is not old, stale or serious. It liberates us to live our best self now. Forgiving the beliefs that have kept us away from the truth allows us to progressively discover more of our real self. The group will be on September 11 at 2 PM at our home.

CD's can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2016 Groups

Our Teaching with the Master for September is “Sacred Alchemy: Stepping from Illusion into Reality; Discovery of Self”. The Illusion was created to prevent humanity from progressing too far. The limits and fears of “shadow truth” have kept us huddled in smallness. The courage to step into new, bigger, more beautiful creations brings a dawning awareness of who we truly are. In order to experience reality, we are required to feel how reality feels. The experience of our true self is beyond emotions. It is astounding.

The call-in for the Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-in for the Q & A is the fourth Wednesday evening at 7 pm MST.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON VIRGO-Solar Eclipse-September 1

Every six months the Sun, Moon and Earth align precisely enough to form an eclipse causing a more intensified download of cosmic information. As the Moon temporarily blocks the flow of solar radiation, an upgrade and reboot of consciousness can occur. Solar eclipses mark major endings and beginnings, and form close to the same degree every nineteen years. Where the eclipse falls in our natal chart defines the area of our life where we are reaching completion and must move on to the next level of awareness and discovery. On September 1, 1997, there was a solar eclipse at 9 degrees 39 Virgo, very close to the degree of this eclipse. You might consider where you were and what you were doing at that time in your life. This is an annular eclipse where a very narrow ring of the Sun will remain visible and it will only be visible in Africa and parts of the Middle East. However, the effects of the eclipse will be felt worldwide.

This eclipse squares Saturn and opposes Neptune, magnifying the energy of their upcoming third exact square on September 10 at 10 degrees Sagittarius-Pisces. Squares mark a point where we must make a change in perception and direction, which is even stronger at this time. Saturn's domain is the world of matter, the physical realities of time and space, that require that we honor limits and boundaries, commitments and consequences. Neptune rules the realm of spirit, metaphysical realities or intuition and imagination, compassion and unity consciousness that prevail beyond the reaches of our five senses and scientific instrumentation. These planets' waning square exposes the high price that we pay for giving our power away to fallacies and addictions, advising us that in order to manifest our dreams, we have to be willing to release all remnants of guilt and blame, denial and dogmatism, martyrdom and victimization.

Saturn-Neptune aspects bring us to the ultimate realization that we must trust ourself, live by our own inner authority and forgive the fear-based beliefs stemming from childhood and gender programming, religious and educational background, cultural conditioning and media exposure. In other words, it is time to let go of role playing and discover and live who we truly are. Saturn-Neptune last conjoined in 1989, squared each other in 1998-99 and opposed in 2006-07. What were your choices then? Where are you called to be in complete integrity and alignment with your soul intentions now?

The Sun, Moon, North Node, Jupiter, and Mercury are all in Virgo, signaling that what we need to change most of all is our materialistic and mechanistic view of reality. Virgo is epitomized by the Virgin, which in pre-Christian times signified completeness, as well as integration of body and soul, head and heart. Mercury, the traditional ruler of Virgo, stations retrograde on August 30 at 29 degrees Virgo and , as result, remains in Virgo from July 30 to October 7, this gives us extra time to consider vitally important symptoms, feelings and hunches and release what no longer works in our life and what may have become dysfunctional. Mercury's discerning influence is further heightened by its conjunction with Jupiter only a few hours after this eclipse. We are called to explore expanded perspectives and see ourselves as "all of one piece" rather than a series of compartments or parts that are separate from each other. Jupiter enters Libra on September 9 where it will remain until October 10, 2017, prompting more balanced relationships and greater social justice and peace in the world.

It is important to remember that when we ask "What does God want of me?" , we are co-creators with God on earth. So look within and feel into what your own soul and heart desire and God will smile on the creation.

FULL MOON PISCES-Lunar Eclipse-September 16

Eclipses give us seven league boots when it comes to personal progress. While solar eclipses expand our perspective and our position in the world, Lunar eclipses active our subconscious and emotional levels exposing motivations that have been kept just below the surface. During a lunar eclipse the light between the Moon and earth is dimmed for a while; matrices are more readily dissolved and reconfigured, bringing a recalibration of consciousness. This is a penumbral eclipse where the Moon passes through the edge rather than the center of the Earth's shadow, but the electromagnetic and gravitational pulls remain as strong as ever. We are being faced with pivotal choices.

This Full Moon/lunar eclipse in Pisces-Virgo induces us to heal the disconnect between spirit and matter, masculine and feminine, head and heart. Just as the previous eclipse formed a dynamic t-square, so does this one—with Mars and Chiron in place of Saturn and Neptune. Mars at 23 degrees of Sagittarius holds the apex point (squaring the Sun in Virgo as well as the Moon-Chiron conjunction in Pisces), pointing toward the central issue facing humanity at this time; to expand our view of reality from duality to unity, from living focused on limitations—fear, scarcity, isolation to living the greater truths of Love, plenty and interdependence. Mars represents our personal will and courage, what moves us to assertion and action, as well as aggression and destruction. At its highest and best Mars symbolizes the divine masculine and sacred warrior.

Chiron teaches us that while we learn from pain, we heal through Love; its conjunction with the Moon in Pisces and square to Mars support our recovery from the wounds of patriarchal beliefs, which have wielded terror, shame, and guilt as weapons of mass deception, dominating and denigrating the sanctity of the body, the feminine and the Earth. As we turn to our spiritual connection within we begin to realize that the blending of all things brings a positive outcome, where separation, fear and judgment keep us from finding our true self and living our best life. In this we return to the wholeness and holiness of living Heaven on Earth. The Hell of Illusion is breaking apart and being dismantled in many different ways.

Just after the eclipse two planets station and turn direct. Mercury turns direct at 15 degrees Virgo on September 21 and Pluto returns to forward motion on September 26 at 15 degrees Capricorn, keeping the winged messenger and the Lord of the Underworld within 5 degrees of a trine to each other from September 13 through the end of September. Uranus's trine to Mars on September 17 (24 degrees Aries-Sagittarius) and opposition to Venus at 24 degrees Libra on September 18 provides additional boosts, making it easier for us to spot new opportunities and follow our intuition in new directions.

All of September, Jupiter remains close to the Super Galactic Center (SGC) located at 2 degrees 03 minutes Libra (exact on September 18) magnifying an immense concentration of stellar intelligence streaming from trillions of suns. The SGC is a colossal Black Hole around which our Milky Way and many other galaxies revolve. Electromagnetic energy from the SGC acts as a spiritual beacon, triggering a deep, cellular remembrance of our cosmic origins and impelling us to embody the destiny encoded in our birth charts.

We are reminded that in these times of change, that what is important is not so much what you have on the outside glittering in the light, but what is on the inside that illuminates the darkness.

NEW MOON LIBRA-September 30-October 1

The New Moon always causes us to look within and discover where we are in our internal journey and where we desire to take the next step that changes what our outer world looks like. In Libra our attention is drawn to relationships and our balance between connection with others and personal freedom. The first six signs of the zodiac pertain to our personal growth and recognition of who we are. The seventh sign opens the door to interpersonal relationship and our involvement with others, which requires new levels of openness and vulnerability. We must pay attention to our own inner yin/yang balance within without losing our attunement to others or the rhythm of life.

The Libra scales remind us that opposites attract in order to maintain the balance in life. We have been taught to look outside of ourselves for completion, but we must find our own inner stability in order to keep harmony from the inside out. In many instances life is a dichotomy rather than an exact opposite. If we are convinced that things must come to perfect balance, we can live in disappointment a lot of the time. The more strongly we have disowned or denied parts of ourselves the more that we seek to find those aspects in others for fulfillment or equally deny them in the partner.

Venus, traditional ruler of Libra, is in Scorpio which causes us to delve into our shadow self and find the patterns that prevent us from self-acceptance. While desperately seeking societal acceptance from others, humanity is becoming sick of not being allowed to be who they really are. So much of the mental imbalances that are causing violence and disaster arise from the shadow side of self that is regarded as unacceptable for any number of reasons. People are forced into hiding while attempting to function as normal in their everyday life. Judgment around gender, parental influence, education, cultural or religious conditioning, as well as, media programming set often impossible standards, especially for the youth of the world. Men who are sensitive are forced to harden their hearts while women are presented as the “weaker sex” and must live with repression of their strength and character.

Jupiter cojoins the New Moon, encouraging us to reexamine the roles we have been taught to play and our beliefs about relationship—one of the most powerful of these is that men are supposed to take care of women. That erroneous belief has caused women to remain victims to whatever a man might think “taking care” means. It could mean that a woman is trapped in a relationship where money is considered the measure of “taking care”, but love and genuine affection are missing. It could mean that the woman is considered to be a slave and therefore is cared for as an animal or servant, but not as a human being. A relationship that provides the potential for safety in expressing emotions, deep feelings, fears and personal requirements without criticism or disdain from either partner can be a gift within itself. To live in a relationship where one must hide how they feel or who they are is becoming less acceptable with each passing tick of the cosmic clock. Neptune, the higher octave of Venus closely trines Venus and quincunxes this New Moon, reminding us that a soul mate is not necessarily someone that we will live with happily ever after, but someone who awakens us to our own soul, challenging us to do the difficult process of Self Discovery.

Every relationship begins with how we relate to ourselves. The misconception that other people are supposed to “make us happy”, “fulfill our dreams” or “give us a life” has brought progressively more sadness, disappointment and discontent. We have everything that we require. When we stop looking somewhere else we can have the life we have been looking for complete with a fulfilling relationship with someone who has also found that they make their own happiness by choice.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

Humanity is feeling the sickness of not being allowed to be themselves. You can heal the sickness starting with a loving appreciation of yourself, rather than judgmental scrutiny to find fault. As you choose to bless yourself and the world, consistently, with deep and abiding love, everything and everyone in your life responds like flowers to sunlight.

You are so powerful in the light of your true self. You are a co-creator with God. You are a map maker for the becoming and a way shower, not by telling others where to go, but by courageously leading the way.

You are the thought in the mind of God. You are the vision in the eyes of God. You are the breath in the spirit of God. You are the love in the heart of God. Everything that God is you are. God is Love.

Physics is just another name for magik, but in the beginning magik was the first name of creation. It is all the use of energy in its truest form. The name of the energy is Love. You are the Magikian.

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, words are very powerful and humanity has no idea what they can do with words for good or negative.

People have become so mesmerized by media content that they really do not hear or see what is there before them. When you take the time to read the whole sentence or paragraph rather than scan reading and assuming that you know what is there, you will begin to be surprised and even appalled at what you are seeing. To discover that your eyes did deceive you and you were not aware can set you to wonder how many things you have taken at “face value” when there was so much more to the content, whether what you missed was something that would help you understand better or lead you into a blind alley of misconceptions.

NOTHING IS AS IT APPEARS TO BE. It is passed time to forgive accepting what you see, hear, taste, touch or smell as exactly what it seems to be. PAY ATTENTION. Drugs (street and/or prescription), alcohol, anger, fear or just plain disinterest numb the centers of awareness and prevent clarity in a time when being clear is more vital than ever. You hear it said that it is time to wake up and yet there are more substances to blind, deafen and misdirect than ever. Some people have developed insomnia in the sheer fear that they do not dare rest lest they lose control in some manner. Being the “sentinel” in your own life denies any point of deep rest because of an exaggerated lack of trust of anything or anyone but self—“I have to do this all by myself”. “No one can care for me the right way, but me”. That vast sense of isolation is terrifying. The EGO just runs the same litanies of lack over and over inside of you until you believe that you are not safe, there is no protection and you cannot trust anyone, including, after a while, yourself.

Then the EGO asks, “How do I stop this?” Regimentation does not create safety. Walls can be climbed, locks can be broken, guns more often kill the people who believed that they would be safe with the talisman of a gun.

People who say that they fear magik because it is “evil” often are totally careless with the words that they speak or any consideration of the outcome of what they have said. There is a little difference between a spell and a prayer, but not a lot. Prayers are expressions of intentions for self and others and often ask for God to do something about the situation to stop what is going on. Actually, spells are also considerations of what is occurring in your own life or the lives of others, but spells require careful thought and assessment in order to clearly ask without interference in the free will of others. Spells are often made in rhyme, because the cadence of rhyming creates a feeling of flow and the rhyme feels like music, which brings a sense of joy and humor to what could otherwise be altogether too serious. Also, creating a rhyme causes one to feel into the quest and all that it entails, rather than just saying any words that cross the mind.

Gossip is inspired by fear, cruelty, boredom and envy. When people are dissatisfied with themselves they are much more prone to criticize, blame or gossip as a way to momentarily relieve the pain of their judgment against themselves. Right now on this ball people are SICK OF NOT BEING ALLOWED TO BE THEMSELVES. Being yourself comes from a deep awareness that you are a divine, creative Master. Being yourself is not the right to be as destructive as possible, but the recognition that as you truly know yourself you would not dream of belittling another soul, no matter what. Fighting back is the childish resolution of the EGO. The EGO has made the rule that if you will not fight you are a coward. (more cruel words, thoughtlessly thrown about). Jesus was not a fighter nor did he stir wrath among people. Jesus said, “Turn the other cheek and forgive seventy times seven”. Will those who say they follow the Master completely, look within themselves and find the compassion to forgive and allow, rather than attempt to destroy any and all who do not agree with them?

Words start wars, but words wisely chosen in truth and Love, can also end conflict. Which choices will you make? When the decision is for peaceful outcomes, peace begins to fill the Sacred Space within and there is greater ability to live in the power of that peacefulness. When the choices are constantly for stirring fear and trouble, for telling untruths and painting any picture darker than it really is there is an encroaching soul sickness that brings disease to heart, body and mind. The Master book says, "Heap coals of fire upon thy enemy's head with Love". When there is a clear understanding that no one can fake Love, then this statement cannot be interpreted as "If I pretend to love those who seek to injure me, then the world will think I am a better person than they are". The more that the old order is breaking apart the more the masks and facades of Illusion are collapsing. Pretending to be something that you are not or do not intend to be will be revealed more quickly with each day that passes.

People have come to believe that they can do anything that they wish and then say, "I'm sorry" and everything will be alright. Blatant lies are being told and then those who have told them apologize, often with thinly veiled sarcasm rather than real regret. More often than not the regret is that they got caught rather than that they actually caused harm.

It is time for every human being to begin to consider what the meaning of what they are saying is. You can speak words in any language and they may mean several different things. How do the words that you are saying feel to you? Do those words make you angry? Do they add to the wounds that you carry? Are those words intended to do harm or cause someone else to suffer because you are suffering? The more that there is an attempt to make others hurt the bigger the pain for the one who is creating the pain to begin with. Killing the enemy does not stop the pain!! Getting back at someone just magnifies the injustices. It takes far more courage to Love than it does to hate. I will repeat that again. IT TAKES FAR MORE COURAGE TO LOVE THAN IT DOES TO HATE!!!

There are so many examples of inappropriate words each time that you turn on your television or open your computer. You can be inundated with angry, conflicted words that invite you to take sides. When will you stop the war within by refusing to be swept away in the swirling river of words that have not been examined to feel if they bring sadness and guilt, do they inspire conflict or are you inspired by their truth. Have you stopped to feel within yourself to discover; are these words soothing to my soul or do they feel like acid in my belly? Are you living clearly in the awareness of inner understanding or are you just following the mob, caught in the blood-lust of hatred? Do you know what you stand for or are you out of control because of what you think you are hearing?

BELOVED MASTERS IT IS TIME TO BE STILL AND LISTEN WITHIN TO FIND THE CLEAR VOICE OF REASON THAT SPEAKS IN UNCONDITIONAL LOVE!!

No one wants to be considered insane, but when the mind is not connected to the spirit the outcome is more like a volcanic eruption of old corrupted emotions. The wounds of separation cannot be healed by repeating the same injustices again. The truth is there are no sides because everyone is a part of everything that is happening on the planet, no matter what. There are "good" people who have allowed themselves to abandon their person ethic and there are "bad" people who have good ideas, but misdirected application. Snap judgments are deadly in these times.

Hitler started out by demeaning certain people, hinting that they were unacceptable and then he suggested that those people should be watched to make sure that they were not doing the wrong thing. Soon he suggested that they should be gathered up and put away because they did not support what he was saying. Quietly they were taken away and destroyed. It could apply to anyone or any group. When hatred leads one never knows where it may turn next. What are you broadcasting out into the world? Fear attracts fear and Love attracts love. Mastery is to clear the life of looking for faults and flaws and begin to look for something good in each and everyone. Mastery is looking for the best in yourself and realizing that as you do this, others begin to look better to you. If you look at the world expecting to see terrible things you will find them. If you chose to find beauty and compassion the filters of illusion will begin to fade and you will find that the earth is truly improving and up spiraling. Where is your own personal focus? Love's only source is choice. You create the world that you live in. You cannot design the world for all.

Until we meet again in the greatest of Love We are with you. I remain constantly your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain. I bid you adieu!
