

Happy Valentine's Day!!

We have had a most interesting winter so far. More snow than I have seen since I moved to Wyoming and more weather down around zero and below. We had a foot of snow on Christmas Eve and we are currently having much more snow as I am writing the newsletter.

Dorian is very excited because for the first time since we moved into our country home we have enough snow for her to go cross-country skiing on our land. She went out and made trails so that today it will be much easier skiing. Hope to get some pictures of her having fun.

At least with all this snow we may get our reservoirs filled up again. It's been a five year drought.

Don't worry Georgia. Droughts do end and they can end well.

I just want to thank all of you who are offering words of advice, praise and contributions for our newsletter. I really appreciate hearing from you. It's nice to know you care.

AS A SPECIAL THANKS I AM OFFERING $20 OFF ON A TWO HOUR ST. GERMAIN SESSION UNTIL FEBRUARY 15TH.

www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/channel.html

I have included some of the offerings that subscribers have shared with me this month.

St. Germain has talked a lot lately about walking to the edge of your comfort zone and stretching to allow more good into your life.

I have had a picture of a white, Cadillac Escalade on my vision board for almost a year now. The second week in January I made my dream come true. The car dealership called and said they had a white 2005 Escalade and would I want to drive it. I went right down, drove it and it was just what I wanted and more. We did the math on a loan and it didn't work out. I said I wasn't concerned because when my car comes along everything will work out. The salesman said he had a silver Escalade. I said, "No, I want a white one, I can wait". He said that they had another white 2005 at another dealership and he would go get it so that I could drive it. He called the dealer and a woman had just looked at the car and said she would be back in thirty minutes. So we waited. I knew that if it was my car she wouldn't take it. The salesman called back and she had said she didn't want the car, so I am now the proud owner of a Cadillac.

I love the color. "Isn't that just like a woman?" All the whistles and bells are fun, too. I will still haul hay for the deer in the back of my car and have fun in it. It just happens to have the name Cadillac on the back end.

One of the nicest parts of all of this is I could take the picture of the Cadillac off of my vision board, put up a gratitude statement and make room for the next wonderful dream to come true. If you haven't tried a vision board they really work.

The next dream is to go to Hawaii for two weeks in September. Jach Pursel, who channels Lazaris, will be offering two week end events back to back on Maui. I love take a busman's holiday and go to see someone else channel. I truly feel that the quality of Lazaris information is powerful, loving and right on. Jach has been channeling Lazaris for well over thirty years.

Our next streaming evening will be February 27. Check our website for title and subject matter. www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/live-events.html

CD's and DVD's of the January evening "Where Do We Go from Here?" are now available. CD's are $30 per set and the DVD is $45. www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/evenings.html

Our February group is our Valentine's celebration with the Goddesses Isis, Artemes and Kwan Yin. The title is "Taking Love Beyond Your Limits". CD's will be available. www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2008groups.html

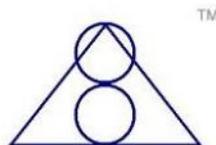

CD's of the January group "A Collective Crisis of Consciousness: The Call to Come Home to Self" are now available for $25 per set. www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2008groups.html

We are planning to do our spring intensive in Lander, Wyoming on April 26-27 and in San Diego, CA on June 6-7. "Practical Magik: A Blending of Earth and the Wonder Realms" takes us to the place we remember as safe. When we were children we believed in fairies and saw into the Wonder Realms. As life's demands encroached and the fear of those who had forgotten the Magik closed the door, we lost much of our faith in the Wonder. St. Germain takes us to those places where the edges of the mundane and the Magikal touch. He shows us how we can remember the delight of belonging. The magik never died or went away. We just closed our minds and our eyes because we didn't understand.

Come, awaken, remember—the love, the mystery, the BELONGING!

Both intensives will be $250 for the two day workshop. Lander's deadline will be April 5th. After that the cost will be $300.

San Diego's deadline is May 17th. We will have more details about San Diego in the March issue.

BioGenesis® - Modern Tools,
Eternal Technology™

By Delores DeVore;
ddevore@mindspring.com

"We speak of regeneration of the most basic element within each individual—the Light of Creation. As this Light returns to the lives on Earth, all things are made possible." –Ascended Master Lantos

It was only a few months ago that I learned about the BioGenesis Tools – Tools for Expansion. I have found these tools to be exceptional in their ability to allow us to heal and restore harmony and balance to our environment.

Each month I will discuss a couple of different tools, so that you can begin to understand how they work and how you can use them for your benefit.

This month we will continue our discussion of the Wheels of Genesis.

The Red Rings – Progress can be used to enhance our food by placing the ring above or below the flame on the stove. It also can be worn to balance high blood pressure as well as other blood disorders. The Red Rings – Transformation – (has a 30 minute time limit when wearing), can be used if poisons have been introduced to the body. This may include insect bites, inoculations, vaccinations and allergy attacks. The Red Rings – Regeneration – will help with bad dreams and nightmares. Place under the pillow until the bad dreams stop, then remove the ring.

The Aqua Blue Wheels are good for children. They help reduce the effects of infection. The Aqua – progress wheel awakens the perceptions of the Higher Octaves; imparts intellectual and mental development. It also removes congestion, purifies and cleanses the lymph system and builds self-reliance. The Aqua Transformation wheel – functions like a guardian angel, protecting and guiding the development of the earthly children. Angels and Beings of Light offer assistance to one with this Wheel and miraculous capabilities are unlocked. Promotes balance of the spiritual energies within the physical form and also removes congestion. The Aqua Regeneration wheel offers Angelic assistance of preservation and protection. It balances overly sensitive emotions or feelings of insecurity or inferiority.

The Dark Blue Wheels offer stability. The Progress wheel promotes the blossoming of latent faculties and aids in discovering and fulfilling the personal destiny of the individual. It brings peace, tranquility and faith in oneself and balances a hot brain. The Transformation wheel uncovers in the morning what is concealed during the night. This wheel lifts the veil of ignorance to reveal the magnificent nature within. With this awareness grows understanding and friendliness. Courage is promoted as is devotion to the path of love. Use this wheel to help to lighten the burden of day to day responsibilities. Helps to restore harmony to head diseases and discomfort to the body. The regeneration wheel will help to clarified one's path of action. Wisdom is gained and the individual is freed from the binding influence of human attachment.

I was guided to create different patterns using the wheels and you can see some of my designs at <http://www.sound-works.biz/wheels.html>. Over the past year, Molly has channeled more information about the BioGenesis Tools. These channelings are available for sale by going to <http://www.sound-works.biz/channelings.html>

I just returned from a BioGenesis class over the weekend. They made a new announcement - an Acceleration Program. A class in Bolder, CO, where you will sit in a chair and you and your cells experience the LIGHT. There is not much information at this time, but the program starts in March and run for 3 days. Keep checking their website www.biogenesis.us for the details.

This is the last article on the BioGenesis Tools at this time. If you want to know more about these tools, then attend a free seminar that the people of BioGenesis hold in cities all over the world or contact me at ddevore@mindspring.com

"I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality.

I refuse to accept the cynical notion that nation after nation must spiral down a militaristic stairway into the hell of nuclear annihilation.

I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality. This is why right, temporarily defeated, is stronger than evil triumphant.

I believe that even amid today's mortar bursts and whining bullets, there is still hope for a brighter tomorrow.

I believe that wounded justice, lying prostrate on the blood-flowing streets of our nations, can be lifted from this dust of shame to reign supreme among the children of men.

I have the audacity to believe that peoples everywhere can have three meals a day for their bodies, education and culture for their minds, and dignity, equality, and freedom for their spirits.

I believe that what self-centered men have torn down, men other-centered can build up.

I still believe that one day mankind will bow before the altars of God and be crowned triumphant over war and bloodshed and nonviolent redemptive goodwill proclaimed the rule of the land.

And the lion and the lamb shall lie down together, and every man shall sit under his own vine and fig tree, and none shall be afraid.

I still believe that we shall overcome."

PEACE TO ALL!

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON

The New Moon in February has a packed house , with Chiron, Mercury, Moon, Sun, Neptune, Vesta and North Node of the Moon all in Aquarius. Little ones born on the 6-7 of February will certainly hold the light of the New Age in their energy field, as the soul chooses this blue print of the astrological gateway to enter the Earth plane.

Aquarius is the sign of the humanitarian, the philanthropist who assists others to achieve their desires—monetarily, with wisdom and advice or general morale support.

The North Node in Aquarius brings a struggle between self-interest and service to mankind. Chiron in Aquarius brings a crisis in being grounded, over existing on the Earth in a balanced way. The nature is highly electrical. Vesta is associated with love and warmth of heart and soul. She is the Goddess that tends the sacred fires of the alter of honor to God, therefore she adds a sense of grounding to this February mix.

This is a New Moon eclipse. Eclipses always bring electromagnetic interruptions and gravitational force increases, matrixes disintegrate, new channels are opened and consciousness in general is reformed. This is a strong indicator of how the paradigms are shifting on the planet and aspects such as this just hasten the changes and redirect collective thought.

(The January St. Germain group is titled “Collective Crisis of Consciousness: A Call to Come Home to Self”) Put all of this energy into Aquarius and it amps up the electrical frequency that much more.

Jupiter and Venus are conjoined in Capricorn to bring a greater sense of humanitarianism and beneficence to the elections. Campaign strategy and truthful statements about what is really going on, both with the candidate and the world in general will be encouraged by these aspects. Pluto’s entrance into Capricorn on January 20, just as the political scene is intensifying will also, require much more honesty in this election. Pluto is “the revealer” and therefore as it makes its way through Capricorn all of the ploys and strategies of “the Good Ol’ Boys (and now the Good Ol’ Girls are joining) Club” will be put into the spotlight. Any thing that has been done in secret, behind closed doors to keep the public in the dark will be clearly shown to all over the next sixteen years as Pluto cruises through Capricorn. This election could very well be the beginning of the end of “How it was”.

The Aquarian Water-Bearer calls for equality of gender, race, religion, stratum of society and age. We will ultimately recognize that though each person is “divinely unique” we are all connected by soul in unity.

One of the traits of Uranus, ruler of Aquarius, is rebellion. All are being lead to recognize the difference between control and balance, conflict and peace. Rebellion without a clear understanding of why, can just create the same type of reactions that frustrate us so with teenagers. Mature responses, on the part of as much of the populous as possible, to the changes that are occurring, will assist the whole planet to escalate into the new consciousness with much less crisis and/or war.

Chiron is closely conjunct Mercury at this Solar Eclipse. Communication is required to operate on a much higher level. Even those who would not normally think in refined channels will find themselves speaking about subjects that could amaze them. It is time for the visionaries to convene their thoughts and ideas and truly listen to what each one is saying.

The Sabian Symbol for this New Moon is “A man’s secret motives are being revealed, publicly unmasked; the difficulty for the modern individual to keep secret his private past or his deeper motives”. How appropriate! We must now face the Truth, Live True Lives and share our greater, deeper Truth!! You are making a difference. What kind of difference would you make? Will you clean up the stream of the collective consciousness or will you continue to muddy the waters with worry, anger, indifference and victimization?

The beauty of the new understanding can truly allow the “Cultural Creatives” to blossom.

“Be the changes that you wish to see”—Mahatma Gandhi

FULL MOON

The Full Moon of February, the 20-21 is a Lunar Eclipse in Virgo.

We still have three planets plus Chiron in Aquarius to maintain the humanitarian theme of the month. However, Vesta has moved into Pisces to join the Sun and oppose the Moon. This Goddess of hearth and home brings us to reevaluate what our beliefs about home and family truly are. We speak of family values, but what is the belief behind the statement?

We are coming to the close of the Piscean Age. When an Age comes to an end the paradigms by which humanity has functioned make a dramatic shift. Pisces has stood for sin and salvation. The Master St. Germain says that sin is:
S-self
I-imposed ignorance and N-non-sense--
the acceptance of other people’s judgments as more important and true than our own understanding...

The Moon is in Virgo, which is the sign of the Goddess, the Mother Mary. The belief in original sin has lead to the separation from at-one-ment with the earth, from the Divine feminine and the understanding of our bodies as a holy temple of God. The Virgin, Virgo, represents the divine feminine and the bringing of the Christ Consciousness into the Earth realms.

This eclipse bids us to remember the Truth—we are not sinners, we are not guilty, we are not flawed. We are Divine Creative Masters who are in the process (revelation) of remembering who we are. We are amazing creations of God and therefore we are wonderful.

This eclipse brings light to the dark side of both Pisces and Virgo as well as illuminating their higher goals.

At the time of this eclipse Saturn conjuncts the Moon in Virgo. This conjunction points out the collective fear of the power of woman (Goddess emerging). These times are not about the over-throw of man, but the equality of male and female. Woman has been either lowered to the estate of slave or elevated to the pedestal of Madonna. It is time for man and woman to stand on equal ground and empower each other in love, rather dwelling in separation from each other.

When there is an eclipse, the long-term effect lasts one year for every hour that the eclipse lasts. All eclipses have at least a three month influence on the affairs of the planet.

We are being lead to let go of the price we have put on our good. The belief that only through pain can we obtain success, has held many people back. The lessons of life are teachers, but not all teachers are tyrants who will punish if the lesson isn't learned perfectly the first time.

Virgo is the perfectionist and Pisces the victim of missed opportunity. Perfection is not an estate of the human condition according to St. Germain and there are no victims.

The eclipses of February bring lessons of letting go of the old ways and overcoming limitations. Catch the wave of the Age of Aquarius as it comes fully into place. En-joy!

Here are some amazing pictures of Dubai. The architecture is literally "out-of-this-world". The city looks like a work of art from the air. En-joy!

CRYSTAL CORNER

Here we are once again and nearly into February. In our part of the world it has been COLD!!! But we did get some snow and that helps some.

I am going to depart from the usual column information and alert you to some things to be on the watch for when purchasing stones and crystals. I am receiving more and more information on what is being done to natural stones to enhance (?) them. From the very beginning I have been aware of some stones that are almost always heated, irradiated or otherwise messed with.

Turquoise is nearly always color enhanced and/or stabilized by heating to make it harder so that it can be mounted in jewelry. I buy Sleeping Beauty Turquoise because it is natural and a wonderful shade of sky-blue. I did find a green Turquoise that I bought from a woman who mined it herself. This is very beautiful material and quite soft for a stone.

Smoky Quartz is a crystal that is irradiated frequently. The irradiated material is almost always a shiny black and darker than the natural stone. I once walked into a ballroom full of irradiated Smoky Quartz and I could hear it screaming. I couldn't get out of there fast enough. Interestingly enough, Smoky Quartz is smoky because of natural radiation in the earth. It is just the process of bombarding it with radiation that creates the challenge I have with it.

Ninety percent of the Citrine you purchase has been heat treated. Usually the labs will take a poor quality of Amethyst and heat it to turn it the beautiful yellow or orange colors. Natural Citrine is very pale in most cases. In healing, we use our intent that the heated stones will work as true Citrine.

When we get into the gemstones, it is a challenge to tell the difference from the natural stones and those grown in the laboratory. Do you know the difference between cubic zirconia and a diamond? How about the beautiful emeralds or rubies? Sapphires? The gemstone industry is always looking for ways to make greater amounts of money and sometimes the suppliers are not very honest about what has been done to the stones. One dealer bought some Emeralds and wanted them cleansed so he sent them to a lab that specialized in that process. The result was a disaster. The Emeralds had been badly fractured when found so they were cut and held together by an adhesive. When the adhesive was removed, the Emeralds fell apart and he was out his money. Sapphires are heated frequently to improve the color. Blue Topaz is nearly always heat-treated clear Topaz. And so it goes.

When buying stones, particularly for healing, find a reputable dealer who will tell you what he knows about the stones. There are still honest ones around! And, if you don't know about a particular crystal or stone, make an intention that it will be used for the highest good of the individual.

Until next time, love, light and laughter to all of you. Please feel free to contact me any time. – See info at the end of the Certification Class
