

February Newsletter

The first month of 2009 is finished and it brought many amazing events.

The world is in love with the Obama's and they obviously love each other, which is refreshing in these times when so many people are jaded about relationship or doubt that true love could really exist.

The energy that Barack Obama carries is what St. Germain calls nobility. It is the ability to enter a room so quietly that no one hears the entry yet everyone in the room feels a loving change and a warm presence. For those who have gotten so far away from feeling, the changes are being quite trying. Barack Obama is brilliant. His horoscope shows that he has Uranus conjunct his Sun which is an indicator of genius. However, he does not live in his head. The balance between mind and soul is obvious. It gives him the strength to know who he is and what he is about even when so much of the world wants to go on dealing with life in the same old patterns. It is as though some people did not even notice that the Bush administration is over. The watchful eye of the press is blinded by suspicion and fear, as well as, the need to be right at all cost. It will be wonderful as the warmth of love begins to filter in and change even the coldest heart. That is what is waiting as we move toward 2012.

We continue to have winter after most of January was warmer than usual

My great grandson is beautiful and we get to babysit so we can watch him grow. The babies of these times are so awesome. I thought my kids were smart and the children of my grandchildren's generation were astounding, but the babies of the new millennium are carrying an essence that is truly about where we are going. Dorian is very involved in being a great grandma, also. Though she never had children or grand children, she is delighted by the promise of this new generation. Sometimes I think that she is more excited about Chancy than I am and that is saying a lot.

May this month of love uplift your life and bring you closer to the unconditional love of the Divine.

Here is an article that I am submitting to the Sedona Journal. Some of you will read it there, but others may not. St. Germain gave me this information and it is one of those pieces that he gives me that really stirred my soul so I want to share it with you.

*The Spiritual Journey-Clarified
The Master St. Germain
Through Molly Rowland*

Please, read this slowly and allow the energy to move through you as you read it. Wisdom, like good food, is to be taken in slowly and digested pleasantly. St. Germain

Beloved Masters, the spiritual journey is not out there somewhere. The spiritual journey exists within you. You are the journey. If you would say that there is a path it is the way of the kundalini moving from root to crown. So many have only allowed that force to move as far as the heart and in fear stopped it there. In the heart the power of the kundalini becomes religious fervor. Religion is an intellectual process and therefore is limited by the box of finite mind. Spirit takes you far beyond the bonds of religious law.

The spiritual path does not lead you away from the challenges of life. It helps you to appreciate your own power, strength and courage to go the course. The Master Barack Obama holds within himself the balance that allows him to follow the internal guidance of the soul. He carries a presence that does not get embroiled in controversy. This is the way of a “peaceful warrior”. This is living the spiritual journey.

The teachings of intellect have directed attention and energy outward, away from self awareness and understanding. You cannot possibly recognize who you are if you are constantly involved in avoiding your own being, in capitulating to the thoughts, ideas and beliefs of others. The spiritual journey is, indeed, the way home, but home is within rather than far away. Home is not somewhere to escape, but a sanctuary of holy involvement with self, God and the world.

Religion has portrayed our life as an endurance trial that ends in death and then our fate is decided by a fickle God whose judgments are based on the particular religion that you identify with. It is said by the churches that Jesus will only save those who do what God says, so whether you get saved or not is questionable. Therefore, many people live in hell here on earth because of the uncertainty about whether they have done all of the “right things” and fulfilled the prescribed rituals correctly. Nothing about the unconditional love of God has really taught. Control, punishment, fear and dominance have NOTHING to do with the love of God. Many of you ask, “How did all of this happen?” “Where did we go wrong?” Beloved Masters, from our perspective and the vantage of God you did no wrong, because wrong is not something that God even considers. However, God created you with free will and gave you all of the magnificent tools to create in a similar manner as the Divine. You have mind, heart, soul, imagination, desire and the absolute right to choice. In the world game the intellect desired freedom above all. So the direction of creation has been to be free. Finite mind does not consider all of the possibilities or outcomes because it cannot imagine the full potential. The consequences have been, that in order to be free, humanity has moved further and further from the love of God. Independence equals separation. “I have to do this all by myself” is one of the loneliest statements there is. Beloveds, you have to create for yourself, but you simply cannot create by yourself.

The more aligned you become with the spiritual journey the more you feel the internal shifts that reveal (revelation) greater love, at-one-ment, strength and the calm clear knowing of your own place in the scheme of things that has nothing to do with superiority or dominance. When you are truly walking the spiritual path you feel appreciation, delight and honor in what others are creating. We, the Ascended Masters experience, with great admiration, the ability of humanity to create. Even the most horrendous crimes and atrocities are still acts of creation. God did not create right and wrong. The God that religion has created in man’s image is a judge, a punisher and a tyrant. None of these attributes even vaguely resemble the unconditional love of “I AM”. The finite mind cannot grasp unconditional love—a love so vast that nothing disturbs it.

These times of revelation will bring to light where the wounds of separation have set humanity at odds. The most important healing is the remembrance that God has lived within you forever. God’s love never failed. You have walked a bitter path, a rocky and uncertain way. You have lived your separation masterfully. The way home is not long, but it requires that you allow yourself to let go of EVERYTHING THAT IS NOT ABOUT LOVE!!! As you live the love (not when you live the love, because that puts the possibility out into the future) NOW you will feel the chemical, emotional, energetic and spirit filled changes occurring within you. You cannot fake this nor can you make it happen. The very energy of fictitiousness or force pushes that which is love away. The spiritual journey is not an intellectual drill that can be learned and then implemented. Looking for the “right way of doing a spiritual path” is actually an indicator of a fork in the road where a choice must be made to remain in the past or to embrace a future that has nothing to do with how the past was lived.

Living the spiritual journey every moment helps you to recall the Eden experience. The allegorical exit from Eden at God’s command simply indicates where each person made the choice for separation. The land of Nod (sleep state) defines how you have lived in that self imposed separation. God did not “kick” anyone out of unity. Free will designed this game and free will can bring you home. Heaven is not a place, but a state of harmony created by the willingness to allow the love of God to be the guidance of your journey. No one human being knows better how another soul should live their life. When you walk the spiritual journey you realize that fact. The egoic desire to be separated by intellectual brilliance must end. The specialness of selectivity or superiority would be set aside. The desperate need to prove that you are better than someone else, must be forgiven, as it only creates wars. All of these aspects of separation naturally disappear in the remembrance that you are divinely unique, wholly loved and eternally embraced in the total love of God.

There are still many who speak of statistics, that prove only a few souls will obtain reunion with God. (The ego loves percentages). Whether these chosen people are acceptable by religious choice, intellectual awareness or just following a certain party line, they are superior and God will notice them and see that they are worthy. This clinging to the old order will break apart in the clarity that emerges as the Maya or illusions collapse over the next few (very few) years.

The spiritual journey isn't going anywhere, because NOW is the only place that is. The spiritual future can not be based on the illusionary past. The mind keeps going around in circles and coming back to the same conclusions, verifying ideas that are no longer working. Science is discovering that what it said was absolute and unchangeable is changing in so many areas. The intellect is a necessary part of the whole, but it isn't the whole. The mind has been allowed to take control and say what is important and what has no value.

Humanity has defined their life by limit and measure. Separation has created judgment which has been attributed to God. Everyone wants to be special and important and no one wants to be left out. In God's love both ways are totally true. In the definition of ego-based thought it is mutually exclusive.

The spiritual journey isn't something that hasn't happened or turning back to something that was better. The spiritual journey is your own, ever moving, expanding and growing connection with I AM. God loves you. God loves you! GOD LOVES YOU!!!! Not because of or instead of, God just loves you. The name you carry is the name the world gave you. God knows you by the name you were given is the beginning, which is a name that is so precious that it cannot be pronounced in any language on this planet. It is a sound, a tone that is yours alone and when all of the sounds are integrated, God smiles.

THERE IS NO COMPETITION on the spiritual journey, because your path is unique to you. You are not fighting to be the first to get to God. If you are, you are just delaying the arrival at remembrance. Scrambling to get to the place where you will not have to deal with any of this anymore is just another illusion. The love that the spiritual journey gives you literally lifts you up so that you can see clearly where

YOU are going. The journey isn't about where others are going. Stopping them or redirecting them or telling them what to do just distracts you from feeling the love. All of these activities slow down your own evolution. Your journey is pertinent to you. As you discover how to live it truly, it is so exciting and amazing and intriguing that you forget to be responsible for everyone else but you. When you live the love it is a model, but not a dictate. As you are the love others will be led to observe and perhaps even imitate, but you are not self-conscious because you aren't trying to be something you are not sure of, you are living you. You are not "trying to do your best". You are your best and better and better, but not better than.

The finite mind does not grasp being totally with your self and completely with everyone else at the same time, because it isn't an intellectual concept but a soul's awareness. You will not find the answers in a book somewhere. Many of you have searched for years to find them. There are references and guidelines, but they are not hard fast rules because this is a Universe of change. The laws of man will begin to disintegrate as you recall within you the wisdom of the ages that was instilled in you from the beginning.

There is not one soul on this planet that is not on the spiritual journey and no one has the wisdom to decide whether the way of others is correct or not. They will in the end judge themselves. God has nothing to judge. The most violent and abhorrent acts emerge from the wound of separation and God understands Divine creative Masters brought about the split and only they can mend it. God could and would mend you, but that free will thing is an unbreakable contract made in total love and integrity. You cannot make another person free from the wound, especially if you have given no attention to the wound within yourself. As you allow the wound to heal "IT IS DONE". You do not heal the wound by trying to get rid of its aftermath. You heal the wound by focusing on wholeness. How is it to be one with the love of God? Your mind cannot imagine, but your soul remembers completely. Let your soul guide your thoughts, allow yourself to hear spirit's song, drift in the energy of belonging and be amazed that the whole of your life here on earth responds to this moment with renewed energy, expanded creativity and abundance that isn't limited by the illusions of lack.

Every step you take, We are with you. Every thought that you have, even if you wished destruction on your neighbor, We bless to the highest good of all concerned. We inspire your dreams and encourage your remembering, but We cannot save you from yourself or make you change against your free will.

Enjoy the spiritual journey. It was never intended to cause suffering. That is an illusion. If you believe that the only way to overcome is through pain We will pray that the pain will be small and short-lived. With every step remember the love. Feel the love within and without. If you design a day of testing to see if you mean to evolve, remember that you made the day with your thoughts and emotions and you can, in the moment, forgive it. Others come to you on the currents of your thoughts and they stay until you release them. They didn't come to punish you and they may wonder what they are doing in your life as much as you wonder why they are there. When you create tyrants and abusers in your life, remember that you cannot create that of which you have no knowledge. We do not judge you. You judge yourselves much more harshly and cruelly than is necessary and certainly not at all as God considers you.

Our ever ongoing intension for the Earth and all of her people is the end of war, violence, crime and the belief that you are not worthy of the love of God. These conditions simply blind the world to the beauty that was freely given for you to enjoy in love.

Until we meet again, in the greatest of love I bid you Adieu! The Master St. Germain

RAINBOW CENTER NEWS

Our next group will be February 15 at 2:00 p.m. at the Rainbow Center. The Goddesses Isis, Artemes and Kwan Yin will talk about their perspective on what is going globally in "The Goddesses Talk about World Changes". CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2009groups.html

St. Germain continues discussing the twelve virtues in our February Evening with St. Germain. February's virtue is Clarity. You may order CD's or DVD's of each virtue or by the quarter or at the end of 2009 the whole set of twelve will be offered.

To sign up for the Evening on the website www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/live-events.html

To order CD's or DVD's www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/evenings.html

Our spring intensive "Divine Design" will be held at the Rainbow Center here in Lander on May 16-17 with a Friday evening, May 15 channeling called "The Blessing of Change".

You look at the chaos of the planet and wonder, not only where are we going, but can there possibly be a positive outcome. St. Germain reminds you of God's design for your life, the lives of those you love and the ongoing of the whole planet. You are being eased into loved because you would resist if it were given to you fully right now. It looks as though the things you love are being taken away, but they are just out for rejuvenation. As you are willing not only will you get the love and security that you seek, but much, much more. This is God's loving Divine design for the Earth.

The evening reminds us that change is not disaster, but growth in disguise. St. Germain outlines for you the clearer picture of "The Blessing of Change".

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON

The Full Moon on February 9 is a Lunar Eclipse. Six planets--Mercury, Mars, Jupiter, Sun, Chiron and Neptune plus the North Node of the Moon fall in Aquarius at this powerful Full Moon. The sign of Aquarius, the eleventh house of hopes, desires and wishes, friends and humanitarian works and the planet Uranus all call for breaking down old ways and reconstruction, change, evolution and gathering together in a unified ideal.

Over the years there has been a lot of conflict and debate about the statement that all men are created equal under God. The literal mind looked at the world of imbalances and said "There is nothing equal about how things function on Earth". The equality was never physical. The statement "that all are created in the image and likeness of God" did not allude to the physical appearance or affairs of life. Even the fact, that it is stated in the Declaration of Independence that we have unalienable Rights to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness, is not a promise or a guarantee that everyone will allow these things into their lives.

Uranus is a planet of chaos and Aquarius is the sign of the rebel or the reformer. All of this energy in Aquarius as 2009 gets started bodes many changes and a lot of breaking down of the old, entrenched ways of conducting government, religion and the general affairs of community life on the globe.

The Full Moon strongly affects the tides. As water flows more powerfully through a narrow gorge, the electrical energy of our psyche is being increased now. Everything seems to be pushing us to focus and align our thoughts, feelings and actions into a stream of energy that is concentrated.

These planets in Aquarius are focused on the twelfth and first houses of President Obama's chart. He is, indeed, a reformer and his ideas and concepts are much more focused than those of the previous administration. However, in many ways, they are broader than the past ways of conducting global business. His natal Sun in Leo sits in the sixth house of service in his natal chart and transiting Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and the North Node fall in the twelfth house of his chart. This, perhaps, is why some people feel that he is hiding something. He is simply keeping his own council when it isn't time to speak out. The transiting Sun, Chiron and Neptune fall in his first house of how he presents himself to the world. This puts the lights on his presence in every meeting. The country and the world will feel the influence of his cool head and warm heart, though those who are used to getting their way through manipulation and control might call him unyielding. This man is not a parent to the country, in the sense of doing everything for us. This is a man who sees our potential to rise up and be our very best and calls us to fulfill it.

The electrical energy of the "Water Bearer" sends currents of new and revitalized consciousness to us and through us. This Full Moon can make us more aware than ever of just how much the changing times are moving.

Chiron was discovered in 1977 orbiting between Saturn (Earth, death, boundaries) and Uranus (boundary less, unconfined, breathing new life into the planet). Chiron is a bridge that binds these two planets together. The fact that Saturn and Uranus will remain in relative opposition for the next eighteen months is an indicator that nothing on Earth can remain the same. The old order is passing. The Aquarian energy can be the life preserver that lifts us up and out of the flood waters of the Piscean emotions and the muck of what once served us, but now is a cesspool.

The Sabian symbol for the Sun at 21 degrees Aquarius: A disappointed and disillusioned woman courageously faces a seemingly empty life; the capacity to meet emotionally upsetting experiences in human relationships with strength of character and personal integrity." We are reminded that we can no longer live by "how it was".

The Sabian symbol for the Moon at 21 degrees Leo: Intoxicated chickens dizzily flap their wings trying to fly; the often-negative and at times ludicrous first experience with spiritual teachings". We must remember that living spiritual law is much different than talking or reading about it.

You are the change you have been looking for. You are the hope of the world. The new order will not happen if you wait for someone else to make the difference.

NEW MOON

On February 24-25 the New Moon falls in the sign of Pisces. Eight planets—Jupiter, Mercury, Mars, Chiron and Neptune in Aquarius and the Moon, Sun and Uranus in Pisces form a stellium or concentration of energy that asks us to reflect on what we must now leave behind in order to become the masters that we are. The religious concept that there is a "there" has caused many people to believe that they have obtained the end all/ be all. There is no "there" and we are confronted by the realization that we have to move on.

Pisces represents the Garden of Eden and the awareness that we were never cast out is a big piece of the dawning of the Age of Aquarius. We get to consider that the spiritual estate from which we descended is calling us to return. God awaits our "homecoming". Return we will—wiser, more compassionate and clear that freedom is not separation.

Pisces teaches us to use our sixth sense. We can only see a miniscule fraction of our Universe. Not only can we not see because the Universe is vast, but because much of it lies beyond the limits of our five physical senses. There is so much beauty, abundance and glory just beyond the tips of our fingers behind the veil of our disbelief. We must let go of the belief that there is nothing more than just what we can see, hear, taste, touch or smell. We are being expanded and stretched and pulled out of the boxes of impossibility that we have built to support our theories of not enough. In the spirit waters of Pisces logic and reason dissolve. In this awareness there is no right or wrong, no past or future and no separation. This is the dream of the Australian Aboriginals, the Buddhist Dharmakaya, the Hindu Brahman, the Unity or being of the Sufi, the Way of the Tao, and the message of Christ when he said “Let thine eye be single”. The Pisces New Moon calls us to surrender our minds and let the essence of intellect be led by soul. We are being asked to get to the heart of the matter.

As Mercury moves through Aquarius technological and revelatory breakthroughs keep occurring. Mercury and Jupiter will cojoin just before the New Moon for the second time this year. The first time was three days before the inauguration. When Jupiter joins Mercury the train of thought is much loftier. This aspect brings us to review where the current line of thinking is going. How can we raise our sights and improve our creations. Thoughts, truly, are things. You actually begin to notice that you think about something or someone and it or they appear in your life. “We create our own reality” is not a catch phrase from another era, it is so.

Venus, the lower octave of Neptune, turns retrograde on March 6. Every eight years Venus completes five retrograde phases forming a cosmic pentagram in the sky. Eight divided by five equals 1, 618, the golden ratio, a harmonic proportion described by Plato, Euclid, Fibonacci, Kepler, Ohm and many others as a spiritual ideal. This ratio is found on all levels of existence—in crystals and chemical compounds, as well as in the human body, plants, art and architecture (the Acropolis in Athens and the Great Pyramid of Giza are but two examples). When this symbol of beauty and balance goes retrograde it calls us to bring all aspects of our lives into harmony, especially in our relationships, ways of bringing abundance into our lives and even the basic quality of life we live.

With Venus in Aries, the first sign of the Zodiac, and seven of the ten planets in the eleventh and twelfth signs, Aquarius and Pisces, the winds of change will blow us on to fulfill our dreams and find new ones. We may also notice that the physical winds on the planet may be blowing harder now.

The Sabian symbol for 7 degrees of Pisces supports us in being faithful to our ideals and dreams. “Illumined by a shaft of light, a large cross lies on rocks surrounded by sea mist; the spiritual blessing which strengthens individuals who, happen what may, stand uncompromisingly for their own truth”.

We are learning to see through the eyes of the divine and feel, with greater compassion, just what the heart of God might feel. “When you want only Love, that is what you will see.” (The Course in Miracles)

TAROT

The Star represents our reaching for the stars. Aquarius, the Waterbearer, holds the essence of the stars in the pitcher that is being poured out on the world.

The Star represents luminosity. You are made stardust. Let yourself shine. The light that you are makes you a “way shower”. Be aware of the energy of your illumination. Feel the effervescence of starlight moving through your body.

In the Voyager deck, the central figure is the Goddess Kwan Yin. The star reminds you that through compassionate service you assist others to find the light that they are.

The water Rune Laguz is associated with Aquarius, the Waterbearer and star energy. In Laguz powerful unseen currents that nourish, shape and connect are at work. Laguz you fulfill your desire to immerse yourself in the experience of living without having to evaluate or understand. This rune speaks of satisfaction of emotional requirements, the awakening of the intuitive or lunar side of your nature. Laguz often signals a time of deep cleansing. Your success lies in contacting your personal intuition and attuning to your own rhythms.

The I Ching Hexagram for the Star is #22: Grace.

Tranquil beauty—clarity within, quite without. This is the tranquility of pure contemplation. In this aspect the world is beautiful. (I Ching, p. 91)

The Star's number is seventeen, which is the combination of Ten and Seven. Both, ten (Fortune) and seven (Chariot,) represent attainment. The Star has achieved the heights and is rewarded with fame and acclaim. Seventeen equals eight which when turned on its side represents infinity.

In the Tarot deck the nine of Cups is called "wish fulfillment" and it indicates abundance on the every day, mundane levels of life. The Star is cosmic "wish fulfillment". The Star speaks to the culmination of dreams of long standing on a much higher plane. When you get the Star in a reading it puts you on notice that there is no limit on your dreams. Dare to dream as big as you want and then expand on that. You will never come to the end of your potential.

Happy Valentines!!

CRYSTAL CORNER

Love is cold. Did that register? Love is cold. Most of us think of love as a warm fuzzy feeling in the heart and of course that has a place in our being. But, we are beginning to move away from the old ways of looking at things and are now bridging into feelings rather than coming from an emotional point of view. Unconditional love; what does that mean to you? Most of what passes for love on this earth is a pale reflection of what true, unconditional love really is. How many times have you heard someone say, or even said yourself, "If you really loved me, you would do this for me or buy that for me?" Without the emotion involved, love is cold. Unconditional love has no strings and all are loved equally. Just stop and think/feel how powerful romantic love would be with a foundation of love without conditions!

Some stones you might use as you explore this greater love are listed below. Enjoy!

Adamite is a yellow-green crystal that is very much the bonding of the will and unconditional love. It is an essence of possible becoming for the heart center of those who will accept the higher understanding. It is a wondrous stone of truth and unconditional love.

Ajoite/Calcite is a messenger of higher forms of unconditional love. This epitomizes the Goddess in her fully emerged state. This love is what the integration feels like. It is so sweet, it is so powerful and yet, it is non-threatening. It is so soft and yet it is so strong that nothing can come against it.

Larimar is an aspect of coming times. Its planet of origin is of a love vibration beyond pink, an unconditional love that man would find nauseating. It is cloying because unconditional love will not leave you alone. It surrounds you; it is a part of you. It has no barriers, separations or distinctions. Compared with our romantic notions of love, this doesn't sound like a lot of fun but as we learn to live that love and become that love, how things will change!

Enjoy your Valentine's Day, the holiday of love, and feel the power of a greater love.

BOOKS

One of the most impressive and readable books I have read this year is "The Shack" by Wm. Paul Young. This is a loving (beyond words) and compassionate story of a father's loss of a child and how that loss redirected his life in a whole new way.

Mack, the main character, questions his faith and any belief that he might have had in God after his daughter, Missy is abducted and murdered. He receives a handwritten message with no postmark in his mail box during an ice storm. The message invites him to come to the shack where the evidence of Missy's death was found, though no body was ever recovered. The message is signed Papa, which is which is what Mack's wife calls God. This story is full of mystery and mysticism. It lifts your spirit, and for my self, it brought many tears. It is probably one of the most enlightening books you will read now and it can change your view of the religious God that is strict and forbidding.

A friend of mine sent me this and since it seems to be getting more common I thought I would pass it on for a good laugh. I would question the word idiot since I frequently find myself doing these types of things,

IDIOT SIGHTING:

We had to have the garage door repaired. The Sears repairman told us that one of our problems was that we did not have a 'large' enough motor on the opener. I thought for a minute, and said that we had the largest one Sears made at that time, a 1/2 horsepower. He shook his head and said, 'Lady, you need a 1/4 horsepower.' I responded that 1/2 was larger than 1/4. He said, 'NO, it's not.' Four is larger than two.'

We do not use Sears repair now.

IDIOT SIGHTING:

My daughter and I went through the McDonald's take-out window and I gave the clerk a $5 bill. Our total was $4.25, so I also handed her a quarter. She said, 'you gave me too much money.' I said, 'Yes I know, but this way you can just give me a dollar bill back.' She sighed and went to get the manager who asked me to repeat my request. I did so, and he handed me back the quarter, and said "we're sorry but they could not do that kind of thing." The clerk then proceeded to give me back $1 and 75 cents in change.

Do not confuse the clerks at McD's.

IDIOT SIGHTING:

I live in a semi rural area. We recently had a new neighbor call the local township administrative office to request the removal of the DEER CROSSING sign on our road. The reason: 'Too many deer are being hit by cars out here! I don't think this is a good place for them to be crossing anymore.'

IDIOT SIGHTING IN FOOD SERVICE:

My daughter went to a local Taco Bell and ordered a taco. She asked the person behind the counter for 'minimal lettuce.' He said he was sorry, but they only had iceberg lettuce.

IDIOT SIGHTING:

I was at the airport, checking in at the gate when an airport employee asked, and 'has anyone put anything in your baggage without your knowledge?' To which I replied, 'If it was without my knowledge, how would I know?' He smiled knowingly and nodded, 'That's why we ask.'

Happened in Birmingham, Ala.

IDIOT SIGHTING:

The spotlight on the corner buzzes when it's safe to cross the street. I was crossing with an intellectually challenged coworker of mine. She asked if I knew what the buzzer was for. I explained that it signals blind people when the light is red. Appalled, she responded, 'what on earth are blind people doing driving?!'

She was a probation officer in Wichita, KS

IDIOT SIGHTING:

At a good-bye luncheon for an old and dear coworker. She was leaving the company due to 'downsizing.' Our manager commented cheerfully, 'This is fun. We should do this more often.' Not another word was spoken. We all just looked at each other with that deer-in-the-headlights stare.

This was a lunch at Texas Instruments.

I work with an individual who plugged her power strip back into itself and for the sake of her life, couldn't understand why her system would not turn on a deputy with the Dallas County Sheriffs office, no less.

IDIOT SIGHTING:

When my husband and I arrived at an automobile dealer ship to pick up our car, w e were told the keys had been locked in it. We went to the service department and found a mechanic working feverishly to unlock the driver's side door. As I watched from the passenger side, I instinctively tried the door handle and discovered that it was unlocked. 'Hey,' I announced to the technician, 'its open!' His reply, 'I know. I already got that side.'
