

January Newsletter

The star of the show this month is my first great grandchild, Chancy Elwin Stoeger. Chancy was born December 16 at 9:39 AM here in Lander, to my granddaughter Kayla and her fiancé, Craig Stoeger. Chancy is welcomed by his half-brother Bradon and his grandmother, my daughter Sarah, as well as, a huge Stoeger clan. Chancy weighed 8.6 Lbs.

We were able to be in the delivery room and witness the whole birth. WOW!! What an experience. Even though I have three children, to get to see the birth is an amazing feeling. Dorian got lots of pictures and made a special CD of the whole process for Kayla to have.

This is December 26 and even though there have been promises of snow for the last two weeks, it has gone around us. Last night it found us and when we got up this AM there was about 4 inches on the ground which has now become about 6 inches and it is still snowing.

We had a quiet, laid-back Christmas with family and a few friends who joined us for dinner. Dorian's sister, Karen always plies us with lots of goodies from Trader Joe's in Portland, OR. We practiced great discipline until late evening and then we got into the peanut butter filled pretzels.

New Year's Eve is just five days away and we have numerous Capricorn birthdays coming up. My granddaughter Corinthia will 16 on the 29, my daughter, Sarah and granddaughter Noel both share the 30 and Dorian's birthday is the 9th of January. December and July are our two biggest birthday months.

We have been very blessed in Wyoming, as the economy is struggling. Wyoming is the only state in the union that is still in the black, financially. We don't know how long that will last, but for now we are thankful.

St. Germain continues to assure us, "Beloved Masters, ain't nothin' what it seems". What you are experiencing is the clearing of the illusions so that you can see the beauty and riches that are all around you. There is great and heart-felt compassion for all who are only finding the difficulties in these times. The true test of faith is to find the good, the loving and the beautiful in the midst of what appears to be loss. This is NOT some punishment from an angry God and God will, at every turn of life, attempt to show you the good that can come out of each experience. God does not bring you negative experiences, but because of free-will, God does not interfere with your creations either. These times offer opportunities for forgiveness of yourselves and others. You can feel the love in the midst of sorrow and recognize that God's love is everywhere, ever present and always available to you. Holding your light bright and recognizing that you really are worthy of the very best helps you to move through the trials. Certainly you will help others, but with a different understanding of why and from whence the energy to be of assistance comes. As you remember the love in the midst of chaos, you also realize that there are those, who like a drowning man, will cry for help and then fight it off when it comes-- "That's not what I wanted or it wasn't enough or I have to do this all by myself".

You now get to remember that love isn't just one day of the year and sharing isn't reserved just for the Christmas season.

You have forgotten how to be in relationship with others. You have become so involved in control and separation, that the idea of relationship—hearing, seeing, touching and feeling others—causes you to fear the vulnerability of having others get that close.

As financial necessity brings many people to open their homes to strangers, faith is tested at every moment. Personal control must be questioned, so that cooperative relationship can emerge.

The most important thing to feel, as the wars rage within is that you are loved beyond imagining. As you can forgive those of whom you may have said, "I can never forgive "you may recognize the true love of God living within you. Any person that you cannot forgive represents a place within you where you must remain unforgiven. Is separation really worth the cost of allowing love in its truest sense?

God is everywhere and in everyone and everything. God's love incomprehensible! The human mind cannot grasp the vastness of a love that loves no matter what, a love that has no price and no measure. You say, "I know that, but....."

Surrender is the complete trust that what ever you are going through God has your very best interest at heart. Give yourself over to God's love, give those that you cannot forgive over to God's love, give what you cannot understand over to God's love and accept the healing power of a love that isn't limited to the perspective of any religion. God will never fit into any box that the world attempts to design.

And so it is, Beloved Masters, we invite you to enter the Year of Triumph with a light heart, a free spirit and a willingness to allow a better life, rather than fighting for something that you don't even understand most of the time. Our blessings wrap you like a warm cloak against the cold. God's love penetrates the hardest of hearts if there is one tiny crack of desire. Until we meet again, I bid you Adieu!

RAINBOW CENTER NEWS

Our next group will be January 11, 2009 at the Rainbow Center at 2 p.m. The title is "The Beautiful Life". We tend to focus on the negatives of life while we are surrounded by so much beauty and wonder that God created for us to celebrate. St. Germain reminds us that we are rich beyond compare if we will only see it. He calls us to look for and live the beautiful life.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2009groups.html

Our next Evening with St. Germain is "You are World Changers". It will air January 21 at 7 p.m. EST. St. Germain shows us just how amazing we are and how capable of changing our world we are, so that "the world" begins to shift and change also.

To sign up for the Evening on the website www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/live-events.html

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON

The Full Moon in Cancer on January 10-11 starts the year off with a focus on healing with more parental issues. This is the first SuperMoon of 2009. it lights up the darkness to show us where we are and what direction we will take next. The Sun in Capricorn and its ruler Saturn draw our attention to old Karmic patterns. Karma is not punishment. It simply points out where our actions have defined our destiny. We make choices that in the moment seem like the best way to go and then we get to live the outcome. This is why the connection to our inner knowing (Cancer Moon) lets us consider the outcome of our actions before we take them so that we can trust our choices and celebrate the outcomes. When choices are made from emotional reaction the results, more often than not, are disappointing. As we allow ourselves to feel into the spiritual center in our solar plexus we become aware of internal guidance that leads us with a cool hand of reason. We become more solid within and let reactive to outside distractions.

Saturn and Uranus continue to oppose one another, calling us to THINK DIFFERENTLY! Saturn trines the Sun and sextiles the Moon. This forms an energy configuration known as a mystic rectangle, which also could be called "practical magik". Opposites with their mirroring effect increase awareness. Trines promote creativity and sextiles spark insight. What a grand time to get a peek beyond the veils of limitation and glimpse our divine self. WOW!! Double that—two oppositions, two trines and two sextiles and our ability to seek alternatives and put into effect positive changes is greatly increased. Mercury's station to go retrograde at 8 degrees Aquarius, can actually add strength to the bright new ideas that are pouring in. Mercury will retrograde until January 31 and will encourage us to reconsider, overhaul and realign our lives with those things and people who serve our lives with greater good.

On January 5th Jupiter enters into Aquarius until January 17, 2010. This can bring about far-reaching social and technological developments and fits right in with the social changes that president elect Obama will implement in his first year of office. In fact, Jupiter will be blessing Obama's personal presentation during 2009. Jupiter through the first house of one's chart brings expansion. This can, of course, represent his public persona and high profile as president, but it also adds humor, delight and a general enjoyment of the life that he is living as his first term begins. It also represents the big influence Obama will have on this country. Jupiter, Mercury, North Node, Chiron and Neptune all fall into the eleventh house of this Full Moon chart. This is natively Aquarius house and points to our collective hopes, dreams and desires, as 2009 begins. St. Germain calls 2009 the Year of Triumph and what a grand potential this configuration holds for everyone as the year gets off to a start.

As Jupiter joins Chiron and Neptune it adds an ongoing tailwind to major advances in science and humanitarian efforts.

The Sabian symbol for the Moon at 22 degrees Cancer is: "A young woman awaiting a sailboat the longing for transcendent happiness in the soul opened to great dreams." For the Sun at 22 degrees Capricorn: "By accepting defeat gracefully, a general reveals nobility of character; the realization that one may grow through defeat as well as, and perhaps more than, through success."

This Full Moon helps you to clarify your goals and priorities. "Problems are only opportunities in work clothes."—Henry Kaiser

NEW MOON

This solar eclipse in Aquarius funnels the energies of Sun, Moon and Earth into a precise alignment. In the brief time that the Moon blocks the light of the Sun, the energetic grids that are the foundations of creation are opened, restructured and then uploaded into the collective consciousness. Old programs are erased. The archetypes of the old ways are replaced and the veil between the earth and higher dimensions are moved aside a bit more—revelation. Sun, Moon, Jupiter, North Node, Chiron and Neptune are all in Aquarius for this New Moon indicating even more the significance of new beginnings and markings dramatic endings to the ways things have been done (forever). Jupiter, newly arrived in Aquarius joins the Sun and Moon and magnifies our hopes and dreams for the future. As Jupiter moves through Aquarius this year it makes three conjunctions with Chiron and three with Neptune, all of which correspond with ideals of freedom, equality and unity in diversity. The Piscean Order has said, "I want everyone to have equality if it corresponds to my ideas of equality and doesn't threaten my superiority." Aquarius really does see the truth of diversity being the most freeing aspect of all. It cannot be gained through the old ways of independence. Aquarius calls for us to consider relationship in a balanced and open way, which means no one is in control, everyone is involved equally. This means a whole new learning curve which includes feelings.

On February 5, the day that Mars enters Aquarius, Uranus, modern ruler of Aquarius and Saturn, traditional ruler, make another opposition furthering the monumental changes that are occurring on the planet. Both the opposition and Mars entry into the sign underscore the contrasts and ever widening gap between the demise of the old order and the genesis of the new ways of perception on Earth. Venus conjunction to Uranus at the time of the eclipse further brings us closer to the willingness to surrender our will to higher power so that solutions to long-standing problems can become clear. The realization that the answers have been there all along is another step of revelation.

Aquarius, represents the eleventh stage in an archetypal cycle of twelve, and stands for the development of group or collective consciousness. In this cycle we move beyond the identification with ego, family, religion, race and country to being a member of the wholistic group called human. The Water Bearer is a humanitarian who sees no one person or group as better or superior to another. We have lived for so long attempting to prove that in some way we are more desirable to God than someone else. The Aquarian Age sees each being as an all important part of the whole.

The Sabian symbol for this New Moon eclipse at 7 degrees Aquarius is: "A child is seen being born out of an egg; the emergence of new mutations according to the great rhythms of the cosmos."

This is a great time to be alive. It is challenging and will not allow us to sit still or rest on our laurels. This New Moon can assist you to more easily and clearly define your own unique gifts and talents. If you are willing to go beyond the boundaries and borders of the known, you will discover that the world misses the magik. St. Germain calls this "Divine insanity."

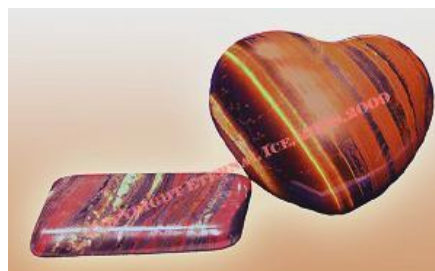

CRYSTAL CORNER

How did it get to be the end of the year??? Or for that matter, where did the eight years go since the year 2000? Those considerations might give you a glimpse of just how fast time is moving! To give you a taste of the stones and crystals that are appearing for our use in this shift of energy, I will talk of two of the higher energy stones. In some ways they are very different and yet, they seek to accomplish a grounding of the energy to the earth and grounding in general.

Pyrophyllite is so of the energies of what is becoming. It draws on ancient wisdom from so far back it has not even been recorded and man would not draw it up except in his finest remembering. This is an energy that is moving down. The average person would probably not feel a thing because its refinement is so subtle it would be beyond his understanding. This does not mean that it would not affect him. It would be wise to be mindful of its properties for this would scatter the mind so that the energies would be grandly affected if you were with it a lot. Do not carry it on the body for long periods of time or have it terribly close to your auric field. It is fine in a room but not close to your bed or eating place or anywhere you spend a lot of time. To be in the house with it is enough in these times. It works with the "Force of the Buddha". It will help to bring the understanding of God into the earth. It would be wondrous if a piece of this could be in every home. Mankind is in such resistance now. Man wants to say how God is and not complete the cycle. There is spiritual up here (head) and out there but down here (lower body) it is dirty, it is low, it is terrible and you don't want any part of it. This is your mother, the earth that you stand on. Of course you bring God back to her. In these times, it is very important to bring the understanding of God into the earth. It is not to drag God down to our understanding but to bring the understanding of God into the earth. This stone will assist.

Tiger-Iron is a stone very much of this earth, a Plutonium energy that draws the essence of the earth to connect with the root chakra, the splenic chakra and the throat chakra. It is a good stone for those who are somewhat ungrounded and yet afraid of losing their spiritual connection. It works well as a grounding stone for those who are afraid of Hematite and Obsidian as Tiger-Iron is earthly and expanded at the same time. This is an aspect of transformation. When used over the third eye, it creates a great opening. Most entities would not be able to leave it there for very long, for what they would begin to witness would terrify them. It would literally feel like their head was beginning to open up. Its subtle transformational energy creates so much more healing than is realized at the time and is ongoing like a time-release capsule. It would assist those who have closed down the lower three chakras to open them up again and allow themselves to be at ease with the opening. It accelerates the energy of the three lower chakras to reduce troublesome issues with sexuality or power. It allows one to integrate, or at least feel he has integrated, the lower chakras into a higher understanding.

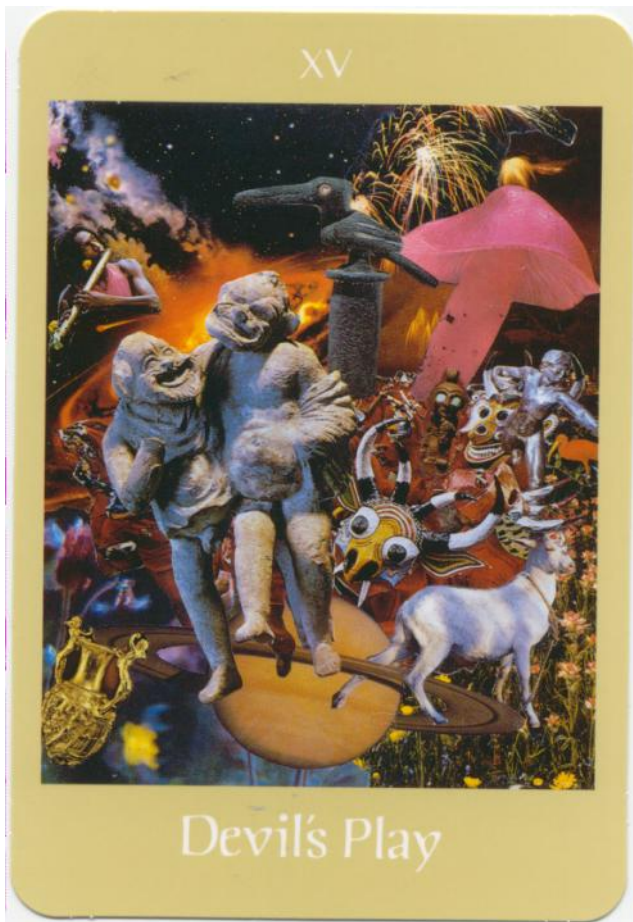

One of the best Christmas gifts I received this year was a website that is up and working, complete with a shopping cart!! Some pictures are missing still but you can call me for pictures or information and I will email it to you. Many blessings in the New Year!

The card for Capricorn is Devil's Play. The churches have taught us that the Devil is the personification of Evil; however The Christian adaptation of the Devil came from the Pagan God Pan who was half man and half goat. Pan is a God of fertility and I doubt that he disappeared simply because the Catholic Church said that he didn't exist. The Devil's Play card invites us to let go and have some fun. Saturn, the ruler of Capricorn, tends to be rather strict and unyielding when it comes to relaxation. The goat, throughout time has had a tendency to get into the vineyard and get drunk on the grapes causing all manner of disruption. There is a balance between total abandonment and having your own permission to get some well deserved fun.

Capricorn is represented by the mountain goat which has such sure-footed ability to climb to great heights that it has been linked with the perseverance and ability to reach the pentacle of success in the material world that Capricorn carries. Capricorn is the tenth sign in the zodiac and sits at the top of the horoscope. The tenth house relates to our successes, our fame and/or notoriety. The tenth house tells of our relationship with our father. When a planet moves through the tenth house it redirects our career ideas and often can lead to a whole new direction for our life. Often when a planet transits the tenth house we find ourselves dealing with "father" issues.

When you draw the Devil's Play card it suggests that there are going to be changes happening in your life around fame and fortune—you might be in for a raise or advancement in your career. You might encounter challenges from authority or father figures. Relax and listen to what they have to say. You might miss an important piece of information if you shut down because of judgment or resistance. This card can also point out where you are letting certain areas of your life get out of control. Saturn is a disciplinarian, but it can help you to bring balance where it is slipping away.

Animal Rescue

Hi, all you animal lovers. This is pretty simple... Please tell ten friends to tell ten today! The Animal Rescue Site is having trouble getting enough people to click on it daily to meet their quota of getting free food donated every day to abused and neglected animals.

It takes less than a minute [actually it takes about 5 seconds] to go to their site and click on the purple box "fund food for animals" for free. This doesn't cost you a thing.

Their corporate sponsors/advertisers use the number of daily visits to donate food to abandoned/neglected animals in exchange for advertising.

Here's the web site! Pass it along to people you know. www.theanimalrescuesite.com

AGAIN, PLEASE TELL 10 FRIENDS!!!

- As we move into 2009 I thought these articles might be interesting to you.
- The year was 1908—what a difference 100 years can make!
- The average life expectancy was 47 years.
- Only 14 percent of the homes had a bathtub.
- Only 8 percent of the homes had a telephone.
- There were only 8,000 cars and only 144 miles of paved roads.

- The maximum speed limit in most cities was 10 MPH.
- The tallest structure in the world was the Eiffel Tower.
- The average wage in 1908 was 22 cents per hour.
- The average worker made between $200 and $400 per year.
- A competent accountant could expect to earn $2,000 per year. A dentist earned $2,500 per year, a veterinarian between $1,500 and $4,000 per year and a mechanical engineer about $5,000 per year.
- More than 95 percent of all births took place at home!!
- Ninety percent of all doctors had no college education! Instead, they attended so-called medical schools, many of which were condemned in the press and the government as 'substandard.
- Sugar cost four cents a pound, eggs fourteen cents a dozen, coffee was fifteen cents a pound.
- Most women only washed their hair once a month, and used Borax or egg yolks for shampoo.
- Canada passed a law that prohibited poor people from entering into their country for any reason.
- The five leading causes of death were:
 - Pneumonia and influenza
 - tuberculosis
 - Diarrhea
 - Heart Disease
 - Stroke
- The American flag had 45 stars.
- The population of Las Vegas, Nevada was only 30!!!!
- Crossword puzzles, canned beer and ice tea had not been invented.
- There was no Mother's Day or Father's Day.
- Two out of every 10 adults could not read or write and only 6 percent of all Americans had graduated from high school.
- Marijuana, heroin and morphine were all available over the counter at the local drugstore. Back then pharmacists said, "Heroin clears the complexion, gives buoyancy to the mind, regulates the stomach and the bowel and is, in fact, a perfect guardian of health."

- (Shocking? DUH!)
- Eighteen percent of households had at least on full-time servant or domestic help.
- There were about 230 reported murders in the entire U.S.A.!!
- Just imagine what this country may be like in 2108.

IT STAGGERS THE MIND!

HIGH SCHOOL -- 1957 vs. 2007

Scenario 1:

Jack goes quail hunting before school and then pulls into the school parking lot with his shotgun in his truck's gun rack.

1957 - Vice Principal comes over, looks at Jack's shotgun, goes to his car and gets his shotgun to show Jack.

2007 - School goes into lock down, FBI called, Jack hauled off to jail and never sees his truck or gun again. Counselors called in for traumatized students and teachers.

Scenario 2:

Johnny and Mark get into a fist fight after school.

1957 - Crowd gathers. Mark wins. Johnny and Mark shake hands and end up buddies.

2007 - Police called and SWAT team arrives -- they arrest both Johnny and Mark. They are both charged with assault and both expelled even though Johnny started it.

Scenario 3:

Jeffrey will not be still in class, he disrupts other students.

1957 - Jeffrey sent to the Principal's office and given a good paddling by the Principal. He then returns to class, sits still and does not disrupt class again.

2007 - Jeffrey is given huge doses of Ritalin. He becomes a zombie. He is then tested for ADD. The school gets extra money from the state because Jeffrey has a disability.

Scenario 4

Billy breaks a window in his neighbor's car and his Dad gives him a whipping with his belt.

1957 - Billy is more careful next time, grows up normal, goes to college and becomes a successful businessman.

2007 - Billy's dad is arrested for child abuse. Billy is removed to foster care and joins a gang. The state psychologist is told by Billy's sister that she remembers being abused herself and their dad goes to prison. Billy's mom has an affair with the psychologist.

Scenario 5:

Mark gets a headache and takes some aspirin to school.

1957 - Mark shares his aspirin with the Principal out on the smoking dock.

2007 - The police are called and Mark is expelled from school for drug violations. His car is then searched for drugs and weapons.

Scenario 6:

Pedro fails high school English.

1957 - Pedro goes to summer school, passes English and goes to college.

2007 - Pedro's cause is taken up by state. Newspaper articles appear nationally explaining that teaching English as a requirement for graduation is racist. ACLU files class action lawsuit against the state school system and Pedro's English teacher. English is then banned from core curriculum. Pedro is given his diploma anyway but ends up mowing lawns for a living because he cannot speak English.

Scenario 7:

Johnny takes apart leftover firecrackers from the Fourth of July, puts them in a model airplane paint bottle and blows up a red ant bed.

1957 - Ants die.

2007 - ATF, Homeland Security and the FBI are all called. Johnny is charged with domestic terrorism. The FBI investigates his parents -- and all siblings are removed from their home and all computers are confiscated. Johnny's dad is placed on a terror watch list and is never allowed to fly again.

Scenario 8:

Johnny falls while running during recess and scrapes his knee. He is found crying by his teacher, Mary. Mary hugs him to comfort him.

1957 - In a short time, Johnny feels better and goes on playing.

2007 - Mary is accused of being a sexual predator and loses her job. She faces 3 years in State Prison. Johnny undergoes 5 years of therapy.

Certainly we are required to consider just how far from love and simplicity we have come in only a few generations. The smarter we get the less we trust God--so much for independence.

MUSIC TO MELLOW YOUR MUTT

I want to tell you about a very special gift that you might give to yourself or friends who have hyper or disturbed pets. My friend Robert Bonham, PH. D. who is a concert pianist, has designed a wonderful CD of classical music to calm animals. It is has gotten some very good results and is quite pleasing of distraught humans as well. It is called "Music to Mellow Your Mutt", but it works for cats and people as well.

The music was carefully selected and programmed in accordance with the latest animal research, by Robert's wife, Dr. Suzanne Jonus, Ed.D., who is a sound therapist and psychologist.

This is a great anytime gift. Owners can even give it to their pets!
