

May Newsletter

Our pictures this month show early spring in Wyoming. We are still waiting. Dorian included a picture of a crystal layout that Linda Thomas did on me. The third one is Lander countryside.

Here we are to May and our big intensive on the 13, 14-15, "Expanding the Energy of Love to Live in the New World", with an evening event "Prepare Yourself for the Magik". We would love to see every one of you here. Wyoming is a beautiful state and Yellowstone and the Grand Teton parks will be opening just after the intensive. Any direction that you go there is beauty and exciting things to do. We invite you to come to the intensive and see Wyoming.

Every day the chasm between where the planet is moving and where it has been is widening. There is so much EGO talking out of both sides of its mouth. It is unfortunate that the next political race cannot wait until the middle of 2012. When things are said over and over it creates confusion. People stop listening or get angry over points that have no value. As President Obama has said, "We are required to focus on what is important rather than getting caught up in political diversions." In a way the media is like the Magician who distracts with one hand so that we will not see what is being done with the other hand. Soon we don't know which hand to watch.

I watched a program the other night, called "A House of Cards" about the "boom" of the housing industry from 2004 to 2006. This is not a new situation. I went into real estate in the mid-eighties at the beginning of a collapse of the housing market because of inflation brought about by a false market created by the realtors, lenders, banking system and a greedy desire of everyone to make more money. "Money is not the root of all evil", the blind insanity inspired by the smell of more stuff is the basis of financial disasters. The description of the "feeding frenzy" caused by the creation of bigger and better illusions on Wall Street and the desire of the public to have more created a toxic combination. People in foreign countries that had no idea what they were really investing, in "but it sounded good" and there was the lure of more money lost so much that towns went into default. "There are no free lunches" doesn't mean that there cannot be positive ways of increase, but we are personally responsible for being clear about whether the investment is solid or not. We pay the price when we do not pay attention. Allen Greenspan, knew exactly what was going on "but said that he didn't know how to stop it".

Pyramids are built on the shoulders of those at the bottom, yet many people will jump into them again and again in the hope that this time, "I will be the one who comes out on top". I feel that we come out on top by allowing it rather than by climbing over someone else.

Frankly, it makes me feel sad to hear people celebrating anyone's death, even bin Laden's. It would be wonderful if the celebration meant that our troops could come home and there would be no more war, but that is not the case. I hear a great deal of fear talk about the Muslim's, but how much closer to the Muslim religion are we, than we might believe, when death is celebrated instead of life? We truly are all one. How much love can there be when revenge is still so powerful? The concept of "I love my people and family and hate the people and families that are not mine”, cannot continue to work”. Love and hatred cannot exist in the same place.

I listen to what the Masters are telling us and it is sweet and simple. There is no convolution in it. It is a clear message of moving to a new understanding that is not beyond anyone on the planet to grasp if they are willing. The biggest “downfall” of revelation is that no one can do it for you. You are the Master that you have been waiting for!!!

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON

This New Moon falls close to the mid-point between spring and summer. This shift is celebrated around the world, especially in the Earth oriented cultures.

The Maypole represents the World Tree. In the Druidic religion the trees play an extremely important part in all of the rituals.

The new Moon in Taurus reminds us that our physical body deserves respect and honor and we would be well served to find joy in our body, our Earth journey and with our fellow human beings. Wherever this New Moon falls in your chart it brings inspiration and the recognition of the practical approach in accomplishing what is desired.

Aries is the beginning. Taurus puts foundations under the project or idea. Aries goes into new and unknown territory. Taurus claims the new “land” and establishes a connection to what has been discovered. More and more in the energy of these times we are called to discover what is valuable and important to us, rather than what others tell us we should think, have or do. What brings YOU joy? What makes your heart sing?

Venus, ruler of Taurus, is in Aries, co-joining Mercury, Jupiter and Mars. Uranus is also moving in Aries now. With five of the ten planets in Aries the essence of forward movement is strong. We can break new ground and resolve old dilemmas with a greater ease. This combination of planets in Aries sparks a desire for expressing your own originality, enthusiasm and personality. There are many behaviors and forms of conduct that have been tolerated in the past, but are being revealed as completely unacceptable now. “The only way out is in”, as St. Germain would say. We are required to discover who we are from the inside out, rather than in the mirror of someone else’s opinion.

The very nature of Aries can be rash or impulsive so staying balanced and clear in your actions is necessary. Being assertive in your actions does not exclude cooperation or the consideration of others. The quincunx between Saturn in Libra and Venus/Mercury in Aries suggests that we speak frankly, but respect the ideas and points of view that others have. In personal relationships there is a necessity to acknowledge where things have gotten out of balance or where change is happening. When change is allowed without limited perspective each person in the relationship can experience greater freedom and authenticity.

Because Taurus is the “Banker” of the horoscope, outdated attitudes toward money and material goods are highlighted by this New Moon. We are required to be innovative in how we solve social problems. How can we heal negative situations without raising taxes, granting charity or turning to already overloaded governments? Imagine paying people with fresh fruits and vegetables when they help clean up the environment or perform tasks that help to make the general quality of life greater on the planet. Taurus focuses on the riches of the Earth and certainly we are looking at people who are starving because there is an insane surge of cost in the market place for the foods that would make us healthy, while “junk food” is cheap and deadly. Community gardens are becoming more popular in many places and people are getting together to create situations that sustain many. Look to the good of the whole rather than the limited benefit of a “chosen few”.

It is time to let go of what is burdensome rather than pleasurable. Perhaps we would be best served to sit down and consider whether the ways that we are spending our money really are achieving the highest outcome. What can we change to reveal the “rich places” in our lives rather than focusing on the lack?

FULL MOON

The New Moon sets things in motion. By the Full Moon these ideas, events or projects that were started in New Moon conception have either been funded with the energy of thriving or forgotten and left to die. The light of the Full Moon illumines our true desires and inner direction, but it can also shed light on our fears and phobias.

The Full Moon in Taurus connects us with the Earth Mother and her bounties. How are we using the riches of our planet? A good gardener knows that the weeds and dead branches must be removed in order for the healthy plants to grow. With nature’s instability and the ever increasing costs of fuel and the necessities of life we are required to look at how we eat and where we put our focus when it comes to feeding our bodies and minds well. The food we eat, in most part, comes from over a thousand miles away. The cost of gas, petroleum based pesticides, insecticides, plastic packaging and fertilizers drive the cost of food up in unnecessary ways. There are more than 60,000 different additives, most of which have never been tested in combination, that are used to compensate for the lack of freshness, flavor and nutrients. What are we doing to our children? To ourselves? We simply cannot afford to be unpresent about what we are eating any longer. It is literally killing us.

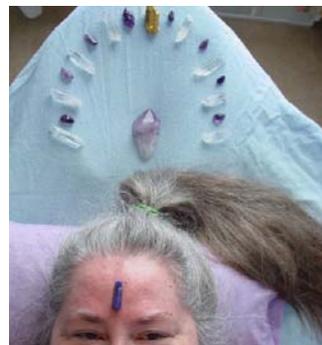

Both Taurus and Scorpio deal with our finances—personal resources and what we share with others. This Full Moon puts the spotlight on much required changes in this area, also. Taurus is basically hedonistic and loves the richness of life in its most natural state. When we are filled with gratitude and wonder we naturally desire to share the goodness with others, which becomes Scorpio at its best. St. Germain has explained that money is a symbol of the currency flow of God—“it is energy”. There was a time when this knowledge was accepted and represented a way to connect human gifts with human needs.

Unfortunately, in these present times money seems to hold us back from sharing those human gifts—the most important gift being the gift of who we are. The JOB mentality keeps talented people enslaved to “making a living” when very often they are neither being fed financially or spiritually. This full Moon illuminates where each one of us must make a shift. As the saying goes “Do what you love and the money will follow”!

Venus, Mercury and Mars were close together in Aries at the last New Moon and are now gathered together in Taurus to make a trine to Pluto in Capricorn. This adds Pluto’s transformational push to our thoughts, ideas, dreams and actions. Saturn, retrograde in Libra, is moving to into position to square Pluto again causing us to consider carefully the necessity to make big changes in our thinking. Saturn makes a sesquiquadrate to the Sun and a semi-square to the Moon just before the peak of the Full Moon and this begins the tingles and tickles of the requirement for changes. On May 22 the Sun squares Neptune at 1 degree Gemini/Pisces. This thins the veil between our EGO and our higher self, opening the way to greater trust of the unseen and the faith to make the next step even if we cannot see exactly where that step will take us.

This Full Moon again presents us with the choice to adjust to the new circumstances that we are being confronted with or remain in lockstep and be controlled by old forces that are becoming more outmoded moment by moment. “The goal of life is to make your heartbeat match the beat of the universe, to match your nature with Nature.”— (Joseph Campbell)

CRYSTAL CORNER

Another month and I hope you are enjoying beautiful spring weather. Springtime in Wyoming is nothing if not like a roller coaster. One day it's sunny and warm and the next we have snow and rain! I'm ready for sunny and warm!

I'm continuing this month with information from the book 'The Crystal Zodiac' by Judy Hall. It is such a fun book and full of information for those who would like to work with the stones and are not sure exactly how to do that. This zodiac period is the sign of Taurus, the bull. It began on April 20th and will end on May 20th. The birthstone of this sign is the Emerald.

I have a special affinity for this gemstone and although it isn't my birthstone, I use it frequently. Your planetary ruler is Venus, the goddess of love, so it is no surprise that outwardly you are a sensible and pragmatic soul but inwardly you are sensual and hedonistic. Like Venus, you relish all the good things of life, valuing your comfort, and the Emerald encourages you to enjoy life to the full. This is a life-affirming stone with great integrity. The Emerald enhances your strength of character and enables you to overcome the misfortunes of life. You dislike change and your birthstone promotes enduring partnership. Emerald also helps you to heal negative feelings and supports your infinite patience. There are times when your patient approach to life becomes a handicap and a real challenge. Your sign is noted for holding on to the status quo and Peridot is an excellent stone for facilitating necessary change.

Taurus can be extremely fixed and you are the archetypal square peg in a round hole who tries to accommodate the discomfort rather than find a place which fits your abilities. Aquamarine offers you the courage to climb out of the hole.

The intense blue of Lapis aids you in opening your intuitive side and takes you beyond the material world.

The opening of the intuition is also aided by the Selenite, which creates a feeling of safety while encouraging you to reach out to the spiritual realm.

Taurus is connected with the neck and shoulders and health problems center around the throat and the thyroid. Blue Lace Agate is an excellent throat healer as it removes the blocks to self-expression that can underlie dis-eases of the throat and stiffness in the neck and shoulders. The Lapis and even Larimar are powerful healing stones for the thyroid or larynx that alleviate painful throat conditions or stiffness of the neck and shoulders.

THE GARDEN FAIRY

Pepper

The history of the spice trade, above all, the history of pepper, the 'King of Spices'. Pepper has been moving westward from India for 4,000 years. It has been used in trading as an exchange medium like money and, at times, has been valued so highly that a single peppercorn dropped on the floor would be hunted like a lost pearl. In classical times 'tributes' were paid in pepper, and both Attila the Hun and Alaric I the Visigoth demanded pepper as a substantial part of Rome's ransom. Since the Middle Ages, pepper was the core of the European spice trade, with Genoa and Venice dominating the market. The Italian 'peppers' monopoly of overland trade routes was the major determining factor in driving the search for an eastern sea route.

Pepper comes from several species of a vinous plant, the spice being the fruit, called peppercorns. Black pepper is the dried, unripe berry. The corns are wrinkled and spherical, about 1/8 inch in diameter. Malabar and Tellicherry pepper are both considered top quality due to size and maturity, with only 10% of the largest corns being graded as Tellicherry.

White pepper starts out the same as the black, but is allowed to ripen more fully on the vine. The outer shell is then removed by soaking the berries in water until the shell falls off, or are held under flowing spring water, yielding a whiter, cleaner pepper. Green pepper is from the same fruit but is harvested before they mature.

Pink pepper, which is not a vinous pepper, comes from the French island of Reunion. Pink peppercorns have a brittle, papery pink skin enclosing a hard, irregular seed, much smaller than the whole fruit.

Pepper is very aromatic and pungent. Black pepper is very fiery. White pepper is less pungent and green pepper is milder with a cleaner, fresher flavor.

Pepper is best purchased whole, as freshly ground pepper is vastly superior to the ready ground powder. Whole peppercorns keep their flavor indefinitely but quickly lose their aroma and heat after they have been ground. Peppercorns are very hard but easily ground in a peppermill. Cracked pepper is the partially broken corns, crushed using a mortar and pestle or with a rolling pin. Dried green peppercorns can be reconstituted for mashing into a paste by soaking in water; Peppercorns should be stored in airtight containers, away from sunlight.

Pepper is best ground directly on to food. With hot food it is best to add pepper well towards the end of the cooking process, to preserve its aroma. White pepper is used in white sauces rather than black pepper, which would give the sauce a speckled appearance. Green peppercorns can be mashed with garlic, cinnamon or to make a spiced butter or with cream to make a fresh and attractive sauce for fish. Pink peppercorns are called for in a variety of dishes, from poultry to vegetables and fish.

CHICKEN BREASTS IN GREEN PEPPERCORN SAUCE

Pink and green peppercorns are usually available packed in water or vinegar; white and black will be found dried. The flavor of the chicken and green peppercorns creates an ideal marriage of coloring and taste.

4 tbsp. butter
3 tbsp. minced onion
1/3 c. dry white wine
1/2 c. heavy cream
2 tsp. green peppercorns, drained & chopped
1 tsp. whole peppercorns, drained
1 tsp. fresh tarragon, or 1/4 tsp. dried Salt
Pound and flatten the chicken breasts. Sauté in the butter until nicely browned on both sides. Transfer to a heated platter and keep warm.

Add the onion to the skillet and sauté until soft. Add the wine and bring to a boil. Reduce to 2 tablespoons, scraping up any bits on the bottom of the pan. Stir in the heavy cream, peppercorns and tarragon. Continue cooking until reduced and thickened. Remove from heat and correct seasonings. Spoon the sauce over the chicken breasts and serve immediately.

Serves 4.

TAROT TALK

Our tarot cards this month are the Aces. It has not been long since I talked about the Magician. This month I want to put the emphasis on the Aces that support the Magician's magik.

The One energy is about new beginnings. There are some people who are actually saying that the end of the Mayan calendar will occur in October of this year. Whether it is in 2011 or 2012 we are very close to in to the shift and we are experiencing huge changes that are beyond our physical control.

The Ace of Crystals reveals the brilliance of a mind that is stepping out side of the box. The clarity of a diamond and the beauty of creativity are blended into this card. It heralds new thought and new imagery. As you move beyond the old ways of thinking and begin to let your imagination soar the energy of the Aquarian Age opens up before you. There is true excitement in the brilliance of your own thoughts expanded into realms where they are not encumbered by limits and derided by those who still fear change.

The Ace of Cups is the fulfillment that comes from allowing your feeling nature to direct the choices of your life. When this occurs you can truly say, "My cup runneth over". This is a Love that surpasses anything that the illusion could portray as love. This is the Ecstasy of Divine inspiration.

This brings a sense of belonging that has been missing in the makeup of humanity in the separation of the illusion.

The Ace of Worlds brings a feeling of success that is yours, rather than the fame that is measured by the world's markers. This is success that fills you up. It is not determined by how much money is made, but by how much satisfaction is gained. There is no point of "you may have the joy of sharing or money, but not both". This is where the limits are removed and you can HAVE IT ALL!!

The Ace of Wands brings illumination that does more than just temporally inspire you. This is enlightenment in big, bold letters. This is the internal realization of who you are, what you are here for and why it is so very important.

When the Aces appear in your reading you are in for a treat. New beginnings are available that will change your life and direction in such a way that you can never go back. The Aces tell you that Magik is a foot. You are off on some inviting new adventure that will open doors of possibility for you. New people, new places and new ideas are waiting for you as you step up to embrace the "impossible".

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters, We desire to offer you an incorporation! An incorporation takes you beyond the confines of meditation or visualization because both of these ideas bring to the mind a requirement to decide how things must work or be done.

An incorporation simply says, allow this and let it be. We are bringing to the Earth a major transformation using the nuclear waters to raise the vibration of the planet. INCORPORATE THIS:

Feel the planet in love. See every molecule of water on the ball holding the love essence that Dr. Emoto has shown you in the Messages in Water. Feel the love energy pouring into the water, into the emotional nature of every human being and animal on the planet. Imagine rose oil essence imbuing the waters and accelerating the transformation of the planet. Allow yourself to experience the love soothing and calming you and everything and everyone in the whole world. THIS IS NOT SOMETHING THAT YOU HAVE TO DO FOR THE WORLD!!! THIS IS SOMETHING THAT YOU LET HAPPEN. Your mind does not have to manage how this could possibly be. RELAX!!! ALLOW!!! BE AT PEACE!!! There is nothing that you must do for the world but let it heal. You are not responsible for its healing. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR HEALING.

Feel the Earth mending. Feel her relaxing into the love vibration. Feel her rising up into the higher frequencies and let yourself move along with it. Allow yourself to be transported, transmuted and transformed into the Master that you are. No more doing, DOING, DOING.

THERE ARE NO ACCIDENTS!!! NOTHING HAPPENS FOR "NO GOOD REASON".

There are no decisions that have to be made about what is GOOD and what is bad.

You are moving closer and closer to the transforming energy of the changes. The mind wants a date. LET IT BE NOW!!! Let it be today. Forgive casting your eyes about to make sure that everyone else is doing IT right, because that creates a deep fear that when the time comes you may be left behind because you did not attend to your own acceleration. Focus on the love that you are, rather than the love that you are lacking. Feel the changes taking place within you. The mind wants to turn your attention back to stopping others from what they are doing. THE MOST POWERFUL TOOL OF CHANGE IS LOVING ATTENTION TO WHAT YOU DESIRE. Rather than always looking for the faults and flaws in the choices of others, focus on your own desires.

Politics and religion have always been games of division. The primary objective has been to divide and conquer. War is a smoke screen of the illusion to keep the attention away from what is really being done. Beloved Masters, WAR IS BIG BUSINESS OF THE OLD ORDER. Have you not begun to notice that EVERYTHING about "big business" is beginning to collapse? Corporations, governments, the military are suddenly out of money. Yet things continue to function. The media, very carefully puts before the world, only how things are falling apart. I will remind you again, one more time, Beloved Masters, that there is enough hard currency on the planet for every man, woman and child to have at least four Billion dollars each. The EGO rises up in anger and shouts, "Then where is mine?" It is just beyond the wall of fear, anger and hatred that you have builded in the illusion. When you get clear and still, centered into you holy space in the solar plexus, you begin to realize that everything that you desire is already with you, but the frustration and demands of the world deny your vision. Emotions are reactive and prevent clarity. Feelings are pure, crystal clear and very revealing in a powerful and Loving way.

Let us get very clear!! I AM a master of clarity and what I desire to share with you is that money is and always has been a symbol of the God force. The illusion has distorted the power and made money into a god. As you begin to feel the changes on the planet in a POWERFUL and POSITIVE way you add to the up spiral of loving essence. Begin to notice that when you do not worry or attempt to calculate how things are going to work out, there is plenty. Keeping the attention on lack, loss and limit are the last efforts of the EGO to keep you enslaved in the illusion. When you find yourself saying, "I just don't know where the money is going to come from", STOP and get still. The mind has come to the end of its ability to figure things out. Therefore, when you open yourself up to an outpouring of new information from your spirit the next step is made obvious in just the moment that you require the insight—not one moment before. BE STILL AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD lets you hear the next move when it is time. The truth is, Beloved Masters that the need for money is one of the biggest illusions in this illusion. What you really require is to be healthy, happy and fulfilled. Money helps, but without the willingness to allow the good, money just puts off the inevitable negative outcome that worry brings, briefly.

The discipline of the "spiritual warrior" is never to battle or defend, but to uphold the good in truth and love. Live it, LIVE IT, LIVE IT. Spirit does not have to decide what is good. Love is the guide that leads the feelings to experience what is divinely appropriate. The choices of love are never made based on "what is good for me and mine" over what is good for all. The mind in its limit only sees the "small picture" full of feat and doubt. Love opens the vision to a perspective that is so grand and so vast that there is no question that EVERYTHING REALLY IS ALL RIGHT! THERE IS NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT. THERE IS NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT!

Worry is an investment in a bank that pays no interest. Worry takes and takes and takes, and when you are done there is no more than there was to begin with—a debt that never gets paid. The Mind keeps pushing to hold the attention on “not enough”. It tells you that if you do not worry something bad will happen. Beloved Masters, you have listened to the Mind, now listen to your Spirit. LOVE gives massive returns in energy and in physical manifestation of satisfaction. Love lifts you up right now.

When you are “in Love”, (not lust or romance, but pure love) you feel as though you could accomplish anything that you could dream. Now, remember the love energy in the water. Let that Love flow in the waters that comprise your body. Let that love lift you up. Feel yourself at One with every GOOD thing that the planet has to offer and beautiful things will be revealed to you that have always been there but you could not even imagine them, because the mind cannot take in the idea of the world without illusion.

We do note that when ever there is a requirement to conserve on money the first thought is to remove the beauty from life—take away the music, the arts, the gentleness, the inspirational, so that the wars may go on. We are also seeing that there is now a movement to make the warriors keep fighting with no value to their own lives or the lives of the families. Yet those who would cut the soldiers income would boldly speak of family values and how important children are, while they make sure that their own children and families are well cared for. Dear Ones, which way is it for certainly it cannot be both ways? This question is not to make anger or cause more conflict, but to make you aware of the places where you have discounted others to make sure that you are doing well. The New Age is about unity and balance. THE END OF THE WORLD is the end of injustices that hold an idea that only a few people have worth and the rest are disposable. All of these concepts are beginning to fall apart because Love would never allow them. They simply could not exist.

Trust the Love that is being poured out on you. Trust that we, as emissaries of God, are not here to deal out misery and punishment, but to help you remember the sweetness that was yours before you made the choice to play this game. Take each glass of water that you drink and before you take a sip, hold your hands over the water and bless it with your intensions of Love and plenty for yourself and the whole world. If you find your mind wanting to limit who can have the good, forgive that. If you withhold good from anyone you deny it to yourself, also.

These are not words to think about, these are words to employ in every aspect of your living. Read this slowly and read it again, because your EGO will distort the first reading to fit old beliefs. The time of thinking, thinking, thinking is passing because it disconnects you from who you are. I am not speaking about making snap decisions forced under pressure (don't think about it just do it), but the gentle and thorough choices made by allowing every decision to be guided by Spirit in Love. Force and fear have no place in Love. Cruelty for the sake of domination is being revealed every day, more and more, for what it is. Beloved Ones open yourselves to the Love that God pours out on you continuously and feel how clear and strong and free you feel in it. Free people who live in Love will never allow tyranny because it simply would not occur to those in Love.

Feel the changes and live them in Love. Forgive spending your time in worry and fear, looking for how to stop the conflict. Dwell on the feelings of power in joy, strength in peace and the wonder of living the Magik of your ability to call good to you at a moments notice.

You are Loved beyond measure. We are delighted to be of assistance to all. We know that Love simply does not empower negative forces. It does not fight them for that would feed the desire for harm. Love feeds the gentle, holy essence that makes life worth living. Life is vital, passionate, full of energy and accomplishments and Love feeds the creativity of Masterful living. “If you wish to grow roses, forgive focusing on the weeds”. In the greatest of Love we are here. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain
