

October Newsletter

SIGN SEEN ON THE BILLBOARD OF A LOCAL DRIVE-IN: “Most Isisms are wasisms. Dorian was going to get a picture of this, but by the time that she got home and got her camera and went back the sign had been changed. Still this is a great commentary on the changing times.

Our pictures this month are of the Red Canyon Loop, a local animal habitat and a most beautiful drive no matter what time of year. The first picture shows that fall has come to the Lander Valley. The other two, taken the same day, simply show the wonder of the wide open spaces of Wyoming. The red rocks tumbled from above and landed looking very much like praying hands. The last picture, at the end of the newsletter, is the road that leads to unlimited possibilities.

In just over two weeks I will be heading east for my annual fall tour and intensive in Newborn, GA. My first stop will be DeBary, FL which is near Orlando. For those of you who might want to attend a group or have a reading with St. Germain while I am in Florida, you may contact Katy Kagan at Together in Health 386 668-0009. I will be there from October 22-29.

In Georgia my contact person is Helen Dumba, owner of the Crystal Organic Farm in Newborn, Ga. Her number is 770 784-1060. I will be in Newborn, October 31-November 12.

For those of you who live in the Asheville area of N. C. we will be in Weaverville, N. C. November 13-15. We will have at least one group on Friday the 13 and possibly a second one on the 14. I will be available for private sessions also. My contact person is Aurora Fox who has Aquarian Energetics, music for the new times. Her number is 828 545-8627. Linda Lube will be assisting Aurora. Linda's number is 828 777-8540.

We are also looking into a stop in Rogers, Arkansas to do a group there. Check out the November newsletter for conformation on that stop, which would be around the 18 of November.

I always look forward to the trip east. I have so many wonderful friends there. I also enjoy seeing autumn twice. I get to experience the changing colors in Wyoming in late September and then the fall season in Georgia and sometimes Tennessee in Oct.-Nov.

I hold an intension that all of you are faring well in all of the changes that we are experiencing. These times resemble university level challenges. Life is giving us the big exam. The way to pass the test is to stop trying to get the answers from what you have known and let the information reveal itself when it is time. Big change from how we have done things in the past, huh? We cannot plan because our plans are based on what have known before. We must take a deep breath and move forward in FAITH, not blind faith, but absolute trust that we are guided from within. The results are astounding when you really trust the process. Don't just try it, live it.

Rainbow Center News

St. Germain had originally said that the Drama series would be three groups, but he has decided that there must be another one. Our next group, "Let's Deal with the Drama 4: Forgiving and Releasing Fear, Anger and Guilt" will be October 11 at the Rainbow Center, 4th & Lincoln in Lander.

If you purchase one set of CD's of the collection on Drama, each set of CD's is $25. If you purchase the whole set of four groups it is $80 or $20 per set.

CD's can be purchased on the website at www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2009groups.html

This Mercury retrograde just passed was a real challenge. Dorian ran into some interesting obstacles in getting the program to run for the ninth virtue, Integrity, which St. Germain has called the culminating virtue. He says that the first nine virtues have been carefully woven to create a foundation for the last three. Truth, Faith and Love are the major keys and Truth and Love are the two strands of DNA that we have worked with in our sleep state. As we awaken, the ten sleeping strands (virtues) are beginning to operate. The whole of who we truly are gets to be taken in slowly and absorbed thoroughly. Nine is now available and our tenth virtue, Truth will be available about mid- October. We are hoping to have Faith, the November virtue ready to go before I leave for the east.

Both CD's and DVD's of the first six virtues are available. If you purchase the set of six virtues you get the sixth one free. Virtues seven thru nine—Vision, Compassion/Wisdom and Integrity— are available. Truth and Faith will be available this month.

To order CD's or DVD's www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/evenings.html

Our next intensive, "Realizing and Living the Mystical, Magikal You" will be November 7-8 in Newborn, GA at the Crystal Organic Farm. Molly will be available for private readings from October 31-November 11. Call Helen Dumba, 770 784-1060 for registration and appointments.

ASTROLOGY

FULL MOON

The Full Moon in Aries occurs on October 3-4. Aries is the sign of "I". It is the pioneer, the adventurer and one who has a tendency to forge ahead to be the first one to experience new territory, new ideas and new perspectives. It is true that our perspectives are not only changing, but we are being rewired. A burning question now is, "How do we make it through the madness of these strange and magikal times?" Libra is the "We" sign and focuses on relationships—both intimate and public, fairness, justice and a desire for harmony. This axis brings the attention to how we see others so that we can recognize that they are reflections of the "I"ness of us. Most of us tend to project our thoughts, feelings and perspectives onto other people. "If I feel uncomfortable or rejected it is because 'they' don't like me." If we can be objective we will discover that 'they' are just reacting to the vibes that we are broadcasting that say "I don't think you like me".

Most of the planetary action is in the last ten degrees of the signs so this Full Moon makes some wide angle aspects but nothing really direct is pushing the Lunar force. Venus and Jupiter being the two exceptions are bringing an essence of love to open our hearts and lift our consciousness to a higher plane. Venus, the ruler of Libra, brings that wisdom of the heart—a cool hand of reason to sooth the fevered brow of the warrior Mars, ruler of Aries. Jupiter is expansion on every level and it seeks to draw our attention to the pleasant, the powerful and the high-minded aspects of life. Jupiter makes a quincunx to Venus which shows that we are at choice. A quincunx presents the opportunity to allow the energy of the aspect to serve us in a positive way or believe that nothing better can come to us and decide that we are the victims of fate, which just brings more conflict. Because this Venus will be in aspect to all of the outer planets we certainly can choose to see ourselves as creators, rather than victims and appreciate that our internal guidance steers us in the Divinely appropriate direction. Venus opposes Uranus and quincunxes Neptune on October 9 opening gateways into the unseen and unknown that can change how we perceive the planetary evolution and understand our world. On October 13 Venus cojoins Saturn and we can get a clearer picture of love in a very grounded way, rather than some romantic notion. On October 15 Venus makes its fourth square of the year to Pluto, which strips away any useless illusions around what makes us happy. These aspects reveal what matters most to us; they move us to eliminate what numbs us and distracts us from our soul intentions.

For centuries science has propagated a mechanistic view of life and separated matter from spirit. Modern science is showing us that the heart has a powerful, innate intelligence that is in constant communication with the brain and every cell of the body. On a subtle, but no less powerful level, it has been discovered that the heart generates an electromagnetic force field thousands of times stronger than that of the brain, emitting waveforms that can be detected up to ten feet away—and potentially around the world.

The Sun's approaching trine to Jupiter, exact on October 10, supports networking and brainstorming with those who are supportive of the ideas that we are formulating. We can take a more innovative direction in our creations. The Jupiter/Chiron/Neptune conjunction in Aquarius stirs us to wake up and remember who we are—Spirit dancing with matter. Over the next few weeks all three of these planets end their retrograde period setting the stage for the next big step in our evolution.

The Moon in Aries reminds us to be bold and willing to try something new. How else can Creation evolve? Mars the ruler of Aries trines Uranus on October 4. The message is "Act on your intuition!"

The Sabian symbols for this Full Moon—12 degrees Aries: "A flock of white geese flies overhead across clear skies: A soul as yet socially immature and unadjusted; not come down to full and concrete expression. Self-discovery" and 12 degrees Libra: "Miners are emerging from a deep well into sunlight: Participation in the world's work. Whole-souled giving of self to service; or inability to bring self to effort."—illustrate the requirement for group efforts and for movement toward the light.

In a time where the divisiveness of illusions seems to be more powerful than ever we are called to forgive the need to be right and search for the highest good for all concerned. We have said "What about me?" long enough. When the collective "We" benefits, the whole is made stronger. A pyramid has a broad base. Unfortunately, so often, those on the bottom do not receive the rewards of supporting the upper levels. The madness of change has brought out the disdain of life and the lack of value of humanity. With each phase of the Moon we are being motivated further along the path of opportunity to dwell in the refined dimensions where the life that we desire is not just a fairy tale. The choice is yours—cling to the past which offers nothing but the ashes of what was or move into the unknown future that is filled with unlimited promise. "You must make the changes for yourself, but it is impossible to make them by yourself."

NEW MOON

October 17-18, brings the Libra New Moon. The signs of the zodiac show us our evolution rather than what we are in this moment. The New Moon brings opportunities to resolve individual and collective issues that we have been struggling with for a long time. The archetype of Libra seeks to recognize, tolerate and integrate what appears to be its opposite. There is a desire for equal relationships without compromise to one's own essential nature and values. Libra brings the reminder that peace is an inside job. "Know Thyself" is much more than just a trite cliché. As we come to understand and accept ourselves, the more compassion and appreciation we can have for others.

This New Moon forms a square with the Moon's Nodes—North Node in Capricorn and South Node in Cancer. The commentary is that we are being brought to a greater awareness of our own spiritual growth and how that affects the collective mind. Any planet that squares the nodes applies extra evolutionary pressure on that polarity. We are encouraged to release the negative patterns encoded in the South Node in order to fulfill the positive expression of the North Node. In Capricorn the North Node calls us to develop self-reliance and discipline—to live our power and carry spiritual maturity. In this we become responsible adults with well defined boundaries. Through the South Node in Cancer we are asked to release codependency, martyrdom and destructive attachments to family, ethnic groups or nations. Where do you still expect someone outside of you to make your life work? Accept the challenge of being responsible for your own choices, which then determines the outcome of your actions. Toward the cusp of Libra/Scorpio (about the 22-23 of October) the Sun will square the degree of the July solar eclipse. Watch for important insights into what you must do in order to move forward on your spiritual journey.

On the 29 of October Saturn will enter Libra to stay for the next three years. Libra is justice, balance, equality and truth; Saturn stands for law and order, cause and effect and the time/space continuum. The last time Saturn made a sojourn through Libra was September, 1980 to August 1983. During that time frame the United Nations General Assembly called for Soviet troop withdrawal from Afghanistan; a United States congressional committee formally condemned the internment of Japanese-Americans during World War II; the oldest college in Cambridge, England voted to admit female students; Sandra Day O’Conner became the first female U. S. Supreme Court Justice; Jesse Jackson was the first black man to address the Alabama legislature; and Guion Bluford became the first black astronaut. That period also brought us the first IBM PC (personal computer), the CD (compact disc), and camcorders; the release of the movie Gandhi; and Voyager 1 space probe’s first photos of Saturn.

The upcoming transit of Saturn through Libra will again bring to the fore issues of equality, justice and progress. As individuals we are required to examine our patterns in relationships, questioning the roles we play and renegotiating or finishing contracts that we have made. The victim/intimidator roles must be released and human equality be highlighted as we move into the Aquarian Age. Certainly, as Saturn prepares to step into the sign of equality we are seeing the seamy side of inappropriate relationships in the Grand Old Party, that has become known as the “No” party recently. Both Democrats and Republicans will be required to make major reassessments of how they have conducted “business as usual”. Equality means that the country is operated with consideration of all the people, rather than certain special interest groups actually dictating how things will be. Saturn supports teamwork, reconciliation and equal rights. During this pass through Libra Saturn will make three squares to Pluto in Capricorn, intensifying the cosmic imperative to reform all partnerships and institutions that are not serving the best interests of all concerned.

The Sabian symbol for 25 degrees of Libra is a reminder that what is falling away is part of a natural process: “A falling golden leaf teaches life to a school-boy: Discovery of deeper elements of wisdom after intellectual knowledge wearies. Growth through awareness of basic meanings.” The mind is the realm of the EGO and dwells on lack. The Soul is the realm of spirit and contemplates all that you are and can become. When the two are blended the mind can forget limit and lend its creativity to bringing about greater good.

CRYSTAL CORNER

This column will be a departure from most of them I contribute. I would like to take you to Denver and the Fall Gem & Mineral show. For those of you with a love of the stones and crystals, a show like this is heaven, a kid in the candy store experience. We live about nine hours from Denver and some of the territory between here and there is pretty bleak. But beauty is truly in the eye of the beholder and that beauty can be found anywhere if you but look. The day was phenomenal, with blue skies and awesome fluffy clouds. There were hundreds of antelope lazing the day away complete with a few late Spring babies. The other drivers even seemed more courteous. We reached Denver in time to do a little shopping and, trust me; there is never enough time to do what you would like to do at a show like this. (Remind me to forgive THAT law!) We found some wonderful stones that I would like to share with you.

This past year an orange Kyanite has appeared. Kyanite is usually blue or blue-green but this is a burnt-orange color. I have a feeling this crystal will be very important to our future ongoing. Information on it will be shared when I get it as well as pictures. I also turned up some Kansas pop rocks also sold as Boji Stones. It has been some time since I have seen any for sale. Also back in stock are the flame cut Amethyst, (think Violet Flame) Rose Quartz and Smoky Quartz. These are top quality and make wonderful gifts.

Have you ever seen a fluffy white kitten and just wanted to dig your hands into the fur? Well, do I have a crystal for you! This one is known as Okenite and is made up of crystals so fine they feel like fur.

They are a striking white and look like furry snowballs. These don't take a lot of touching as they will lose the furry look and feel. And for a great contrast, we have some soft mint green talc. It is really beautiful.

Moldavite has always been popular and I came home with a couple of nice pendulums of sterling silver and Moldavite. Smoky Quartz pendulums are also back in stock.

We have a full line of chip stone necklaces including Charoite that I haven't seen in a necklace before.

For information on the above stones or any others, please contact me.

Happy journey into Autumn!

TAROT TALK

The Tarot card for October is the Sage of Worlds—The Master. The Sages are the old ones, the grandparents, the wise teachers. As we enter into the harvest time of the year it is to let the teachers show us how to receive the rewards of our creations and how to powerfully and lovingly return a portion of our good to the whole.

The Sage of Worlds is the epitome of professionalism. You too are a Master. Master your craft, take pride in your workmanship and trust your experience. Your achievements are the reflections of your character. Enjoy your work so much that it becomes a delight in your life. Acknowledge your power and share your knowledge with others. Teach, advise, guide.

Contribute to the advancement of the good—locally and globally. Give back to the world what it has given you. Embrace the understanding that as you give it prospers you. The more you make, the more you give, the more you make—it is a never-ending circle of abundance. Harvest the seeds that you have sown; let nothing go to waste. Libra is a sign of balance and equality. The penurious person says, “never enough” and the squanderer says, “I don't care, as long as I get my share”. Give joyfully in fullness and you will receive in like measure.

This is a time of observing your creations from a distance—objectively and being a part of the creation at the same time. Separation has distorted the ability to be one with what you are manifesting without hovering over the creation for fear of loss.

When the Sage of Worlds appears in your reading you are being reminded that you are capable of bringing about anything that you desire as long as it is for the highest good of all. Look for wise guidance to help you find the answers that you have been seeking. A teacher, friend or even an absolute stranger can give you just the bit of information that removes the obstacle and lets you go forward. Enjoy the harvest or outcome of a project or the completion of something for which you have waited a long time to fulfill .

The Points of Light Gallery in Asheville, N. C. is now open as of 9-09-09. For those of you who live in or near Asheville, N. C. or even those who have to drive a bit, this is a most amazing place. Go and see for yourselves if you get the chance.

PLEASE READ THIS!!!

Cake Mixes & Toxins- Pass this on. You never know whose life you may save by doing so. For those of you at work, PLEASE remember to check your cupboards when you get home tonight!!!

This is confirmed on Snopes <http://www.snopes.com/medical/toxins/pancake.asp> A student at HBHS (high school) had pancakes this week and it almost became fatal. His Mom (registered nurse) made him pancakes, dropped him off at school and headed to play tennis She never takes her cell phone on the court but did this time and her son called to say he was having trouble breathing.. She told him to go to the nurse immediately and proceeded to call school and alert the nurse. The nurse called the paramedics and they were there in 3 minutes and worked on the boy all the way to the hospital. He came so close to dying. Evidently this is more common then I ever knew. Check the expiration dates on packages like pancakes and cake mixes that have yeast which over time develop spores. Apparently, the mold that forms in old mixes can be toxic! Throw away ALL OUTDATED pancake mix, brownie mixes, Bisquick, cake & cookie mixes, etc., you have in your home.

P.S. Tell this to your children, grandchildren, nephews, nieces and anyone else who keeps these mixes on the shelf.

St. Germain's message for October

Beloved Masters! I bring you warmest greetings in this time of your time.

Equality like prosperity is a word that is both desired and feared. The concept of being equal takes away the perspective of being better and therefore, appears to reduce one to a lesser status. If you are equal it means that you might be as bad as those that you disdain. However, if you are equal it can mean that you have to stretch, get out of your comfort zone and aspire to higher, loftier goals. Since everyone on the planet has been asleep for so long the necessity to be aware, alert and present is extremely uncomfortable right now. The EGO is complaining about any and all changes that you must make in order to fulfill your spiritual up spiral. The mind wants to put outlandish interpretations on very clear directives. So let us return to equal. Take away the robes of flesh and the souls are equal. Take away the trappings of physicality and you are all equal. Take away the highly individual choices of how to achieve Mastery or not and you are equal. Now take all of these aspects of your uniqueness to heart and recognize that equality means that each one of you has this Divine right to design your life just as you say. (The EGO has just run forward to the front of the court of law to argue the case that you would have never, never chosen the life that you are living.) Beloved Masters, We do beg to differ with you, because We understand that you are totally capable of bring about Heaven on Earth for yourself if you will it. You are so convinced that what you see in front of you and what you hear from your media is real. You make your choices based on limit and the blindness of the illusion. The EGO mind wants to assure Us that We just do not understand because We do not have to pay bills, take care of a family, deal with illness or difficult relationships and therefore We have no concept of human life. (We are either too far above you to care or to close for comfort and butting in all of the time <that parent thing>) We love you beyond your imagining. We see how close you are to realizing who you are. We know how hard the EGO is working to keep the illusions in place, to keep things the way they are. We are holding powerful intensions for the changes that are occurring to move as easily and smoothly as possible. We cannot make you accept that ease is the natural order of things, that abundance is your true estate, that loving and being loved is not a soap opera but Divine right and health is who you are. You are the only one who can embrace these truths and integrate them into your life.

We watch the cunning and guile of the old ways snaking through the mists of illusion and We know that it will not be long before there is no where for these forces to hide after they have set situations at odds. Up to now the perpetrators of the planetary conflicts have hidden behind closed doors and laughed about the variances that they have set in place. Already the Revelation is working, but many still remain blind to the exposure, because if they dare to allow themselves to see what is happening they are afraid that they too will be revealed. It isn't about right and wrong, but about unfortunate habits and old patterns that cannot remain in place and soon must be gone. The reason that these times have been painted so dark by scholars of the Bible, is the EGO's fear of being exposed at its mischief. Dire happenings and disastrous endings have been predicted and as you may be aware, you are amazing creators and therefore, many of those predictions are coming true. How do you stop this? Change your focus, forgive your old habits and beliefs and dwell on the positive outcome that awaits you just beyond the veils of illusion.

The Ego says “I focused on the good, but others didn’t and I wasn’t strong enough to stop them”. It isn’t about you stopping them. That is a distraction. It is about you drawing your own good into your life and LIVING IT. Now the Ego runs to the opposite side of its argument and says, “It isn’t right to have a good life when others are suffering. I must show them the error of their way.” The EGO still wants to be in control no matter what side it stands on. When you accept that you are the only one that you can change you will forgive donating your precious power to those who cannot use it and begin to fund your own life. The EGO is still sputtering that if you just did a little more you could make them see it your way, what ever it is.

All are equal in their Divine right and ability to turn around and move into a new energy, a future that is so different that it cannot be planned, manipulated or forced. This future cannot be formulated based on what was because that past is breaking apart right now. You must live by FAITH, trusting in the unknown which is so familiar to you deep within. Envision (feel it) being protected, loved and prospered in a joy that exceeds anything that you can remember before. Don’t try to shape it, just be open. This is a big challenge to those of you who always have to know what you are getting for Christmas. This is like Christmas every day. The old order had to live a hard life so that receiving a gift could be special. Imagine life being SPECIAL every moment—not more special, just special. That is equality.

Now the EGO asks, “How can I know that what I am doing is right if there is no measure?” Because, Beloved, when there is no measure there is no wrong.

EQUALITY—feel it, allow yourself to enter into its essence and become one with it. Forgive taking this energy to your mind. Meet equality in your “safe place” within. Dwell on it and dwell in it, so that you can forgive the situations in life where you just have to measure to feel right or safe. Equality takes you into oneness with all of Us. Equality allows you to enjoy the creations of others without feeling jealousy or defeat. Live a balanced life of complete delight. Judgment has no place there. Just let yourself be led from within by Spirit. The mind says, “That is a fool’s game”. Then, Beloved, be a Fool for God!!

Until We meet again in what ever manner that might be, in the greatest of love I bid you Adieu! I remain your humble servant, the Lord St. Germain

We are presenting a work of love: “Global Glory” was channeled by Delores DeVore and Molly Rowland several years ago. St. Germain has said that the energy is even more pertinent now that it was when it was created. This is a toning to heal the Earth and all of us who are on the Earth. Our bodies are so in tune with all that is happening planetarily that it is necessary for us to wake up and feel, deeply feel the changes that are affecting us each moment. It is our sincere desire that the Masters will call the Choraliers together to bring more sound healing to the Earth.

A Gift from the Masters

Presented by the Crystal Choraliers

Side One: A Celebration through the 12 chakras
The tone of this piece is a celebration of the 12 chakras. Beginning with the root chakra, and moving through each one, you will begin to feel the energy shifting and lifting and then it moves to the next level. Feel it as it moves and shifts and lifts you through the energy of each chakra, each strand of DNA. It is not the volume or pitch that will suggest each level, but the subtle change that occurs in the movement, a shift of the vibration that you can feel. This takes you higher. The Masters that come through are El Morya, Lanto, Paul-the Venetian, Serapis Bey, Hilarion, Lady Nada, St. Germain, Orion, Maytreia, Lady Portia, Kwan Yin, and Sanat Kumara.

Side Two: Global Healing

The overview of the piece is a call to cosmic willingness to be one with the Divine. The different movements will address different levels of illnesses, not so much the illnesses themselves. Each movement is an initiation, a clearing to a new level of wholeness. Molly brings in, intertwines and breathes in energies from different parts of the Universe with the Masters direction. She flows these pieces of the Divine puzzle to Delores to shape and fit into their appropriate place. Delores works with the matrix of the planet, mending the energies of the earth's foundation. The tones break apart places where obstacles have been stored and shore up places where more strength is required. The energies are brought in, blended and the application is made.

Many times there is sound that represents the breaking up of old limits. This is not melodic, but the whole thing is an application of unity: As Above, So Below. The tones are for the Earth and her children, addressing all of their illnesses, whether they are physical, emotional, mental or spiritual. The levels that are addressed are from the 3rd dimension and are touching into the sixth. A few people are actually beginning to visualize the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth and some, from time to time operate there. So there are aspects of all the essences that are available to earth at this time for the healing of many levels. Molly is a trans-channel for St. Germain and the Council of Light. She has been channeling St. Germain for over twenty-two years and worked as a conscious channel through astrology and tarot for twenty-five years before that. Molly is a medical intuitive with over forty years of experience working with doctors, chiropractors and psychotherapists. Delores is a minister, teacher and workshop facilitator who uses Sound toning on the body to break up stored energy patterns. She was instructed by the Masters to create Sound Essences that carry the gifts and qualities of their dimensions through the tenth level. There are many who are still clinging to the 3rd dimension mentally, emotionally and physically, for the fear of leaving behind what they felt was secure. All are moving in the fourth dimension, whether, they like it or not. Many are moving into the fifth and some are experiencing even higher levels of frequency. Even though Molly and Delores have known each other for many years, they had never sung nor toned together, before they went into the studio to create this CD. This is a purely channeled work. There was a wonderful joy in allowing the Masters to come through and "play" them as instruments.

We hope you enjoy the CD, and that it will create an essence of inner peace for you as you heal and remember that you are one with the Divine - I AM. Produced by Robert Reed

The sounds on this CD are not always harmonious, melodic or even easy to listen to. This CD has been created to Heal - and therefore many of the sounds are dissonant. It can be used with a headset, lying down and covered with a blanket, allowing the sounds to wash over the body, but it is safe to play in your car while driving. The sounds are meant to break up energy patterns in the body that hold dis-ease, as they also are breaking up old frequencies of the Earth and bringing her into line with the new essences of the quantum shift.
