

SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER

Here we are to September and fall is upon us. School started here in Lander in August so we are back in the groove of slowing down to twenty through the school zones.

The energy of the times is pushing everyone to get more in touch with what is going on inside. The old order is obviously beginning to fall. St. Germain has said for a long time that the masks are falling and this has been more apparent this year than ever before. We have been made abundantly aware of the fact that our bridges, around the country, are in ill repair. How adept at bridging across the gap of generation, race, gender, religion or politics are we?

This came from one of our readers and I felt it is a pertinent thought.

“I wanted to mention that what struck me about the Minnesota bridge also is that Minneapolis/St Paul are referred to as 'the twin cities', and here we have our twin cities bridge collapsing. it feels like we're now being asked to make ourselves that bridge, symbolically, in some way. Timing is everything, as they say.”

I feel that some of the symbolism is about bridging from the old way of thinking and doing things to a totally new way of seeing and feeling what we are creating.

In deed, the masks of illusion are falling and the actions and ways of handling business around the country are being revealed for the punishing parental conduct of many of the leaders of industry, politics and, yes, even religion. They have told us “that is just the way it is” for such a long time. Things that have been ruled “illegal” are just swept under the rug or people “look the other way” when it is not convenient or financially feasible. The knowledge has existed that bridges and mines and many other important conditions of business and industry were known to be unsafe, yet were immediate attention so that lives would not be lost was just tabled for “more important matters”.

The mines collapse all of the time and those who choose to work there are aware that there are risks. That doesn't absolve the owners of the mines from a responsibility for making sure, really sure that the mines are as safe as possible without the threat of job loss to the workers if they speak out about safety hazards. After all the workers are the ones whose lives are on the line. The owners can play the odds that they won't get caught.

Youth of nations are sent to war to benefit the coffers of older men who wouldn't fight and often would not send their own children to war....and the masks are falling. It isn't that we haven't known these things, but that we just believed that if they didn't come to our door we were not involved.

The people who died in twin towers, those who died on the I-35 bridge, the miners deep in the earth and all of those who have died in this useless war, not just Americans, but all who have died are us. It isn't about fighting some other war against another enemy, because that just creates distraction from the truth.

The changes have to begin inside of us. We cannot just want peace; we have to discover what it is for ourselves and begin to live it from the inside out. It is maddening and frustrating to keep going around in the same circle of fighting what we don't like, rather than getting clear that our focus on what we truly desire, so that we begin to change the world in reality, not just in illusion.

The ego says we cannot change anything unless we fight, yet history has proven without a shadow of a doubt that war just spawns war.

We have been taught to be afraid of the very things that will turn the planet into Eden again. None of those wonderful things can be brought about outwardly without first being founded in the fertile soil of the Soul. We cannot figure out how to change things because we keep coming up with the same answers. We are now required to look within for new, true answers that are not provided by the ego that wants to kill us.

Our next group is September 9th and the title is "Bridges". CD's of all of our groups are available. www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/2007groups.html

CRYSTALS

CRYSTAL CORNER

As a person works with the stones and crystals, he or she will begin to gain a feel for the energy of each one. As that happens, favorites will emerge as well as those one has an aversion to. There are very few that I shy away from but the one that stands out is the Unakite. In the beginning of my journey, I didn't even carry that stone for people to purchase and one day I mentioned that to St. Germain. He told me to pay attention to that which I hate. Now, hate was a strong word for what I felt for the stone and I said as much. He told me that this stone was used for those with war-like issues and I really was avoiding that issue! Anyway, I was told to get a piece and learn to love it. I can't say I really love it but I do have a piece and carry it for others to purchase.

My favorite stone is the Fluorite in all its glorious colors. Fluorite carries a very sharp energy and will cut the energy field of anyone who wears it for long periods of time. It is best to use it for an hour or two and then put it aside. It is a stone I use often in my healing layouts. The various colors all do something different and carry the energy of the color also. Following are some of the uses of the different colors.

Blue Fluorite is pale in color and is useful in repairing holes or tears in the aura. It would be paired with Rose Quartz so that there is love in the healing. This is one of the colors that would be ideal for those with an under-active thyroid.

Gold Fluorite is the most powerful of the Fluorites and may be used anywhere on the body to dissolve blocks. When used in the thymus and thyroid areas, it helps to balance energy, especially hyperactivity.

Green Fluorite stimulates growth and healing. I like to use it at the end of a layout because it has a light, tingling energy. I call it fairy energy.

Violet Fluorite is an astringent cleanser that works well in removing riders from the aura. It will also help to release a build-up of energy in the body.

White Fluorite balances energy but also holds and centers energy in a certain area if placed on either side of the effected area. Be aware of the thoughts and emotions that you are holding in one place as the energy is magnified and concentrated.

And so another month passes. Enjoy the adventure of the journey you are on. What an exciting time to be alive! Please feel free to contact me with any questions you might have. I can be reached at 800-757-8478 or email me at eternalice@bresnan.net. Check out the still unfinished website where you will find pictures of most of the crystals that I carry. www.eternal-ice.com. I would be happy to visit with you!

EVENING WITH ST.GERMAIN

Our September “Evening with St. Germain” is a first, as far as we know. St. Germain said, “Let’s Talk about My Story”. The Master is going to talk about himself!

As St. Germain steps into the role of World Teacher his name is rising up in the collective psyche of the planet. People who have never heard of him are suddenly asking “Who is St. Germain and what is he about?”

St. Germain will talk about some of the lives that he has lived and how he is helping the Earth to birth into the new energy. With warmth and humor he entertains us with his story that twines through time. Come and join him to hear this tale that in many ways is yours, also.

If you have something that you would be interested in hearing St. Germain talk in relationship to his story, we will take some questions for the evening. Email or phone us and we will consider your request.

Check our website to register for this amazing evening.

www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/live-events.html

Both CD’s for $40 and DVD’s for $45 of the Evening will be available.

DVD’s of our previous Evenings are available, also. www.voiceofthegatekeepers.com/evenings.html

ASTROLOGY

NEW MOON

On September 11, the New Moon makes a solar eclipse. When the Moon temporarily blocks the Sun, the flows of gamma, ultraviolet, infrared and other powerful solar emissions are blocked. During that time we are able to release old karmic patterns as energetic matrix move more easily. The Lunar eclipse of August 28 and this solar eclipse are helping to reconfigure the cellular patterns and free us from the bondage of the old order.

It has been six years since 9-11 and the earth has undergone many amazing and diverse changes.

On September 10, 1988 there was a solar eclipse at 18 degrees 35 minutes Virgo. The things that were set in motion at that time are now culminating. You will have either bring closure to the situation or evolve to a new level of understanding around it.

When a planet goes direct, after being retrograde, it brings a time of freedom and release. It is as though the retrograde calls us to stay focused on what we would rather avoid and as the planet turns direct we take a deep breath and prepare to move forward again.

Pluto’s nature is revelation and transformation. It will square this Sun and Moon at this eclipse. Pluto is transiting Sagittarius, the sign of higher law, higher education and foreign affairs. Virgo deals with the market place and the workers (the man on the street), as well as, health and healing. This configuration can bring new health issues to light. Pluto unearths those things that many have hoped would stay hidden.

On September 8, Venus will complete its cycle of retrograde that occurs every two years. Venus rules beauty, the movie industry (make-up, clothes, style, “the Look”) and there will be some new news emerging around how to look better, younger and even do it naturally. Venus through Leo reminded us to check our heart. Venus in Leo puts attention on the heart and all matters of the heart. Are you “heart smart”, not only about what you eat but what you focus on emotionally?

Uranus will be closely opposing this New Moon in Virgo, asking us to “get real”. Again the purity of purpose of Virgo comes into play combined with the authenticity of Uranus. Uranus always disrupts the status quo, so we may see some big shifts in the religious community as Uranus trudges through Pisces and questions our Faith at every turn. Uranus also reminds us that holding on to the past is just setting us up for a seismic-type shock when we have to let go of the old.

Now we add Jupiter in Sagittarius into the mix and we have a Grand Cross in mutable signs at this New Moon. Mutable signs are the most flexible of all the signs. They represent the ability to roll with the punches of life. Jupiter represents higher mind, being more than we have been, but it also leads to excess in what ever it is involved with. We get to pay attention to whether the things we are doing are necessary or extreme. Jupiter will square Uranus in Pisces and the sun/Moon in Virgo, while it opposes mars in Gemini. Mars is a warrior and in Gemini the battle becomes a battle of wits. We will see more than our fair share of mind games in industry and politics during this time.

The aspects of this New Moon are challenging us to do our best, our very best, not just “I tried”, but “I shall succeed and better than ever before”.

FULL MOON

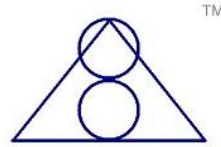

September 26, brings the Harvest Moon, harbinger of fall. Libra puts the spotlight on beauty and balance. It is time to look, not just at the face that you shave or put make-up on, but the continence of your true self. How is your smile? This is not a tooth paste commercial. What do you see when you smile. Smiles are the greatest gift we can give and they are free. Anyone can give them. Do you smile? How long has it been since you genuinely smiled? Does your smile reach your eyes? You can smile with your voice. How do you like what you hear when you speak? This isn't a critique, as much as a discovery. Libra rules beauty. The planet has gotten caught up in the mask, the false presentation—who is really in there?

Aries is the bold aggressor that requires the gentle touch of Libran tact to cool the heat a bit. Too much Libran attention to what others want requires some Aries attention to self for balance.

The fourth degree of Aries and Libra and where they fall in your chart, can show you where you can now step out and achieve more than you have before, but the requirement to do it with tact is important. Venus, ruler of Libra has been in opposition to Neptune for most of the year. Its conjunction to Saturn and the opposition to Neptune will surely cause some news about the health of altering your appearance artificially. Neptune and Venus both have a big influence on the movie industry. We may actually see more and more films that pertain to the spiritual in a high-minded way, rather than just the scary side of the unknown.

As Neptune is the higher octave of Venus, Pluto is the higher octave of Mars. Mars is personal will, while Pluto says “Thy will be done”. The Mars/Pluto opposition that is now beginning to wane has showed us ways to understand surrender—not as giving up, but as releasing what no longer serves us. As both the rulers of Aries and Libra stand in oppositions to their higher octave at this Full Moon illuminates at a collective level our relationship with our higher Self and the Cosmos. This will assist us to forgive our limited views of what life is about and stretch to embrace a much grander scope of who we really are. What magnificent times we live in! I wouldn't have missed this for the world.

BIO GENESIS TOOLS

BioGenesis® - Modern Tools, Eternal Technology™

By Delores DeVore; ddevore@mindspring.com

"We speak of regeneration of the most basic element within each individual—the Light of Creation. As this Light returns to the lives on Earth, all things are made possible." --Ascended Master Lantos

It was only a few months ago that I learned about the BioGenesis Tools – Tools for Expansion. I have found these tools to be exceptional in their ability to allow us to heal and restore harmony and balance to our environment.

Each month I will discuss a couple of different tools, so that you can begin to understand how they work and how you can use them for your benefit.

This month will be the most powerful tools for healing, the BioOscillator and the Flame.

BioOscillator

BioOscillator supports the removal of toxins from persons, animals and the environment. BioOscillator removes negativity stored up over centuries within people. BioOscillator also supports the removal of infection from the body, and it strengthens the body.

The BioOscillator is an instrument to bring forth very great changes: to purify, to strengthen and release the negativity stored up for centuries.

"BioOscillator is the Great Cosmic Cleanser. BioOscillator releases toxins, eliminates the pollutants and impurities, and restores the system to its natural state. The system we speak of may be that of an individual, or BioOscillator may be applied to purify the living environmental system.

BioOscillator releases the toxins that have adhered to a system, internally or externally. As BioGenesis is spread throughout the country and around the world, the impact of toxins on living systems will be greatly minimized. We say the words "toxin" and "pollutant" to describe a substance which generates a negative effect when it is introduced to another system. The negative effects are minimized as the BioGenesis materials strengthen the levels of harmony and tolerance within each system. Toxins are toxic due to their adverse effects on the environment. Eliminate those effects and you eliminate the toxins. BioOscillator accelerates this cleansing process that is already under way with BioGenesis. Release the toxins and you restore the clean environment conducive to health and growth."

How to Use the BioOscillator:

When using BioOscillator on persons and animals: Point the top of the BioOscillator at the area to be affected. Give the command: "Perfection is the natural state. Light is triumphant!" Twist the BioOscillator back and forth quickly with your fingers while waving the BioOscillator in circles over the body.

When using BioOscillator to purify the environment: Point the top of the BioOscillator at the area to be affected, and give the command: "Release the toxins! Let all return things to their natural state! Light is triumphant!" Twist the BioOscillator back and forth quickly with your fingers while waving the BioOscillator in circles.

This tool is probably the most powerful of all the tools, for it will release the toxins in the body.

Flame of Genesis

The Flame of Genesis directs and focuses the Light of Genesis. It supports healing in numerous ways. Some of the many relevant uses for the Flame of Genesis include: physical trauma; degenerative conditions, such as arthritis; and non-functioning organs. It can be used for tumors, bruises, scratches and more.

How to Use the Flame of Genesis:

Simply hold the Flame of Genesis with the point directed towards that which you are trying to correct. You may move the Flame in circular motions or back-and-forth motions. Even a few minutes daily will yield results.

Place the base of the Flame on an area that is painful and it will help ease the pain.

You can also use these tools on a picture of a person – there should be no other person or animal in the picture because it will contain their energetic imprints too.
