A tale of Mercury retrograde. LOL I have a Mercury retrograde in my Solar Return chart this year and, OH MY, how it has done its most Mercury Retrograde stuff.

Just after Thanksgiving my trusty Epson CD label printer quit working. I went to Amazon (mighty Amazon solves all problems) and ordered a Canon CD label printer with great reviews. The only problem was that it was template only and I could not create my own labels. Returned the printer.

Printer II: Back to mighty Amazon. This time I ordered an Epson printer that said it was like new. It is now the end of December and the printer arrived in a box that was so torn up it was a wonder that the printer was still in it. The "like new" printer was anything but.

In January Dorian and I both got the FLU, so printer II was not returned until the end of January.

Printer III: This time I bought a brand-new Epson CD printer which arrived in a strong, sturdy box and the printer is beautiful, PLUS it works exactly as it is supposed to.

The trick with Mercury Retrograde is that you get to do things twice or mu case three times. When I was in real estate I always cautioned my clients not to go to the closing under a Retrograde Mercury. Some listened, many did not. One couple who curled their lip at the stupidity of such a primitive idea when to the closing with fire in their eyes because they were in a hurry. The deal fell through at the table and they had to wait another sixty days because of all kinds of complications. After that when I made suggestions they were much more willing to listen.

A friend of mine to whom I was telling the tale of the printers said, "Why did you attempt to get a new printer when Mercury was Retrograde twice?" Mercury was Retrograde again when I began the odyssey of the printers. I often have to do things like this to remind me of my humanity. We humans are the most beautiful, brilliant, amazing beings who have allowed ourselves to believe just the opposite. May we all use the energy of 2018 to help us remember that we truly are Divine beings living in physical bodies and we are not intended to live less. Always settle for MORE!! Love, Molly

SPRING INTENSIVE

St. Germain will be offering an Intensive “Living the Virtues Brings an Elegant and Powerful Life”. May 25, 26, 27, 2018. St. Germain will continue the theme for this year of how the Virtues enhance and bring new magick into our daily lives and affairs to enrich our growth and allow us to discover much more about how the inner world and the outer world are blending.

There are many worlds and the Illusion has prevented these worlds from being known to one another. The fear of other people who are different, has simply been expanded to a fear of any and all things that seem different. This has held humanity in a form of stasis which is now beginning to melt away in the Love that is returning to the Earth. Not the conditional love of only caring for or attending to those that we know, but the Love without a condition that allows us to receive great benefits from interdependence with all of humanity.

This Intensive will be held here in the beautiful mountains of central, western Wyoming, not too far from Table Mountain, WY which is one of St. Germain’s special places in the world. This area is filled with sacred vortexes and is a wonderful place to feel the magik, both ancient and now. We invite you to join us in this amazing opportunity to remember the magik and rediscover yourself.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

The group for March, “Finding Who You are in the New Millennium”, defines the movement of energy from the Full Moon in Virgo on the first, when the energy of Goddess emerging peaks in power, once again, to the Full Moon in Libra on the 31st of March, when the response of humanity must begin to reflect a willingness to embrace Love without a condition rather than the old, intolerant concepts of the patriarchal order. More softening of heart is being revealed every day. The media seeks to cover the receptive changes with the veils of violence. It is not to overlook what is happening on either side, but to stop taking sides and begin to find ways that bring opinions of all to find a sacred middle ground. The EGO does not accept that there could be a middle ground and disdains its potential. St. Germain seeks to bring energetic shifts of consciousness that support new unity. The group will be March 18, 2018 at 2 pm MDT.

CD’s can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2018 Groups

St. Germain continues with the Virtues for the month of March. The Virtues of Honesty, Integrity and Truth are surely and imperative for these chaotic times. To try to be honest is an exercise in futility. The most vital honesty in these times is the absolute honesty with self. Integrity is a Virtue that has been more frequently dismissed as a massive inconvenience, especially for those who hold money as far more important than personal value. Integrity guides the choices of life from the inner most connection with Spirit. Truth is not an opinion. Truth shines through the darkest times and just as Love has stood throughout all time, so has Truth. Truth is felt deep in the solar plexus and it can be denied but not ignored. St. Germain blends these vital aspects together for new direction in what seems to be some of the darkest times the earth has known. The Teaching is on March 14, at 7 pm MDT.

The call-in for the Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-ins for the Q&A are on the fourth Wednesday evening each month at 7 pm MST.

The call-ins allow you to join in to hear the teaching and ask questions at the Q&A.

If you haven’t had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

GREAT BOOKS!

On my Kindle I am reading an excellent trilogy by Deborah Harkness.
Book one is "The Book of Life"
Book two is "A Discovery of Witches"
Book three is "Shadow of Night"
Deborah is an exceptional author with a very broad range of knowledge of history and alchemical science

There is a great book that I was sent called "The_Language_Crystal. It is about a quest to understand dyslexia, but there is so much mystical and metaphysical information that I want to share it.

St. Germain has consistently talked of America being a light to the world. It certainly would not appear that way with current affairs as they are. However, this book can shed some light on how what St. Germain says is possible.

VIRGO FULL MOON-March 1-2

FULL MOON RITUAL ALTAR

Virgo is the sign of the Goddess. We place gems on the altar for the Goddesses.

This Virgo Moon brings it earthy balance to the watery, dreamy elements of six planets and asteroids in Pisces. This Virgo Moon brings an ability to see reality in the midst of all of the illusions, chaos and confusion that the Earth is experiencing now. Every day the challenge to find clarity is compounded by many voices saying infinitely diverse things about situations that must be contemplated personally to discover whether they are truly important or not. The diversions and distractions can keep the obvious from being noticed because "people in the know" cannot seem to be clear or honest about vital situations. It is like the magic of the mind, "watch this hand, but don't look at what is happening over here". The grounding tendencies of this Earth Moon can clean the filters of Illusion and bring new healing energies to rejuvenate the energy flows on the planet. A trine between Saturn in Capricorn and Pallas Athene in Taurus lends further support to the Full Moon's earth element and helps us to see strategic steps to bring our dreams and ideals into reality.

The Full Moon opposes Neptune, as the Sun makes its annual conjunction with the God of the Sea. The invitation from Spirit at this time is to surrender our personal will to Divine Will, to relax the EGO's agenda and be willing to receive guidance directly from our Soul, which speak through dreams, intuition and feelings. Everyone is psychic, but the fear of what that means must now be forgiven in order for us to discover the powerful truth of who we really are.

Mercury, the ruler of Virgo, is the Winged Messenger. At this Full Moon it is in Pisces. The spiritual realms can communicate with us much more easily at this time, as our minds relax into a state of allowing, openness to investigate and a deep sense of wonder as we discover unlimited possibilities that exist for us. Mercury is conjunct Venus and this puts us in touch with our hedonistic tendencies. We can be drawn to the arts, music and the pleasures of life, as well as being more aware of our intuitive nature and expanded imagination. Venus will reappear in the evening sky as an evening star on March 4, after nearly four months in the Underworld, i.e., invisible. To the ancients the morning star and the evening star, Venus, were considered the two faces of the goddess—the warrior and the lover. With Venus in the Underworld since November 16, we have been healing the parts of us at war with ourselves and with each other. As Venus reappears, the lover in all is being reborn. This is another gigantic step in the evolution of humanity to reclaim our birthright of connecting to an understanding that Spiritual Love is unconditional. The lover goddess is further empowered in Pisces, the sign of her exaltation.

Mercy and Venus are moving into conjunction with Chiron, an opportunity to heal the misconceptions that we are unloved, unwanted or just not good enough. The tendency of social media to make comparisons has engendered jealousies and opened the deep wounds of uncertainty within us. We have been taught to give our power away to others who are stronger, smarter or more beautiful than we are. The Venus-Chiron conjunction can stir core wounds and painful emotions, but if we can forgive resisting the pain it can pass and we will find that it is easy to open the heart and embrace the Love that is waiting for us to accept it. Grief can be a part of the process, but need not become the focus.

Mercury and Venus make a trine to Jupiter in Scorpio, enhancing our ability to look beyond appearances and discover deep truths and hidden wisdom that we have not been in touch with in life times. A square between Vesta and Mars in Sagittarius and Mercury and Venus in Pisces, suggests that when we find truth it is best to put it into effect in our own lives rather than attempt to push it on others. Experiential living is the greatest teacher, much more so, than knowledge without the wisdom of experience. Mars in Sagittarius can be the sword of truth that cuts through the illusions of Pisces.

Smart can be the knowledge of what words say. Wisdom is the recognition of how what the words say can change the course of our lives.

PISCES NEW MOON—March 17

Pisces relates to our dreams, beliefs, faith and intuition. This New Moon draws into inner connections and exploring the deepest frontiers of ourselves. Pisces is the last sign of the zodiac where we blend with Spirit waters and the ocean of wholeness. This is a time of reflection and cleansing away the old wounds of the year past and life in general. Pisces is of the element of water and it is mutable by its nature. It presents opportunities for Soul-shift and moving into the flow of life, if we have been standing on the shore refusing to move. The Spring Equinox occurs on March 20 when the Sun enters the sign of Aries and a whole new cycle of the year begins.

Access to the New Moon is gained by taking time to discover the peace that is within. There is a tendency, in the world of technology, to dismiss the pleasures of sleep, dreams, meditation, time-out from the busy-ness of daily affairs and allowing the inner Child to come out and play. None of these things can be done. The mind cannot let go of the addiction to doing. All of the joy and freedom of relaxation sources from the solar plexus (the Soul Center). The nonessentials actually bring increased productivity and new levels of creative potential. They improve brain-function and, not surprisingly, result in happier, more fulfilling lives.

The mind can produce vast quantities of material on “how to do” things. Actually, when the drive of doing is decreased, the amount of productive energy increases, magnified. The less force applied in creative output, the greater the accomplishments. The EGO has programmed the psyche to always be in motion and to worry about appearance if there is not some physical activity going on. Consequently, resting the mind, body and emotions is considered suspect. (You must be lazy if you are not rushing around). Children “day-dream”, which is actually a most productive time. The mind is free to follow dreams, desires and allow the active imagination to create new paths of creativity in the brain. In this space there is a much greater opportunity to multi-task. Teachers might say the student isn’t listening, but actually, potentially boring material becomes much easier to assimilate.

The New Moon’s conjunction to Chiron, assists to deep levels of healing that can help us to move through our deepest pain in order to access our greatest gifts. Chiron’s transit through Pisces, beginning in 2010-2011, has spotlighted a core wound of feeling alone, abandoned and separate from Source. As we heal from the illusion of separation and move deeper into the Piscean consciousness of unity, we begin to realize that Spirit and matter are not separate from each other. Chiron will end its journey through Pisces on April 17 as it moves into Aries. This Chiron-infused New Moon is an opportunity to reflect on our willingness and ability to allow healing. We can embrace the movement that we have made and forgive the changes that we have avoided. Chiron will retrograde back into Pisces on September 25, 2018 and then will be in Aries from February, 2019 until 2027.

Mars in the last degree of Sagittarius will square the New Moon and Chiron, stirring restlessness and impatience. The tendency to be drawn into conflict arises, as the “epidemic of Righteousness” and entrenched judgment must be moved out. There will more realization that arguing just to argue is not a game, but an obsession. Mars cojoins Vesta, to remind us that telling others what to do, is not nearly as effective a teaching tool, as exemplary living. When we live the Truth that guides our lives it empowers us, as well as, encouraging others.

Jupiter, traditional ruler of both Sagittarius and Pisces, will be retrograde from March 8 to July 10, giving us time to reexamine our personal values and beliefs, focusing on inner growth to promote outer transformation. Jupiter forms a trine with the sun, Moon and Chiron empowering us to dream big and envision those dreams manifesting.

Saturn is strong at the next Full Moon (March 31), bringing tests and challenges, along with potent potential to bring our intensions into physical reality. Taking time for rest, play and meditative experiences opens us to an expanded state of awareness that lets growth occur naturally. Use these times to reconnect with living naturally and be amazed at all that can manifest, that has been waiting for the divinely appropriate time.

LIBRA FULL MOON (BLUE Moon) March 31

March brings us another opportunity to take advantage of the power of a Blue Moon. 2018 came rolling onto the scene with two Blue Moons in a three-month period. This Full Moon in Libra puts attention on relationships of all kinds. The building power of Love without a condition is softening even the hardest heart. We are required to ask ourselves, “Am I willing to genuinely allow others to be who they are without judgments or expectations?” Are we still attempting to by favors by giving our power away and then realizing that we paid a much higher price than was necessary?

This Full Moon occurs in the wave of momentum following the first Equinox on March 20. The Sun in fiery Aries along with several other planets in cardinal (initiating signs) pushes us to move forward, while other cosmic forces caution us to slow down so that we can be more conscious in what we are creating. Generally, the internal clarity is encouraging us to move slower and feel our way rather than “act in haste and repent in leisure”. Mercury moves into retrograde on March 22 and remains retrograde until April 15. This provides a time to reconsider our desires and realign with our authentic self. Mercury retrograde is conjoined with the Sun at the full Moon, encouraging us to remember that the situations that life brings us are never totally about others, but always provide mirrors for us to look at what we are creating and decide if it looks as good when someone else is doing it.

Reinforcing the call to S-L-O-W down, Mars is conjunct with Saturn in Capricorn and both planets square this Full Moon. Mars symbolizes the youthful masculine, our drive and desire, while Saturn is the wise elder, that takes a longer look at things and then assures us on our way by advising integrity in our choices. A Mars-Saturn conjunction is like driving with the brakes on. It is best to just pull over and reflect on motivations and long-term goals. The conjunction, (exact on April 2) begins a new two-year cycle of bringing our desires into reality. It is time to clarify and get in touch with how commitment really feels so that we can achieve what we desire. With Mars exalted and Saturn at home in Capricorn, this is an exceptionally powerful time of sees-planting, when we can harness Capricorn's strength, focus and persistence to bring our goals to fruition.

The square between Mars-Saturn and the Full Moon can find us asking ourselves the question, "Do I dare to step out into a future that I desire, or must I give up what I dream of to appease my relationships?" We find ourselves navigating the delicate balance between staying true to ourselves, while taking the desires and priorities of others into account. Logic can become very confused about these decisions, but when there is the willingness to allow the wisdom of the elder (Saturn) to help us touch into our own internal understanding we find compassion and strength that we may not have felt we possess. "We are the author of our own lives and we must recognize where we, now, must exert our potential in order to feel fulfilled in the ongoing. Faith shows us how to take the steps required, not in rebellion, but in honor and integrity. Libra brings a new measure of empathy and compassion that can change our direction without the pain of judgment.

Venus, ruler of Libra, is at home in Taurus. Libra (air) provides the masculine or outward expression of Venus in relating to others. The goddess is emerging in both male and female to bring a balance that has been missing for eons of time, God/Goddess/All That Is. Venus in Taurus reminds us that what ever is manifesting in our lives is essentially a reflection of the primary relationship with self.

Venus trines with Mars-Saturn conjunction, supporting us to align our masculine drives with our feminine values and dreams. The masculine mind has asked, for so long, "Is it possible?" The Goddess says, "It is always possible, but is it worthy of the energy to bring it about?" We are experiencing the destructive effects of a culture that discounts the feminine, as well as a constant stream of new products and technologies that don't add value to our lives or to the planet. We have come to measure our worth by how many, no only things, but expensive things we can get. We have slipped into a place of "spending money we do not have, to buy things that we are not even sure we want, to impress people who are so absorbed in their own acquisitions that they do not even see what we are doing". This Full Moon provides an opportunity to rebalance our lives by getting to touch with our inner self and the flow of how life moves naturally when we are in tune. Venus in Taurus recommends that we bring ease and pleasure to our Mars-Saturn efforts, to slow down and enjoy the process, rather than attempting to live in an unformed future that doesn't even exist where we are. Now is the only safe place we can be. The journey is the joy. Once we arrive at the destination, we begin to consider the next accomplishment. Live your life well. You can never live someone else's.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

Slowly over time science has chipped away at the Magick as though if humans turned to logic the Magick would disappear. But, Magick never went away. It waited quietly until humanity began to return, as the science could not provide security within. --St. Germain

Peace only comes from within. To seek to find who you are outside, in the world, only brings greater turmoil. As the shell of Illusion dissolves, the reality of the Soul-centered, Master Magickian that you are becomes more evident. Fear exists in separation. PEACE lives in self-realization. --St. Germain

Release the fetters of fears that have bound your Magick for life times. The Magick cannot be forced or controlled, but as you set it free it waits to fulfill your desires. It is as simple as letting a silver ribbon fly free and following as it as it remembers you to your Mastery. The Magick is in the remembering. --St. Germain

It is time for all beings to consider the wealth of shared wisdom that awaits the recognition of interdependence. The time of fearful separation is passing and embracing the Oneness brings greater security than anything outside of self. Love yourself well and Love others as yourself. --St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Dearly Beloved Masters,

With the passing of March, 2018 is a quarter of the year passed. Does it seem as though time is strange and different? Are things moving too fast? It is time to slow down and take stock—not of what is going on outside of you, but what you will find within.

With the passing of the Patriarchal Order the old ways of limitation that have bound humanity in shadows for life times, are being dissolved just as clouds are dissipated by sun light. In the Illusion there has always been the necessity for taking sides because this is a planet of duality. Because people have been taught for eons that the balance is brought about by logic, the true balance of nature and the natural order of life have been pushed into those shadows. Men have created games of power and hidden much of who they are and what they are doing behind the closed doors of secrecy. Revelation is opening those doors and the truth is spilling out because all must see. Not only the men of power and money in industry and politics, but each human on Earth is being called to discover and remember things that, as they are revealed, change the direction of where life goes on the planet.

Men have held their power much as a toreador holds his cape. The power is flashed so quickly that no one can quite see what is happening and behind the cape they can change their position on things in the blink of an eye. people are told that they do not need to know because they would not understand. People are instructed from childhood not to look too closely at things that they do not understand. The teachings in school of reading, writing and mathematics are given in the driest, most, uninteresting ways and children can hardly wait to grow up and become adults so that no one can tell them what to do. Teachers who are excited about what they are teaching are buried in paperwork and told to teach the way they were taught. (DO NOT COLOR OUTSIDE OF THE LINES!!) Now the current trend on the planet is, once more, keep the people ignorant, hungry and worried about the basics of “life” which appear to be struggle. In Hebrew the word Kaballah or Kabbalah means “to receive”, but in Russian the word for servitude is Kabala. No one can grow or heal or thrive in a war zone and the Earth is being turned into a battleground inside and out.

BELOVED MASTERS, YOU MAKE THE CHOICES IN YOUR OWN LIVES AS TO WHAT PATH YOU WILL FOLLOW AND HOW YOU WILL CHANGE THE WORLD!!! The opportunity to make a difference occurs in how you live every moment of every day of the precious life that you are blessed with. The memories of who you truly are beginning to emerge. They defy the logic and practicality of Illusion. The memories are of beauty and goodness and power that has no need for destruction in order to create. This is the Truth of how the Earth was created in the beginning. For the Highest Good of All becomes a clear and understandable message for everyone. The chosen few is a concept of Shadows. Each human is a Divine creation. YOU ARE WORTHY. YOU HAVE VALUE. YOU ARE AMAZING. A great part of the Revelation is that as depression, sadness and rage are coming to the surface, the lies that have been perpetrated by the chosen few to keep the masses under control are also being revealed. The Magick of the Ancients has been presented as a darkness that infests life if one is not very careful. To be considerate of the worth of your life, does mean that you must fear what is new or different. To be care-filled is not a burden, but the willingness to treasure the life that is in your charge. HEALING DOES NOT COME FROM FIGHTING OTHERS FOR WHAT THEY HAVE. THE WEALTH OF THE EARTH IS FOUNDED WITHIN EACH BEING. Your Divine Inheritance is God's gift to you. What is yours is yours. What is theirs is theirs. Within the Allness that you are granted find your best. Envyng others is a waste of energy. Find the spark of creation that belongs to you in your Soul Center and use your talents to build the warming, healing fire of Love that is waiting to enlighten you. Others may not value your creations. That does not mean that the creation is flawed or less. It simply means that many are not yet ready to open their inner eyes to the wonder of a world that is not darkened by the Shadow or filled with war and treachery. The desire to fight has become one of the most powerful addictions on the planet. Fighting is a game of taking power. Whether the game is openly destructive or insidiously cunning, power games have always been expensive and in the energy of the New Age the cost of taking power from others is becoming more expensive all of the time. The energy expended to take power from another is scarcely less than what is taken and the energy gained is becoming less and less. Karma is bringing the imbalances of the Illusion into balance and no matter how cunning the plots and ploys of the mind may be, Karma is a Divine balancer. Karma has always been in operation, but the Illusion slowed time down so that things seemed to take life times for balance and most beings did not remember the actions of other lives because of the veils that Illusion set up. The EGO mind explained that humans could not possibly keep up with too many different life flows. As you remember your Mastery you will find that you can live omnipresence easily if you are willing to let go of the limits that you have been taught in the Shadow. The EGO mind carefully instructs that humans are not to be informed beyond a certain point. The teachings that God makes the choices and humans are to do what they are told are ploys of the shadow to prevent personal growth. As Revelation moves the veils aside, there is an inner Illumination/Enlightenment and the recognition that God intended each Soul to see more, live more, enjoy more. LIFE IS ABOUT THE JOY OF DISCOVERING ALL THAT YOU ARE AND LIVING THE MORE. The hedonistic idea that life is “Eat, Drink and be Merry for tomorrow you will die” is one of the most limiting ideas of the Illusion. When you discover your true self life is far more beautiful, far more interesting, far more fulfilling that the EGO mind would dare allow. The Truth lies within and when you discover the Truth of your Divine self you feel the freedom deep within.

Fighting the Shadows of what is passing keeps the focus on the past. It denies the witness of a new becoming that is opening within like a flower. Love is the most powerful agent of transformation and transcendence. Ascension is an ongoing process that is happening NOW. The EGO always puts the attention on the future and that prevents much of what humanity desires from happening, for people are waiting for the future to happen now. The future stays in the future. Now is the only place that you can achieve what you desire and live a life of security. Safety isn't provided by someone else. The only insurance is trusting that your Spirit will guide you in Love. The guidance may include taking precautions and paying attention to what is going on, not only outside of you, but within.

The EGO mind operates on separation, opposition, duality, chaos and confusion. Spirit clarifies so that what appears to be cloudy becomes transparent. Logic can give a headache, while seeing without the physical eyes brings a feeling of lightness that springs from the solar plexus and may seem to open the area of the Third Eye to a different vision. The Third Eye does not open and close again. The Third Eye does not operate like the physical eyes, that blink and often miss things. The Third Eye is energetically connected to the Soul Center and brings information to the logical mind from a different perspective. The Third Eye does not consult the EGO to ask permission to inform humanity of the changes that are and must continue to occur. The statement “On the Earth but not of it”, simply means that as the awakening progresses the recognition that you are living more and more in a new frequency dawns and you realize that you are different. The more comfortable you are with being unique the easier it is to live your Mastery, to have an interdependent relationship with others that isn't measured by guilt, fear, judgment or suspicion. The cloak of concern over “what will they say or think” begins to vanish and the heaviness of moving through life as though it is a maze smooths out so that you can clearly see the beauty that exists, right where you are, when you take away the filters of Illusion.

The World appears to be nothing but chaos. Things are not always as they appear to be. To see without eyes is to release the belief that only the physical world is real. The Five senses are limited without the clarity of the Spirit. Spirit does not interfere with the affairs of Earth, it enhances all of creation and shows the way to MORE.

With each event in the Heavens humanity is changing. With each New Moon, Full Moon, Eclipse, Solstice and Equinox the planets evolution is accelerating. Where the old order is breaking down and falling to dust the energy of Revelation is filling the space with vision, clarity, enthusiasm, memories of personal power without a price to pay in struggle and most of all, the greatest Gift is LOVE that has no conditions.

You are Loved, you are important, your presence on earth is welcome. God knows your Name and does not forget. Have you forgotten or dismissed GOD as unimportant? When you open your heart and Soul to the ONENESS you find there is so much that you never knew existed. Our most sincere desire is for all to remember the fullness of life and Love that has been hidden in the Illusion. This is not about trading one form of control for another. That has been tried again and again. This is about knowing Self and trusting that each individual has the potential to be the Master they were created to be.

In Love We celebrate you and your becoming. In peace We seek to support you as you discover all that you are. I remain your most humble servant. I AM the Lord St. Germain.
