February Newsletter

Linda Lube passed quietly on the evening of January 24, 2019 at the Oaks Nursing Home in Brevard, N.C. She was 67 years old. She was preceded in death by her husband and parents. She had surgery for a brain tumor on October 31, 2018. She will be cremated and there will be a memorial to scatter the ashes in the spring. We will announce this when the plans are confirmed. Rather than flowers please support your local artists. Linda desired that art be shared and supported.

Join us, in 2019, by signing up for the Personal Growth package. This has proven to be one of the most popular offerings that St. Germain has given. People are excited about the changes in their lives and express joyful anticipation for the future. Changes on all levels are bringing a whole new lease on life as we evolve into New Humans. This year St. Germain's Teachings, which are a part of the Personal Growth

Package, will focus on on our inner journey with "the Pathway to Inner Growth Leads Inward."

Spring Intensive

It is time to begin to consider our May Intensive on May. St. Germain is taking us to new levels of self-awareness all of the time. You have been the greatest mystery. It is time to discover your inner wisdom and enlightenment with "Finding the Joy of Greater Self-wisdom and Inner Knowing". The intensive will be May 17, 18 and 19, 2019.

As the paradigms are clearly changing and everything seems to be in some level of limbo, we are being directed to find the home base of Spirit within and feel the firm foundation of who we truly are. The world has defined us for life times and told us how limited we are, while holding the promise of greater good somewhere beyond the physical world. We are now being called to remember how to blend the best of our spiritual world and our physical world, so that we can live what we have searched for, for life times, here and now. Feel St. Germain's Love, compassion and wisdom as he gently and directly shows us what we have been waiting for, becoming the Spiritual Humans.

We invite you to join us in person. Call or email Molly for more information.

CDs and mp3s will be available.

The February group is The Goddesses Isis, Artemes and Kwan Yin on Clear Communication and Inter-Personal Changes. The Goddess Emerging is bringing a whole new perspective to the Earth and all of her people. The fact that even if we are attempting to go the same way that we always have the road is not taking us in the direction that it did before. We are required to connect within ourselves and it cannot be done. The changes call for Love, compassion and Self-awareness in measures that have not been known or recognized before.

CD's can be purchased on the website at Click Here for 2019 Groups

Teaching St. Germain continues "The Pathway to Personal Growth Leads Inward" with "The Golden Revelation". As we put conscious communication into effect in our lives, we actually begin to recognize just how powerful it is to feel our own thoughts and experience the impact of our words consciously, for ourselves. The revelation of finding the inner personal, soul centered-being that we are is truly GOLDEN.

The call-in for the Teaching is on the second Wednesday evening of each month at 7 pm MT.

Our call-ins for the Q&A are on the fourth Wednesday evening each month at 7 pm MST.

The call-ins allow you to join in to hear the teaching and ask questions at the Q&A.

If you haven't had the experience of the Teachings that St. Germain is offering this year they really help us to understand what is going on. It just might be worth your while to check them out. The deep healing power of the Master is there to experience again and again as you listen to the awesome wisdom that he brings. CDs are $15 for each set—Teachings or Q&A. It is $25 to call in one time or $40 for both sessions each month. Postage and handling are separate.

ASTROLOGY

AQUARIUS NEW MOON - FEBRUARY 4

The New Moon in Aquarius brings our attention to how we interact with others. Leo is a personal sign that considers life from the perspective of self. Aquarius embraces the whole and includes self and others in the equation. The New Moon looks within and seeks to find the Spiritual connection that exists in our depths. As this New Moon is cojoined with Mercury the emphasis is on how we communicate with others. Are we willing to let others into our world? Do we fear what others will think about us if we reveal too much? The energy of Mercury travels on the ethers and, therefore, it can penetrate both the realms of logic and Spirit with the potential of blending these aspects for greater clarity. Aquarius tends to be objective and that can be helpful, as long as the objectivity does not become avoidance. Aquarius shows us the uniqueness of how creative essence flows and the inventiveness of how we as Masters can use that essence to empower our greater creations. Are you blocking your positive outcomes by hovering over the energy, which prevents the ease of new things flowing into being? Do you follow a formula, but doubt the outcome for yourself? Are you sure that others have some inside information that, if you could only find out what it is, your life would be as good as theirs?

The Black Moon Lilith is also conjunct this Mercurial Moon and lends a sense of otherness to our otherwise ordinary life. That is a true gift in this time of so much change, because the changes are all moving us to be in touch with that Sacred part of ourself that listens hears and moves in connection with the "Other" part of us. The "Other" is not a separate part, but an aspect that has been closed off, held away for millennia. The changes are opening those doors and revealing just how much we have hidden from ourselves. We have attempted to keep the "Otherness" of ourselves away in fear that it is Evil or some dark force. Awakening to the world of truth within is empowering and informative. The EGO has sought to convince us that change only leads to loss and what is different or not understood should be feared. EGO says, "Stay small", "Stay with your clan", "Only listen to people who think like you do". Aquarius embraces the whole and invites everyone to experience each other and the interdependence of human exchanges that open up a whole new world, within and without. Darkness is a part of the whole and everything would become imbalanced if all was light, only or dark, only. The blending of energies is encouraged by the cosmic aspects of Aquarius.

Uranus, the ruler of Aquarius, is in a wide-angle sextile with this New Moon. Uranus cojoins Mars in Aries and offers the energy to stay with projects, relationships and the challenges of life without giving up on yourself or others. Life is certainly quirky under this New Moon and it is a good idea to just be receptive to the weird, unexplainable or even what the mind might define as unnatural. Nature has been kept at a distance in every day life for so long that what is really natural seems strange. Blessings can come in odd form and it is well to be open to recognize the gifts of life, rather than dismissing them because they do not look like you thought they would. If you desired a million dollars and suddenly a series of fortuitous things cross your path with the potential of even more than you asked for, do not let your mind tell you that, because it isn't a check for the desired amount it isn't what you asked for. Nothing is what it appears to be, especially, NOW. The shock value of Aquarius is in fine form and it can surprise or dismay, but it can surely keep you on your toes.

Saturn, the other ruler of Aquarius, is conjunct Pluto, sextile Neptune. This tends to activate karmic fulfillment, especially in the collective consciousness. Karma is not about punishment, but about balance and there is a lot of imbalance on the planet that has been in action for eons. It is time for the old ways to be spotlighted and addressed rather than being shoved aside on more time. We may find ourselves in situations where we have little or no control over what will happen. The decisions and actions of the group may seem to overlook the affect on the individual. In the greater scheme of things, it is not what life brings us, but how we are with it that counts in the long run. So often we have an experience and it seems like the worst possible outcome. Six months later, we have a different perspective and we are amazed at what we have learned from the same situation.

These are the times that try our Souls and yet the fires can temper us so that we are stronger and more flexible.

VIRGO FULL MOON - FEBRUARY 19

This Full Moon in Virgo is trine Mars in Taurus and Uranus at the end of Aries. Uranus at the highly charged 29th degree of Aries just adds a sense of urgency to the Martian influence. Although these planets are conjunct, they are out of sign and therefore there are mixed elements of fire and earth. This makes for rather volcanic heat, so there is the feeling that things are being internalized rather than coming to the surface. Energetically, people can feel as though they are about to blow up and no one knows for sure why. Mars in Taurus is often referred to as the cosmic bully. The Taurean bull can get very angry and super irritated. Tolerance is low and there can be explosions over things that, up to now, have been allowed. Many people are reaching a boiling point that may have been a long time coming. Patience is vitally necessary, but not readily accessible. The tendency of human nature to wait and see, can be sorely tested; something has to move.

We may not want things to change so quickly, but under the lightening like shifts that Uranus brings about there will be movement and the outcome can be more breathing room. The cobwebs of illusion will be swept away and the ensuing clarity can ease tension and allow new perspective. In some cases we may be able to see that what we thought we required in a situation was not appropriate after all. These aspects can be like an early spring cleaning, that let's life expand rather than be inhibited by the old clutter. Whether we choose the changes or just let things happen we can no longer just stand still.

Mercury, ruler of the Full Moon, is conjunct Neptune in Pisces. This can assist us to have an awareness of deeper meanings than what we think we are seeing on the surface. The hint of something new and, perhaps, intriguing can help us to take the next step. Many fear that change can be painful. We must consider that stagnation is deadly, so change always puts new life in something that seems to have fulfilled its purpose.

Mercury is squared by Jupiter, which reminds us that chasing rainbows is not in order right now. Stay optimistic, but allow the sextile between Mercury and Saturn-Venus -Pluto to assist in keeping our feet on the ground. Timing feels different and it can be difficult to assess the time required to accomplish what is desired. Allowing a little extra time for the unexpected can make life easier. Consideration of the fact that there are still only 24 hours in a day gives time for some ease in life.

The detail minded Virgo Moon can help with creating practically, while the dreamy energy of the Piscean Sun adds beauty necessary to make life flow. The fact that Sun, Moon and Mercury are all in mutable signs allows room for negotiation in places where structure has gotten in the way.

Mars in Taurus can cause bullish stubbornness to attempt to block progress, but Mars is deposed by Venus in Capricorn and a gentle touch of Goddess energy can help to ease the movement. Leadership and authority do not have to be militant.

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH from St. Germain

To heal self is divinely important. There is no way to heal others and ignore self. Put yourself into your life and the inner vision of true well-being is revealed. It is called LOVE. – St. Germain

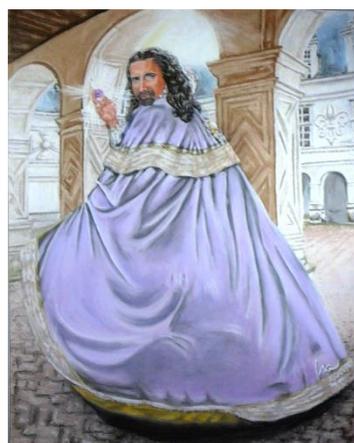

Change is necessary. The only place that change can begin is within self. To tell others how they must change, while refusing to allow change in the inner life, creates an energy that feels like resistance. Like attracts like. No one can create flow in the outer world, while resisting change within. – St. Germain

You are a Master. We tell you often. You hear it, but do not believe it is so. Allow yourself to experience the essence of the word MASTER. Feel for yourself its power. This power is not of the world, but is within you in the world. – St. Germain

To live your Magick is to feel your Love and find your internal wisdom. As you remember the power of your Magick, you find a new world right where you are—a world that has waited for you for lifetimes. – St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN'S MESSAGE

Here we are to the second month of this Year of Conscious Communication. How are you discovering yourself by paying attention to your thoughts, ideas and words? Are you feeling more aligned with yourself as you include you in your life, rather than planning, thinking and doing things because of what you think others want of you, think about you or how they judge you? You may find that the freedom to feel yourself is one of the most liberating experiences that you have had, perhaps in this lifetime; perhaps in many lifetimes.

There is a lot of blaming going on in the United States and all over the world—more than ever before. The American people have lived so long with the idea that elected officials are trustworthy because they ran for office. As the facades are dropping away, things that have been building for a long time are being revealed and each person is being called to acknowledge that they are a part of the whole. The choice to ignore what is happening does not make it go away. The choice to fight and attempt to force others to comply is a bit like putting a wrench in the works of the country.

Humanity is being brought to a place where all are required to accept that their choices create the world that they live in. The blind statement that the end justifies the means comes from the limited perspective of the logical mind. The end never has justified the cruelty, abuse and lack of compassion that is required to achieve power games at all cost.

Judgment takes sides. What is not considered is that whenever there are sides, all of the side belong to the whole. There is never only one side to anything in the three dimensional or beyond world. There are political parties, but the names are still aspects of the whole. There many different religions, yet the people who espouse those beliefs are all a part of the whole human race. There are wars being fought, within each person, as well as, outside of each one. These wars are divisive, yet the whole still remains whole. The inner wars can lead to separation from loved ones, friends, family, coworkers. They can extend to neighborhoods, communities, states, countries and global affairs. The EGO mind loves to fight. It does not even consider whether the fight has a point or a purpose. There is a blind need to be right at all costs, even if the outcome is more destructive to the ones who need to be right. There is the little child who will pout, with arms crossed across the chest, demanding to get whatever they want and refusing to let go of the powerful determination to win even if “it kills them”. The child has no clear picture of the outcome, only that it must appear to be what they are looking for. The interesting thing that We observe with so much of humanity, is that most people do not have a clear vision of a desired outcome. They just don’t want the other side to win.

Conscious Communication calls for connecting within to feel just how the emotions, reactions and fears are affecting the inner self. When the determination to fight is strong it is as though the balanced mind is pushed aside and what can be called “mob mind” takes over. There is a disconnect from the clarity, kindness and compassion that are truly basic elements of the best part of humanity. The collective consciousness is hovering at a point of shift, so that the choices of the collectives are so much more obvious than ever before. The collective has wanted someone else to make the decisions and then they can sit back and decide, after the fact, if the proper decisions were made. Hind sight is an exact science. Future vision requires patience, clarity and a wisdom that does not flow from the reactive nature of emotions.

Revelation is bringing the truth home to each and every person on Earth. YOU CREATE YOUR OWN WORLD BY WHAT YOU FOCUS ON. Your world is slightly or grandly different form all others. The judgments of the collective have been made according to the need to make everyone alike for fear of some being better, stronger or more powerful. Yet the desire of each person is to be free to be themselves, to be accepted for the choices that they make and to be Loved. The EGO mind wants revenge when the perception of being “left out” is noticed. What has not been made clear is that when someone decides that they do not belong it is a choice, rather than an outcome. However, if they cling to the choice long enough it can become a reality in their world. Choices create an attractive energy to those who feel the same way—“LIKE ATTRACTS LIKE”. Positive people draw people who like how what they are creating feels. It is true that positive energy can draw people who want the energy without making the changes in their own energy field to maintain the positive. The consciousness of much of the planet has been directed to the belief that only a few people deserve the best and the rest of the world must fight, grovel and suffer because those who have should share with those who do not. The difference is always how each person uses their own energy. Some people, simply expect that they should be taken care of and they demand it. Some, feel that they are victims and they just hope someone will feel sorry for them. Others, resent the fact that they wee not given the chances that others have had. Then there are those that, no matter what their lot in life they seek to RISE UP in live who they are in loving and positive ways.

So, when there is a positive energy in the life, it requires the constant Loving support from within the person themselves. The EGO wants to point out how hard it is to maintain positive energy in a world that is so negative. That calls for outer focus and thus distracts the positive focus within. Negative energy is presented as “the easy way out”, “a quick fix”. When the mind is fixed on how tings are and refuses to see any other way life tends to implode upon itself. When the belief is that the world owes one a living that life is holding out on the good, the acid thoughts can bring all manner of illness.

Divine creation is based on the amazing power of creative potential. Everyone has it. It is how each person chooses to use it that makes the differences. If what others are doing is interesting, intriguing, admirable it can inspire new ideas, opportunities and unlimited potential. The EGO always points out why things cannot work. Spirit shows how anything is possible. The choice is open for everyone. How will you respond is totally your own choice, so each life is created by how the individual uses their own free will. The energy is neutral so “good and bad” choices use the same energy. The desires and intensions of the person shape the outcome. In Spirit there is no judgment, because Spirit operates on the wisdom that all creation is worthy. The intensions change its value. For lifetimes the EGO Mind has promoted the beliefs, fears and doubts that have brought humanity to the place of disbelief that denies the wisdom of self, the vastness of human potential and the unlimited capabilities that constantly provide opportunities for greater creation rather than more war, destruction and harmful plots that prevent everyone from realizing that each being is a Master.

The question arises, “Who are you?” The question is filtered through the logical mind and the answer is, so often, “You are nothing”. That is why We are seeking to help humanity feel the depth of wisdom within, in the Soul Center, so that the answer that you receive comes from the well-spring of Divine Essence. That a you are assured in love that you are eternally a part of the All-ness and you belong to the Whole of Creation. The Illusion of separation is being revealed. It isn’t about looking over your shoulder to see if “what was” is catching up with you. It is about living “right here, right NOW” where the goodness of life is available. It is how you use your energy, how you trust your own personal power, not as a weapon, but as an artist’s tool of creation. If you seek to harm others you harm yourself. If you seek to call a wonderful life, you are gently asked to release the control energy of the world so that you can access your own connection to the Divine within.

These times bring renewed promise of the good/God that you are seeking. The life you seek is already with you. Abundance is a natural part of a Master’s life. It isn’t about taking from others. It is about discovering yours right where you are. Conflict is a distraction that prevents a good life. Peace is a blessing bestowed on all. Few recognize it because they are looking for something else. We hold prayers and intensions for all that the Earth can be the haven for everyone that it was originally created to be. In Love.
